Boxing Fans Eager to See Big Heavyweights Clash in Main Event Match Tonight

Sammy Olson and Jim Gorman Both Confident of Victory—Carlson-Coffman Battle to Be Warm One—Every Fight Will Be Fast

When the gong sounds tonight for the main event of the boxing program at Scandinavian hall it will find two fighters opposing each other who weigh almost identically the same, rather unusual in heavyweight circles where there are no weight requirements to be met.

Both Jim Firpo Gorman and Sammy Olson will tip the scales at approximately 190 pounds with perhaps a pound or so variation.

The winner of the match will find he has jumped from the frying pan into the fire for he will be greeted by a host of ringside challenges from men of no mean ability.

Heading the list is Rocco Stramaglia, who is anxious to again do his stuff before local fans. Frank Farmer, Nig Yeager, Tiny Herman and George Lamson are only a few of the remaining who want a chance at the winner.

Stramaglia would be perhaps the best drawing card if Olson wins the match tonight, as local fans are anxious to see another go between the two.

The winner of the Carlson-Coffman go is likewise destined to have a lot of trouble on his hands in the person of one Jimmie Cottrell, experienced coast lightweight, who is clamoring for a match with the winner.

In spite of this looming on the horizon, both Carlson and Coffman have the same idea about the fight tonight—the idea of each being that he will win.

This bout is sure to have a disastrous ending for one of the boys. In the opinion of fans who have watched both slugging gloves in the workouts. The one who gets across the first wham should go home with the big end of the gate.

In the Sailor McCarthy-Harrington fight there is also the shadow of disaster hanging on the horizon in the person of one Heinle Meyers, who wants to take on the winner.

Meyers comes from California and his is the buzz-saw technique of the four-round game. In the ring he has one idea—that of keeping both hands swinging and forgetting all about the effect it might have on his opponent.

Richard Scott and Babe Lightfoot have both worked hard in preparation for their coming fight and local fans expect Lightfoot to put up the best fight of his career tonight—a proceeding which they say Scott will render necessary.

A curtain raiser preceding the Lightfoot-Scott contest has been arranged. Two local boys will go either three or four rounds.

A new stunt will be tried tonight by the boxing commission to prevent the confusion that has hitherto tied up matters at the entrance. General admission tickets will be placed on sale at 7:00 o'clock, an hour before the fights start. First come, first served will be the order of the day. Reserved seat tickets will be placed on sale shortly afterwards.

Johnnie Houston's orchestra will relieve the solemnity of the occasion between bouts, while the fallen gladiators are being carted away, by occasional bits of jazz.

Chronic late-comers are warned by the commission that they'll miss something if they come at 8:15. The first bout will go on at 8:00 o'clock sharp, and that's that.

FORMER RESIDENT ILL

Old Inhabitant of Klamath County Very Low at Portland

Mrs. Alice Hamilton left this afternoon by stage for Portland to be with her father, Louis Allin, who was formerly a resident of Klamath county. Mr. Allin is 83 years of age and is well known in this county where he was a resident for over 35 years. For many years he resided on the Fairchild and Dorris ranch. Mrs. Hamilton just returned from Portland about ten days ago from a visit to her father at which time he was slightly improved. Little hope is held out for his recovery at this time.

Black Cat Is Friendly With Both Fighters

Jim Gorman and Sam Olson Are Badly Worried

Jim Firpo Gorman and Sammy Olson, slashing 190-pounders, who meet tonight in what is scheduled to be a ten-round fight at Scandinavian hall, are worried. Neither is worrying about what the other will do in the ring tonight but over another matter entirely.

A black cat is the cause of it all. The cat was used by the Shriners at the time of their Ceremonial here and ever since has insisted on making its home in the Scandinavian hall.

Which is not so bad, even if fighters are more or less superstitious on the eve of battle.

The thing worrying both Olson and Gorman is the fact that the cat seems undecided just which one to pick for a playmate. It shows a disposition to be friendly with both of them, much to their horror.

Monday it was found curled up peacefully in Gorman's bathrobe and today Gorman is said to be seriously considering smearing catnip in Olson's corner so that the jinx will roost there tonight during the fight.

