

The Evening Herald

Issued Daily, except Sunday, by The Herald Publishing Company, Office: 119 N. Eighth Street, Klamath Falls, Ore.

E. J. MURRAY Publisher
W. H. PERKINS News Editor

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Klamath Falls, Oregon, under act of March 3, 1879.

Member of the Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use of republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published therein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

The Evening Herald is the official paper of Klamath County and the City of Klamath Falls.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Delivered by Carrier		By Mail
One Year	$6.50	One Year	$5.00
Six Months	3.50	Six Months	2.75
Three Months	1.95	Three Months	1.50
One Month	.65	One Month	.65

TUESDAY, JUNE 2, 1925

GOOD RIDDANCE

Klamath county is to be congratulated if the report is true that District Attorney Ganong has decided to demand the resignation of his deputy, W. P. Myers. It is to be hoped that the man who succeeds to the post will more faithfully and fairly represent the people of this county.

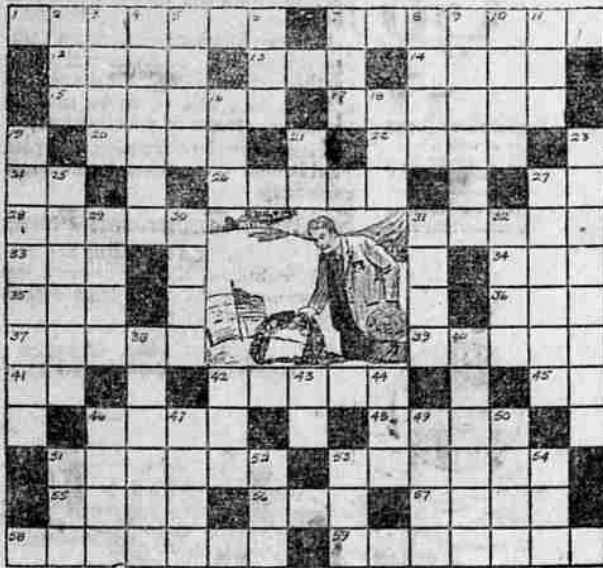

Myers has on repeated occasions displayed his unfitness for office. His defense of the moral pervert Annes, in the federal court at Portland was an outrage against every decent citizen in Klamath county and the state at large.

There have been numerous instances where this man Myers has shown himself entirely incapable of conducting the district attorney's office along clean, legitimate lines, and the sooner he is ousted the better it will be for Klamath county.

His greedy effort to wring a $25 fee from a poor lumber worker for doing a service which he could well have done in his role as acting district attorney stamped him in the minds of the public as a man who was a menace to the public he was supposed to serve.

District Attorney Ganong, ill in a government hospital, is to be commended for his reported determination to rid himself and Klamath county of an official who apparently has no conception of the meaning of public service.

TODAY'S CROSS WORD PUZZLE

HORIZONTAL

- Former soldier.
- Courage (of soldiers).
- Priest belonging to Lamaism.
- Collection of facts.
- Fondness (of country).
- Wavy.
- Firmly implanted as in the heart.
- Joint in the middle of the leg.
- Strap of a bridle.
- Printer's measure.
- Where a soldier is buried.
- Fourth rate in scale.
- Swamps.
- Country.
- Indian tribe.
- Enemy.
- To decay.
- Spikelet on barley or oats.
- Ranged.
- Heron.
- Like.
- National Emblems.
- Second rate in scale.
- Father.
- Chickens.
- Race horses.
- Disclose.
- Maple tree family.
- Epoch.
- Sea Eagle.
- Name of our country.
- Marches in review to commemorate this day.

VERTICAL

- A sprite.
- To deliver a speech.
- Improves.
- People.
- No.
- To obstruct.
- Plant which yields bitter drug.

VERTICAL

- Consecrated by a vow.
- Level.
- Carmine.
- Small cask.
- Rock containing metal.
- The name of this day.
- Mother.
- Mourned.
- Feudal estates.
- Garden plant.
- Polyesian chestnut.
- Abode.
- Solemn ceremony.
- At a great distance.
- A person who searches for missing articles or people.
- Classes.
- Opposite of near.
- Variant of "a".
- Feminine pronoun.
- Step.
- Fairy.
- Always.
- Small grains of earth.
- Engine of war.
- To knock.
- Sheltered.

YESTERDAY'S SOLUTION

FEARFUL STARS
 ARE WEAR T
 TRANSIT HEAR
 ASAKE MELT PLAM
 LIPS SARD TRIP
 RIVE SAID SHORE
 HEM HOLD DIAL D
 ASHALL TRESTORE
 LATT MEV OLETENOD
 PLAT FPOO REGO
 BLOT RAPIT SWATH
 RUN WIDE MEET O
 EMRAISE PERSIAN
 E NAVE FORE ORE
 DRONE PLATE ANTS

"This Style is Always Popular With the Little Boys"

WHY MOTHERS GET GRAY.

