AT THE LIBERTY

"Sell 'Em Cowboy" an Arrow-Ben Wilson "Great Western" the attraction at the Liberty theater tonight, is packed with snappy action and the plot is most original. It leaves the commonplace and stands out by itself.

Dick Hatton is the hero and is very nearly the whole thing, having a role which calls for an unusual amount of individual effort.

AT THE PINE TREE

Twelve pairs of prize winning but rebellious legs are encased in silken hose because their owners refused to adopt the decree of Paris and expose their lower extremities to the sun.

The possessors of the eye-intriguing limbs are members of the "May-time" double beauty sextette, selected by an independent committee as the most beautiful girls in Hollywood. They enacted their first screen roles in the "Gambler" production, which will be seen here on Friday at the Pine Tree theater.