Both fighters have joined in an appeal that the people who own the cat come and take it home where it will be appreciated.

Too Much Rain Makes Fishing Unprofitable

Klamath Falls, unprecedented rainy spell has brought joy to farmers and gloom to local fishermen.

Fish, the sportsmen say, refuse to be caught by pretty feathers or painted wood as long as there is an abundance of natural food.

This recent rains have provided. Food has been washed in from creek and river banks and in addition water is so high and discolored that it's hard for a fish to see anything but real food. Better fishing is expected to result immediately the rains stop and the water goes down, however.

ABOUT RESERVED SEATS: Reserved Seats for Chautauqua to Be Installed

There has been some call for a reserved seat service at the chautauqua. The committee would like to have an indication from the patrons of the chautauqua as to whether or not such a service would be popular this year at a price of one dollar per seat for the season. The service would consist of the use of a numbered folding chair near the front of the tent which would be reserved for the holder of a ticket bearing the same number for each performance during the course. Arrangements have been made to tag tentative orders at the office of Walton & Wright, 601 Main street, Phone 645-W. If about one hundred orders are received by Wednesday noon these seats will be installed and the service made available.

TO FIGHT SATURDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Managers of Jack Renault and George Godfrey announced today that they would declare the winner of the contest of these heavyweights next Saturday afternoon as the champion of the world. Jack Dempsey, they held, had forfeited title to that remunerative position by reason of long absence from the ring.

Odds of 10 to 9 are being offered on Renault, the former mounted policeman from Canada having twice defeated his dark skinned opponent. Barring knockouts, the men will punch each other for ten rounds.

"Dead Letter" Week Is Being Observed

Throughout the United States among post offices, this week will be known as campaign week against "dead letters." During the past week, Assistant Postmaster R. L. Griffith of the local post office, has had over two hundred letters that must be returned to the office at San Francisco, which is headquarters for this district.

After the letters are returned to San Francisco they are opened and if any valuables are found with no hint of address of the sender, the money is turned over to the miscellaneous postal fund. All letters from the local office are returned weekly to San Francisco.

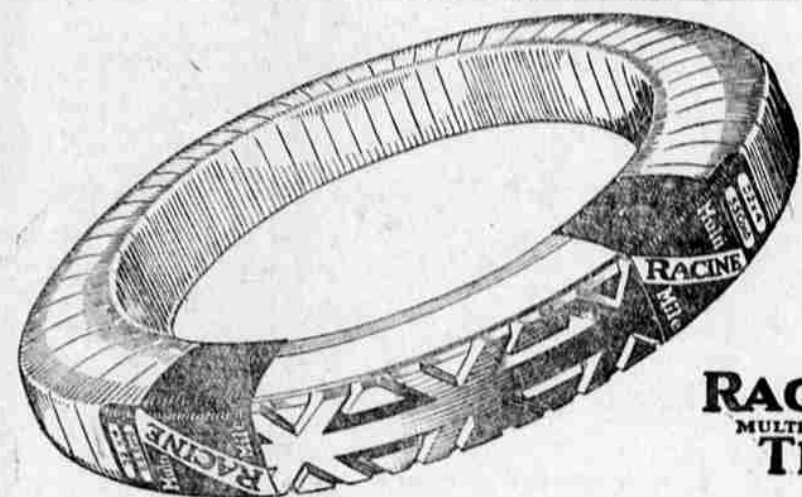

Between 200 and 250 letters are returned weekly according to Mr. Griffith's report, who finds that much of the fault is due to improper addresses. Many of these are the men going to lumbering camps in the vicinity of Klamath Falls give the local office as their address and fail to make any change when leaving for camp.

Made for pipes—and pipes only!

If ever a tobacco were "made for pipes"—it's Granger Rough Cut. Granulated, fine-cut tobaccos tend to smoke fast and hot in your pipe. But Granger naturally smokes slow and cool because it's specially cut for pipes—"rough cut," we call it. And when it comes to taste, Granger Rough Cut is neither over-mild nor too stout, but has that full, rich "rounded-out" mellowness that seems to just "go" with a pipe.