STEWART'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By CHARLES F. STEWART
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Not even the biggest issues of international politics bother the State Department as it is bothered periodically by controversies over the "presentation" of American women at the royal court of St. James.

Matters in dispute between governments can be argued, adjusted, compromised. Trained men talk them over rationally. There are rules and precedents to go by. Reason rules—at least some of the time.

Reason has nothing to do with being "presented" at court. The American woman who wants to be "presented" just wants to be "presented"—"because." The average American can't possibly imagine how a certain type DOES want to be "presented."

With a woman of that type it's an obsession, a longing like the longing of the confirmed dope fiend for his favorite drug.

"Presented," that woman has "arrived" socially. She can quit. For her death has no sting. She's accomplished all things.

"Unpresented," her life has failed ignominiously. Other than American women may be this way, too. I don't know. The Americans are the ones I observed, as a correspondent in London, where the "presentation" fight always is on at the United States embassy whenever a "court" is ahead.

An eligible candidate for "presentation" must possess three qualifications.

1. Respectability. Most of them have that.
2. Money enough to pay for the prescribed outfit. All have that or they wouldn't be candidates.
3. An adequate "pull" to get them a "command" to attend court. That's where they fall down. You can count on your fingers the American women with "pull" enough of their very own to get the necessary "command." They include the diplomatic group, those who have married into the English peerage, a few who have spent decades and fortunes in England building themselves up socially and two or three of the super-elect here at home.

The rest must depend on the recommendation of the American ambassador in London. His recommendation invariably does the work, but every time there's a "court" he has hundreds of applications and only a dozen or twenty recommendations to dispense.

Who gets 'em? You'd better believe that deciding that is what makes the ambassador's hair turn gray.

The applicants mostly are big people, mind, with lots of influence in the home land. It doesn't do to offend them and yet it has to be done.

After pounding the ambassador on the back until he's half dead—for he can make his limited number of "commands" go only just so far—they begin bombarding the State Department. "Favoritism!" they yell. There were two "courts" in succession in London recently. The State Department officials are wild-eyed yet. But probably they're not a circumstance to the way Ambassador Houghton looks.

At the PINE TREE

Since the announcement by the Pine Tree theater that "Dante's Inferno" has been booked for a run beginning Tuesday, great interest has been aroused hereabouts in the celebrated allegory with which his name is associated in the mind of everyone who has a knowledge of classic literature. The public library reports that the book is in constant demand by people wishing to refresh their memories upon the famous poem, or to read it for the first time, before seeing the picture.

"Inferno" narrates an imaginary journey made by Dante through hell. At the outset he finds himself lost within a fearful forest, where he encounters three wild beasts. Fearing the monsters will devour him, he looks about for help and before him appears the spirit of the ancient Roman poet Virgil who has been summoned from punishment in Purgatory by Beatrice to lead Dante on his perilous way through the terrors of the nether regions.

At the LIBERTY

Richard Talmadge never has to study stunts. The daring deeds with which he makes his screen followers gasp, come almost as second nature to him; and he has a picture packed with new death-defying tricks in his latest offering, "Youth and Adventure," which comes to the Liberty theater on Tuesday. Talmadge is an athlete who leaps from aeroplanes, roller-coasters and automobiles in this production.

RESIGNS POSITION

Mrs. Harry Poole who has been connected with the Klamath Development company for sometime has resigned her position. The vacancy has been filled by Mrs. Coral Sabo who will take up her new duties at once.

MOE'S SALE OF PROGRESS BEGINS FRIDAY, JUNE 5TH
Watch for the Bargain Event of June—Moe's 9th Annual Sale of Progress—Begins Friday.—Adv. 1-2

Oakland Stands 30,000-Mile Trip With No Repairs

Driving 30,000 miles in an Oakland Six, over all sorts and conditions of roads, without even a puncture, Mrs. Lulu Lockhaven and Mrs. Betty McClain this week made one of the most remarkable tests ever given a motor, when they arrived in Portland this afternoon.

Mrs. Lockhaven and Mrs. McClain have been touring the west, advertising Oregon lands, and arrived in Ashland Monday. From the time they left Portland until their return the motor was given no attention whatever, except to add oil and gasoline. They averaged 20 miles to the gallon of gas.

Mrs. H. R. Reynolds, who attended the board of survey hearings here, joined them in Ashland and rode with them to Portland.

