THE WHY OF THE RESOLUTION

It has been puzzling many why the Strahorn crowd were satisfied with the passage of a resolution, granting permission to the O. C. & E. to lay its tracks across Sixth street. It is supposed by many that, in order to secure such a right, an ordinance will be necessary. But such is not the case.

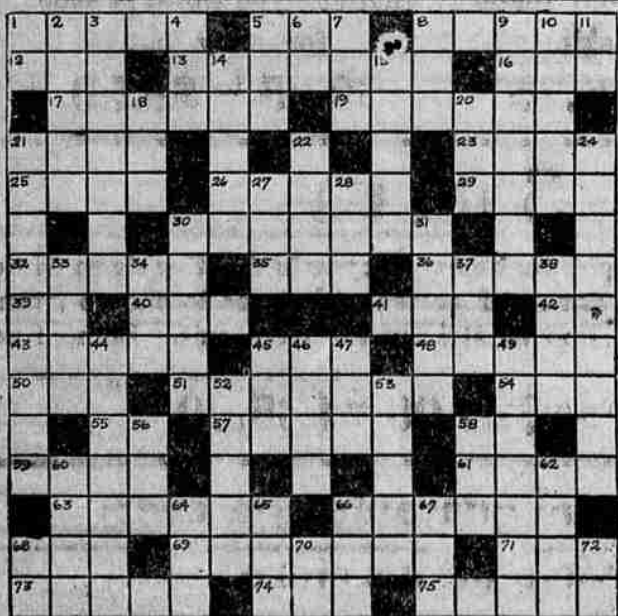

It will be remembered that sometime ago Mr. Strahorn made application to the Public Service Commission of Oregon for permission to extend the lines of the O. C. & E. to the terminal site; also out through Mills addition and up Link river. He was informed at that time that the permit would be issued only after he secured the consent of the city to such extension. The Public Service Commission is the only body in the state that has the power to grant to the O. C. & E. the authority to extend its line.

The Herald wants to warn the members of the council and the people of the city generally, that if the O. C. & E. is successful in securing what it is after, it will be impossible for the Hill line to come closer than three and one-half miles to Klamath Falls. There is a feeling existent that, "Oh! they will come in anyway." This is a mistake. The Hill line is not going to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to fight its way into Klamath Falls.

It is coming here, primarily, for the tonnage that will be derived from lumber. The business to be secured from this city will be infinitesimal, as compared with that secured throughout the county. If it can come here with the expenditure of a reasonable sum of money, it will come; otherwise, it will be content to remain within three and one-half miles of the city. If this happens, the history of Jacksonville, Oregon, Yreka, California and hundreds of other towns throughout the nation will be repeated. Klamath Falls will not become the great railroad center it can be if its citizens awaken to a full realization of what is going on.

Go to your councilman and tell him to change his attitude. Let him know what you want. Ask him to turn a deaf ear to the pleadings of the Southern Pacific and listen to the voice of the people. Let him know that Klamath Falls wants the Hill lines and that he must not be a party to blocking their entrance to this city.

YESTERDAY'S SOLUTION

MAYOR GODDARD GIVEN PRAISE

ed by you would certainly have a tendency to retard railway development, not only of Klamath Falls, but of western Modoc and Lassen counties, California, for some time to come and am taking this opportunity of congratulating you on your far sightedness and good judgment in the matter.

We, of our section, realizing the necessity of a railway connection with Klamath Falls to Westwood in order that our great timber and agricultural industries may be developed in the near future hope that nothing will be allowed to retard the early completion of this much needed connection.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) Clinton F. Fulcher
President, Dalles-Reno-Los Angeles Highway Association.

Fred R. Goddard, Mayor,
Klamath Falls, Oregon
Dear Sir:

The sheep men of Klamath county, Oregon, and Modoc and Siskiyou counties, California, who are members of this association, wish to express to you their hearty appreciation of the broad and far-sighted view you have shown in relation to the future railway development of Klamath Basin as evidenced by your official acts.

We are pleased to observe that your responsibility is only to the town you apparently realize that the interests of the town and the interests of the Klamath Basin are identical. The people of the country districts have long been wishing for an opportunity to meet on common ground and work with of all. Heretofore that opportunity while apparently offered the town for the betterment has in reality been denied us. We want you and the citizens ever we find a man or an organization who by their actions show that they are really for the whole county and tributary ready to work with that man area that we of the country are for that organization.

We wish to express appreciation particularly for the third paragraph of your veto message as quoted on page one of the Evening Herald issue of May 13.

Very sincerely yours,
Klamath Woodgrowers' Assn.

Klamath Falls, May 14.
Dr. Fred R. Goddard,
Mayor of Klamath Falls,
Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Dear Sir:
In the history of all Western Communities there comes a crisis. The means of development are necessarily lodged in great railroad corporations. So long as one great interest can control, development is limited. The only protection and assurance of future development and prosperity of any community, such as Klamath Falls and its surrounding area, lies in completion of railroad service.

Klamath Falls and the surrounding territory has reached its ultimate limit of development under the limited service and selfish policy of the Southern Pacific.

At all such times in the affairs of men, as exists at this moment in Klamath Falls, individual interests are powerless to protect themselves unless a leader arises who has the absolute confidence of the people and who has the clearness of vision to detect and expose unfitness against the common good and the indomitable courage and force of character to withstand powerful interests inimical to the public welfare.

