

LONG-BELL OAK FLOORING

Floors That Add to the Home Furnishings

NOTHING attracts the attention so quickly in the inside of your home as the floors. They should be considered as something more than a part of the house—they are more properly a part of the furnishing. Therefore it is only reasonable to suggest that you give to the selection of flooring the same careful attention that you would the new living room furniture. The perfect floor is OAK—recognized the world over for its beauty, durability, economy and susceptibility to fine finish. Long-Bell Oak Flooring, which we handle, answers every requirement of texture, manufacture, finish, satisfaction and durability. Let us show you in actual figures the economy of this substantial Long-Bell Oak Flooring.

istered on celluloid as backgrounds for the intensely dramatic action of the story.

"Greed" is unique in that the entire picture was produced in the actual setting of the story, and not a single scene was made in the Metro-Goldwyn studio. Director von Stroheim carried a cast of ten principals and a staff of nearly thirty to San Francisco, and maintained them there throughout the filming of the picture.

At the LIBERTY

A shaky platform on loosely joined girders twenty-five stories high holds no charm for Paul Sloane, who directed Richard Dix in his latest starring picture, "The Shock Punch," coming to the Liberty theater tonight.

Sloane's decision to do as little "human fly" stuff as possible came when he climbed to such a platform on the steel framework of the American Telephone building in lower Manhattan. It is on this platform that Dix and Walter long engage in a wrestling and fighting scene in the picture.

A Swedish superintendent accompanied Sloane to the platform and while the Paramount director held tightly to a beam the workman swung around and pointed out the dangerous points.

"You should have here the other day," he said as Sloane tried to look down the street. "A fellow slipped and fell. It bane lucky for him he hit a girder on the eighteenth floor or he surely would have been killed. As it is he's now in the hospital."

Sloane shivered and asked to be assisted to the ground. However, he refused to cut the scene from the script and had to swing out on a beam as he directed Dix in the fight.

What was it someone once said about movie people having a death wish?

At the PINE TREE

Through the efforts of H. W. Poole, the services of Walter H. Galloway and his well known Oregonian Orchestra recently of The Peoples Theater, of Portland will show at the Pine Tree.

Mr. Galloway and his orchestra have played in some of the most renowned resorts in the United States such as, The Hotel Green, Palm Beach, Florida, Hotel McKinzie Roof Garden, Bismark, North Dakota; The Cho Chu Inn, Minneapolis, Minn. and over KGW Radio station, Portland, Oregon, where he gave the radio fans of the west some new versions of the blending of harmony of popular music.

Last fall Mr. Galloway and his orchestra made several records for the Brunswick company and again this fall will repeat on account of the demand for records made by his orchestra.

Klamath Falls being off the main line of the railroad has made it practically impossible to secure the services of such high-class entertainment as already mentioned. Mr. Poole's ambition is to give the public the best, and it will be his honest effort to keep an added attraction of this kind each week for two or three days.

Galloway and his orchestra will appear at the Pine Tree Thursday and Friday nights, June 18 and 19.

San Francisco, animate and inanimate, is generously represented in Erich von Stroheim's production of "Greed" which the director made in the exact location called for.

Hundreds of local citizens were pressed into service as "atmosphere" during the filming of this adaptation of Frank Norris's novel "McTeague", and many of the city's historic landmarks serve as the background for the action.

An entire two-story business block in the heart of San Francisco, and the neighborhood surrounding it, were the center of activities in producing "Greed," but other scenes of the story show the Cliff House, famous from coast to coast; the Ferry Building, the Golden Gate, Seal Rocks, Market Street, San Francisco's skyline, the Embarcadero, the San Francisco Orpheum, and many other nationally known portions of California's chief seaport were reg-

When Better Automobiles Are Built, Buick Will Build Them

No. 19

Question: Why is a used Buick the next best buy to a new Buick?

Answer: Because the correctness of Buick design and the quality of Buick manufacture are not altered by use. A used Buick is a better investment than many new cars of other makes.
