News Of The Klamath Country

Shasta View—Malin

We are pleased to note that Mrs. A. E. Street has returned from the hospital at Klamath Falls and is gaining nicely.

Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Hulet, Mrs. Patterson and Mr. Wessels of Merrill were guests at the home of John Bailey and wife Wednesday afternoon and attended the graduating exercises at Malin in the evening.

The large number in attendance at the graduating exercises Wednesday evening at the Broadway theater at Malin spoke plainly of the interest taken by the people of Malin and vicinity in the eight young men graduates of the Union High School of Malin. It is quite unusual for a class composed of boys alone and especially when two brothers from three of our families are participants. Those composing the class are Lester and Earl Wilson, Tinsman and Neal Craig, John and Percy McNeil, Frank Tofell and Vaclav Kalina. The program was opened by Prof. A. E. Street, principal of the high school, after which the following program was given:

Piano solo Dorris Robinson
Salutatory Neal Craig
Class history Earl Wilson
The Passing Days Glee Club
Address, Attorney R. C. Groesbeck
Class will Frank Tofell

Class prophecy Tinsman Craig
Valedictory Vaclav Kalina
Presentation of Diplomas

M. M. Stasny
Piano solo Dorris Robinson
Benediction Rev. G. C. Hulet
Each number showed careful thought in preparation and was well rendered and the many friends of these young men congratulate them.

A few of the many good thoughts brought out by Attorney R. C. Groesbeck, whose address was especially to the class were: Be honest to yourself and others, have confidence in yourself and your fellow man, whatever you undertake put your whole heart into it, and as no two people see things from the same viewpoint, do not be afraid but rather pleased to ask the opinions of your friends, and last but not least, no matter what people say about your being a failure, remember that you are never a failure until you admit to yourself that you are a failure.

M. M. Stasny, representing the school board, with a few well chosen words presented the diplomas. Professor Street then called to the front Martha Jellenek, Beth Kirkpatrick and a boy whose name we did not catch, and said these are three of the high school students who have not missed a day or been tardy and who stood high in all their studies and deportment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sanders and daughter Florence of Malin were visitors in Alturas Friday.

The ladies of the Helping Hand society met at Community hall with ten members present. A tureen dinner was enjoyed and a comfort tied. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Layman June 17th, at which time officers will be elected.

Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Myers and sons David and Byron were Alturas visitors. While there Mrs. Myers called on the secretary of the Native Daughters of the Golden West regarding the monument to be erected in memory of Gen. Canby in the Lava Beds.

LORELLA

The Langell Valley Ladies club met with Mrs. Jesse Walker on Thursday afternoon, owing to the unfavorable condition of the weather the attendance was small. The following members were present: Mesdames T. F. Boggs, Cy Conley, W. D. Campbell, R. Hopkins, John Turner, H. J. Ticknor, G. P. Keller, Oscar Campbell, Hobbette Tuttle, and Mrs. C. D. Chorpensing as a visitor. After the regular routine of business delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The June meeting will be with Mrs. T. F. Boggs at which time election of officers will take place. An enjoyable time was had by all present.

Mrs. C. D. Chorpensing and children of Merrill returned to her home after spending a week with her parents.

T. F. Boggs and wife and Lester Boggs were Klamath Falls business visitors on Monday.

Mrs. R. C. Cowley was called to Klamath Falls on account of the serious illness of her brother Doc Pool who is confined in the hospital with typhoid fever.

Miss Ruth Cofer spent several days with the Geo. Noble family last week.

Mrs. Mattie Lunday visited friends in Langell valley for a few days, she returned Monday to her home in Lumberton.

W. D. Campbell has purchased a Studebaker car and is enjoying the good Langell Valley roads more than ever.

Mrs. Leland Harris returned to her home on Wednesday after being confined to the Klamath Valley hospital with an operation for appendicitis.

Ben Crapsur has gone to Nebraska for a visit with his father who is reported quite ill.

Cy Conley and wife have gone to Central Point for a visit with relatives.

The work at the Gerber Reservoir dam which is intended for the watch man is progressing rapidly and will be ready for occupancy by the first of August.

Ralph Hopkins has been appointed by the U. S. R. S. as manager of the Langell Valley Irrigation District for a term of three years. Mr. Hopkins has resided in Langell Valley for a number of years and citizens of the Valley Xare pleased to learn of the appointment.

Mrs. Louis Gerber is visiting relatives in Klamath Falls for a few days.

The Langell Valley Barbecue which is to be held in Langell Valley on Sunday June 21st, is progressing nicely from the reports of the committees in charge. Preparations for handling a larger crowd than last year are under way in the way of an extra steer and other meats. The committee on entertainment report that Gov. Pierce may be the speaker of the day, however, definite plans will be announced thru the local paper at a later date.

In Business

As well as in social contact your personal appearance plays a very important part.

Clothes are the most important item in appearance and clothes that are hand tailored by expert craftsmen have a greater influence than a store full of suits that are made for anybody and nobody in particular.

At the LIBERTY

If there is a thrill left in you, if your memory can go back to the days of real sport, when the greatest hero of your imagination was the two-gun man of the plains—then you have a great evening's entertainment in store for you at the Liberty theatre. Tom Mix in "The Deadwood Coach," adaptation of Clarence Mulford's novel, "The Orphan," opened last night. It drew a capacity house and will show again tonight.

With a superb cast, Mix, has made what we believe is the best western motion picture of his career. It has thrilling action, breath-taking suspense and a comedy relief which is handled expertly and is calculated to make the most case-hardened film fan shake with laughter.

At the PINE TREE

"It was worse'n a Turkish bath in Yuma on the Fourth of July," says Buster Keaton, speaking of the diving suit he wore during the filming of his latest comedy, "The Navigator," which is at the Pine Tree Theater today.

While making "The Navigator," Buster chartered the Buford, a 450-foot liner of the Alaskan-Siberian Navigation company, and anchored it off Catalina Island.

Buster and his two cameramen, need a special underwater photographic apparatus, and took some marvelous submarine scenes in the Catalina sea gardens.

Buster, while beneath the waves, tried to crank up the screw of the giant steamship octopus and several sharks, to say nothing of dodging swordfish, riding on the back of a flying fish, and traveling on a sari board towed by a whale.

Would you pay ten million dollars for something, if it happened to be the last of its kind in the world?

That is what was paid for the last man on earth in the film by that name which opens at the Pine Tree theatre Tuesday evening. Earle Foxe was the man and Clara Selwyn, playing the role of Dr. Proudwell, paid the money, after outbidding all the other women in the world who were desirous of possessing him.

Postal Employees Make Good Record

Making a record of one-hundred percent perfect, two brothers, William L. Massey and Thomas H. Massey, both distributing clerks at the local post office, passed the examination, held at the local office Saturday afternoon, by William C. Ott, chief clerk of the railway mail service.

The examination takes in the 581 offices of the state, and the distributor must place cards into the various boxes without a single error at a fast rate of speed to be held at one hundred per cent perfect.

William L. Massey made the record of 29 cards per minute with an average of 29.34. Thomas H. Massey, made an average of 27.45 with 31 cards per minute.

John Svenson, the third clerk to take the examination had 99.95 correct, with 30-10 average, averaging 28 cards per minute. His record was faster, but not as accurate as the two Massey brothers.

According to Assistant Postmaster R. L. Griffith, this record is most unusual and considered very fast time. Mr. Ott left for Ashland by stage where he will conduct an examination of the distributing there and will then go on to the various offices along the line.