MARKETS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 2.—Cattle and calves, nominally steady; no receipts.

Hogs nominally steady; no receipts.

Sheep, steady; no receipts.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 2. Eggs, lots 25 1-2@26c; firsts, 25 1-2@ steady. Current receipts, 30c; pul-26c; henneries, 30@30 1-2c, delivered Portland.

Butter, unchanged, market firm. Extra cubes, city, 42c; standards, 41c; prime firsts, 41c; firsts, 39 1-2c; undergrades, nominal; prints, 43c; cartons, 44c.

Butterfat, steady; best churning cream, 40c net, shippers' track in zone 1; 42c delivered Portland.

Poultry, steady. Heavy hens, 24 @25c; light, 23c; broilers, 20@25c; young white ducks, 30@32c. Potatoes, steady; No. 2, $2.25@2.35. Walnuts, steady, No. 1, 28 1-2@32 1-2c; filberts, nominal; almonds, 20@25c; Brazil nuts, 12@14c; Italian chestnuts, 21c. Hops, steady, 1924 crop, 13 1-2 @14c; 1923 crop, nominal. Casaca bark, steady. New peel, 7@8c per pound; Oregon grau root, 4c.

New State Traffic Officers Appointed

SALEM, Ore., June 2.—The number of state traffic officers patrolling the highways of Oregon was today increased from 14 to 24, or 25 including T. A. Raffety, chief state traffic inspector. This is under an act of the 1925 legislative session centralizing control of all the officers in the chief inspector and authorizing the state department through him to appoint up to 25 officers.

The new officers appointed were: O. J. Banks, Yamhill; C. L. Hudson, Astoria; C. C. Williams, Coquille; A. H. Shortes, Eugene; Walter Lansing, Baker; Walter Foster, Redmond; W. K. McGilvray, Portland; E. H. Lister, Eugene; J. A. Robertson, Ontario; A. G. Dunn, La Grande, and W. H. Ellensburg, Corvallis.

REDFIELDS RETURN Back From Portland Trip of Business and Pleasure

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Redfields and family returned Sunday from Portland where they have been for several days on a combined business and pleasure trip. They made the trip by auto.

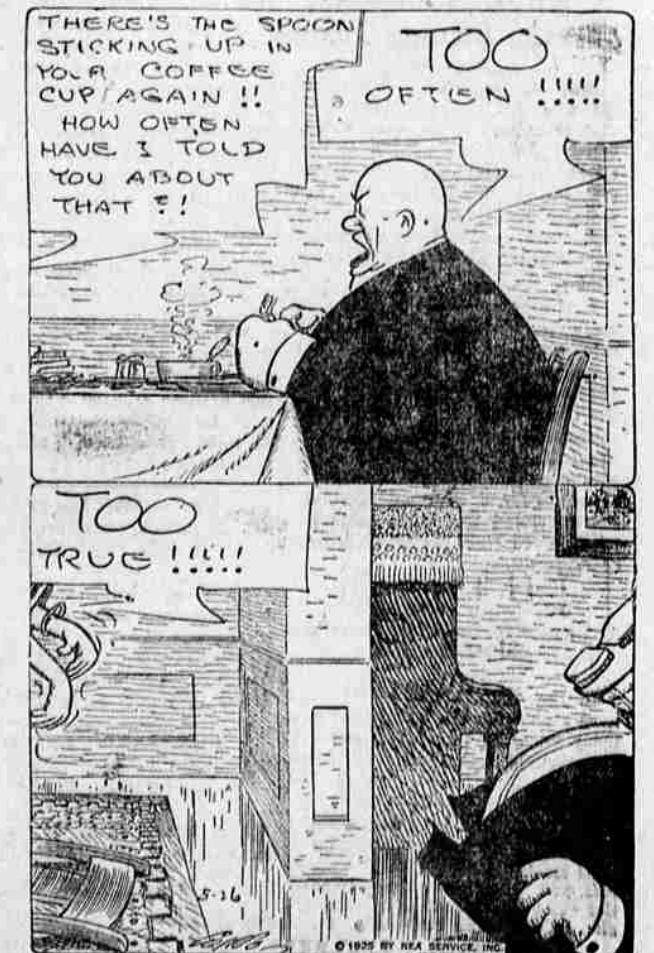

Watch For The Lumberlogue Issued By The Evening Herald Every Wednesday

THE OLD HOME TOWN

Read The Herald Classified Ads—Page 7

EVERETT TRUE By CONDO

Legion Smoker

Chamber of Commerce Rooms

8 o'clock tonight

Harry Poole and his Pine Tree Vaudeville act Cox and Fiske and Frank Confer will entertain

Eats