At the PINE TREE

"A Kiss in the Dark", which opens today at the Pine Tree theatre based on the stage play, "Asen't We All," by Frederick Lonsdale, is a romantic light comedy with Adolphe Menjou, Lillian Rich and Aileen Pringle featured in the leading roles.

The story deals with the love affairs of a young American, manager of a large plantation in Cuba. He falls for every young woman who happens along and one day meets the one woman of his heart. Despite his repeated promises to reform and settle down, she makes light of his many proposals of marriage believing that she is but another one of his flames to be toyed with for a time and then cast aside.

Menjou, as Walter Grenham, however, manages to convince Janet (Aileen Pringle) that he is sincere. She accepts him, only to break the engagement when she sees him in the arms of a married woman, Betty King. Miss Rich has this role. In reality, it is Betty and not Grenham who does all the pursuing and the thoughtless girl, never thinking for a moment that she is endangering her own happiness with her husband, whom she loves, almost spoils things for Grenham and Janet.

In the climax that piles laugh upon laugh, Menjou proves that women in general interest him no longer—that new he has eyes for but one.

Kenneth MacKenna plays Johnny King, Betty's late husband, who goes gunning for his rival, whom he believes to be one of his wife's many Cuban admirers. In reality, Menjou is the man. Some great laughs here.

Ann Pennington and Kitty Kelly are but two of the other big names in the cast.

At the LIBERTY

Because a man saves another man's life he is ever exempt from punishment at the hands of the other man, no matter what he may do against that man's welfare? This is one of the questions asked, and dramatically answered, in "Neglected Women," coming to the Liberty Theater today.

Both these men are in love with the same girl and, in a fit of pique, she marries the one she doesn't love. Later, after love for her husband

BLONDES

Keep your hair from darkening! This new Swedish discovery brings back a rich, golden beauty even to the most faded and lusterless blond hair.

Ordinary shampoos make blond hair darker by removing much of the necessary oils. Very often blond-haired people think that their hair is changing color when it is only the shampoo that is at fault.

No matter how faded or dull your hair may be, even if it has become much darker, the remarkable new Swedish LITHEAIR Shampoo—BLONDEX—will restore it quickly to its original golden beauty. Just one shampoo will amaze you. The hair becomes several shades lighter, fluffier, more beautiful with each shampoo!

Why use ordinary shampoos for your hair? Blondes should use only this special light-hair shampoo and see how much prettier the hair becomes. It is absolutely harmless, contains no injurious chemicals and is not a dye. Highly recommended for children. Costs only a little for a large sized package that will last a long time. Your dealer will promptly refund the purchase price if you are not completely satisfied with results. BLONDEX is for sale by all good drug and department stores, such as

SPRAGUE RIVER

Mrs. Dollie Lawver of Wyandott, Okla., arrived Wednesday and called to see Rev. Mrs. Clark, who was at one time located at Modoc, Okla.

Mr. Smith of Lakeview who has been employed at the mill has resigned and has taken the contract of building a house for Frank Corbern. Mr. Corbern will have one of the nicest houses in this vicinity when complete and will be 32x42. Mr. Corbern is one of the most progressive cattlemen we have in Sprague River valley.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Wolford and little son Scott made a business trip to the county seat Monday returning the same day.

Mrs. Bertha Wallace of Yanix was in Sprague River Thursday. Mrs. Wallace was on her way to Chiloquin where she went on business.

Those that attended the debate at Beatty Friday evening from here were Judge and Mrs. Levi F. Walker, Durbain Cook, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Conschin. They report a very nice time.

Rev. Mrs. Ivey Clark made a trip to Klamath Falls the first of the week.

There was quite a number from Chiloquin and Modoc Point attending memorial day at Whiskey creek cemetery Saturday. The exercises were very nice after the decoration they sang some songs and the Rev. Mrs. Ivey Clark, addressed the people. After the exercises were concluded they had a picnic dinner, and in the afternoon the Rev. McAntosh of Beatty, addressed the people.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Conschin made a trip to the Wilson cemetery to decorate the family graves on Friday of last week.

The Ladies Aid society will meet at the tent on Thursday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Ball and daughter of the Williamson River district were visiting at C. A. Conschin's this week.

Walter Lindsay who is employed at the hospital this week returned Monday much improved.

Mrs. Charles Hood of Chiloquin was visiting friends here the latter part of last week.

The people of Sprague River observed memorial day here Sunday with a program and a speech by Mr. Clark.

Mrs. Jennie Clinton of Williamson River is visiting friends here for awhile.

has come to her, the other man, chiefly because he is her husband's friend, still retains a hold on her affections and he uses this hold to inveigle her into giving him business information about her husband's affairs which he uses to his detriment. When the source of the information comes out, the seed of jealousy is sown in the husband's mind and when the two men meet—

It's a strong situation and the climax that follows it has a surprise kick to it that will delight every movie fan.

A splendid cast enact the various roles in the picture. Headed by Seena Owen it includes the following favorites: Thurston Hall, Lawford Davidson, Eva Moore, Cameron Carr and Joan Morgan.

The picture is an adaptation from the story "The Great Wall," by Sir Alfred Sutro, the famous English playwright.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS TO GATHER AT DULUTH

DULUTH, Minn.—(A.P.)—The international convention of the Knights of Columbus, which will be held here August 4, 5 and 6, will be attended by many prominent members of the hierarchy, as well as a number of well-known laymen. Dennis E. Donovan, state deputy in charge of arrangements, is planning for 2500 delegates and visitors.

The convention will open with a parade, followed by pontifical mass. Business sessions are expected to be held the mornings of the second and third days.

On Friday the delegates will start a tour of the Mesabe Iron range, visiting the Hull-Rust-Mahoning mine at Hibbing, the largest open pit mine in the world.

HERE FROM SOUTH

Lewis Graer of San Francisco and L. McComb of Oakland are visitors in the city. They made the trip from Oakland by auto.