We admire your courage, intelligence and hard common sense and we pledge you our support in the fight to make Klamath Falls and Klamath county free to all transportation interests to enter freely. We stand by you in your fight for the OPEN DOOR.

We realize fully the insincerity and the suppression of facts and intentions involved in the attempt to get from you and the City Council of Klamath Falls such action as will enable the Southern Pacific, acting through the insignificant and futile Strahorn railroad, as will block entrance to Klamath Falls.

We are also fully aware that this issue of granting the Strahorn railway the exclusive right to cross and occupy certain city streets in Klamath Falls is apparently a trivial local affair but in reality a tremendous and vital issue involving the development and future prosperity not only of Klamath Falls but of all Klamath county and northern California.

We call public attention to the bed rock fact, namely, that unless main line connections in and through the Klamath county are financed and built from our standing timber resources they will never be built.

The Southern Pacific has been stringing us along on vague and insincere promises, discouraging agriculture and the stock industry, holding development of the lumber industry down to the capacity of its branch line connection.

To permit them, through the instrumentality of the Strahorn railroad, to stand off and prevent entrance of the Great Northern and allied lines will defeat the plans of E. H. Harriman and destroy the future of the Klamath country.

We are thankful for your leadership and the whole Klamath country, and the adjoining areas of Modoc county and Northern California generally, owe you a debt of gratitude.

Very truly yours,
Transportation Committee of Klamath Irrigation District,
Charles Wood Eberlein, Chm.
F. M. Trout, M. D. Member,
John Reber, Member.

Law for Feeble Minded Is Held Constitutional

SALEM, May 14.—In an opinion handed down yesterday, Attorney General Van Winkle held that the law whereby minors are committed to the state institution for the feeble minded is constitutional. The law was attacked by attorneys for Mrs. Mabel Roth, whose young son, Earl Roth, is an inmate of the institution, and whose release she has attempted by habeas corpus proceedings. The attorney general holds that the law is beneficial to the individual and to society.

WASHINGTON — A Spanish anarchist I once knew had been living in exile in Paris. The French decided to deport him. They shipped him across the Channel to Dover.

"Got any money?" asked the English port authorities, not caring whether he was an anarchist or not. "Not a sou," he confessed. "Then we can't admit you," the officials ruled. "Here I am," rejoined the anarchist, "with no way of getting anywhere else. What are you going to do?" "Well, wait here," came back the officials, locking him up.

"Well, wait here," came back the officials, locking him up. "I'll wire to immigration headquarters in London and find out."

Very quick back came a telegram from London. "Good gracious! Don't you know political refugees aren't in the same class with ordinary immigrants? Apologize, and let him right in." How does that compare with the immigration bureau of the Labor Department here in Washington?

Nobody is better fixed to broadcast smallpox than the conductor of a crowded street car. The health authorities have been pretty anxious ever since they discovered one engaged in doing it on the Washington Railway for several days. He had been at all his "contacts" is impossible, of course.

RIGHT on top of this in came a big batch of New York papers with an anti-immigration story on the front page. Newsboys immediately began selling them, yelling, "Vaccination kills many" as loud as they could. "Not as many as smallpox," said Health Officer Fowler, telephoning the police to shut off the yelling at least

More than a third of Washington's present smallpox patients die.

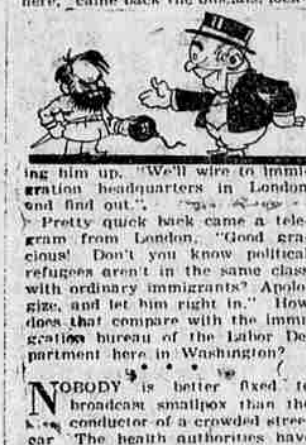

THE popular idea is that there's no difference between Republicans and Democrats any more—that there are conservatives and liberals, but that a Republican is just as apt to be one as the other, and so is a Democrat—and so, while you can tell conservatives and liberals apart, you can't tell Republicans from Democrats—they wear party labels but the labels don't mean anything.

"Oh yes they do," says Senator Henrik Shipstead of Minnesota. "The upper House's lone Farmer-laborite. A Republican believes a Republican administration ought to name all the federal appointees. A Democrat believes a Democratic administration ought to name them. It's a radical difference between the two, you see. But it's the only one there is."

THE New Exhibit, just closed and soon to be torn down, not only wasn't a new hotel, it was one of the oldest in the country. It was a great gathering place of nobilities during the Civil War. President Lincoln often conferred there with various Union commanders. It was the scene of numerous historic social functions. Its "caval room" was world famous once. President McKinley, Chief Justice Taft, Generals Grant, Sherman, Hancock and Custer and Admirals Farragut, Porter, Scott and Rowan were among its guests.

SPEAKING of immigration means, Argentina's would allow their embassy here to approve Judge E. H. Gary's passport, for a South American trip he took some time ago, until he proved he couldn't possibly become a public charge while in the regular

Principals of Next Boxing Card, Will Show Wares at Scandinavian

Fight fans, doubling ones, and the general public are invited to the Scandinavian hall tonight to watch a flock of fighters tangle gloves, as they work out for the next fight card.

Among the fighters who will be seen in action are Sammy Olson, heavyweight, Jim (Fippo) Gorman, Jack Crinum, Wilbur Harrington, Coffman and several of the preliminary fighters.

The work outs will start at 8:15 p. m., and last for several rounds each. Any doubt that the contestants are unevenly matched for the next card, will be dispelled if was promised.
