Funeral services for C. Newhouse, aged 41, who was almost instantly killed Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when his arm was torn off at the Shasta View Lumber company, were held this morning at Salvation Army hall at 9 o'clock. The body was shipped east to Denver, Colorado where interment will take place.

Newhouse, who was employed as an officer for the Nine brothers, got his right arm caught in the roller. Before he could save himself, the arm was pulled off and the man died a few seconds later from shock.

He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Evangeline Newhouse, a daughter, Mildred, aged 9; and two sisters and a father in Holland.

According to reports, the mill was inspected by a representative of the state industrial accident commission, several days before the tragedy and was reported in good shape.

Smart for Fall Or Summer

A CONSERVATIVE cut and elegance of materials make this wrap one of the loveliest Paris has sent over to us. It is of beige colored husha cloth trimmed with bands of chipmunk fur whose tan and brown tones blend harmoniously with the material. It will be as smart for early fall as for sunny days.
