All for a Bull

Bull fighting is attended by great pomp and ceremony. And to fit into the picture matadors go to great trouble to look real pretty. Above is Rodolfo Gaona, most famous Mexican matador, in his spangled suit of many colors, having his hair vase-lined and pulled straight back to form the characteristic pig tail.

Mrs. J. H. Hobbs left Sunday morning for Wilbur to make her future home. The Merrill community greatly regret her going. Her sister, Mrs. LaTone of Salem accompanied her to Wilbur.

Mrs. Sult is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kiger. She is here to attend the graduating exercises of her grandsons, Estin and Kenneth Kiger, who are graduates of Merrill high.

The Senior class were the guests of honor at a dinner Friday evening at the Cafeteria, given by the Juniors. The Sophomores were guests as well as the faculty, local board and county board. Mr. Turnbaugh acted as toastmaster following the dinner and talks were given by W. F. Jinnette, chairman of the local board and Fred Peterson, county superintendent for the county unit.

At this time the class will be read by Melvin Moyer; class history by Mary Graybael and class prophecy by Charlotte Geertson; also toasts were given by Estin Kiger to the teachers. Charlotte Geertson, the Juniors and the rest of the class gave a toast to the Juniors separately. A short program was given by the Juniors entitled "School Day", taking off the Seniors and also the faculty. These were very good and caused a great deal of merriment. The room was prettily decorated with fir boughs. Roses were used on the tables.

Mr. C. M. Merritt, E. F. and Eugene Merritt were visitors in Klamath Falls Saturday evening.

Miss Helen Anderson spent the week-end in Klamath Falls, the guest of Miss Elizabeth Ramaby.

Mr. Wm. Baldwin of Klamath Falls was a Merrill visitor on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Walton of Klamath Falls were in Merrill Saturday for the Cox funeral.

Mr. S. E. Martin was in Merrill Sunday on business.

Rev. C. C. Hulet has returned from a ten days trip to Portland and Sunday filled the pulpit in the Methodist church in Klamath Falls.

Rev. Yarnes of the Methodist church in Klamath Falls delivered the Baccalaureate sermon to the Merrill high school class in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

The church was decorated with the class colors, blue and gold and cut flowers. The class were: Charlotte and Rolf Geertson, Estin and Kenneth Kiger, Kenneth Colwell, Magdeline McClay, Olive Hill, Mary Graybael, Hallie Moore and Melvin Moyer. Mr. Yarnes took as his talk "Youth of the Day". He compared the present with the past generations showing the advancements that are being made in education, invention etc., by the present that we need have no fear for the future from the hands of the present generation. It was a forcible talk and was enjoyed by those hearing him.

The graduating exercises will be held Thursday evening at the Merrill community hall. Dr. Dubach of O. A. C. will give the address.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church will be held at the club rooms Wednesday afternoon.

W. F. Jinnette was a business visitor in Klamath Falls Friday.

Mrs. J. W. Taylor was in Klamath Falls Friday from Merrill.

A number from Merrill have been planning to attend Grand Lodge
