Henley Will Be Awarded 2 Cups at Graduation

Two testimonials of supremacy in athletics will be awarded this evening to Henley high school at the commencement exercises. The testimonials are two silver cups, one for the Henley girls' baseball team which won the championship of Klamath county and the other to the Henley boys' baseball team which finished first in the county high school league.

Herald Is Thanked For Its Publicity

Appreciation of the publicity given the Elks' Western Nights by The Evening Herald is expressed in a letter received today from officers of the lodge. The letter follows: "I have been requested by the Exalted Ruler, Charlton S. Currin, to express the thanks of Klamath Falls Lodge of Elks No. 1247, to you for your splendid efforts in assisting us in making the 'Elks' Western Nights' an unequalled success."
