RETURN FROM TRIP

Postmaster McCall and Family Return From Delightful Visit

Postmaster John A McCall and family returned last night from an extended trip through the south, visiting all the northern part of the state of California from San Jose to Crescent City. During their tour Mr. McCall visited a number of the post offices in the various cities and found that the Klamath Falls office is more than holding its own and as a general rule is doing more business, due to the large number of people coming in here. All along the trip Mr. McCall had inquiries from people about Klamath Falls. Roads were good and although Mr. McCall is glad to be back to the city, the trip was greatly enjoyed.

Point Comfort Resort To Be Opened Sunday

Sunday officially opens the beautiful resort known as Point Comfort, located on the Upper Klamath lake, which is owned by Mrs. Laura Moore.

With the completion of the electric light plant just a few days ago the resort is strictly modern in every way with hot and cold water, baths, electric lights and huge fireplaces. The porches are all screened around the resort.

Boating and fishing will be the main enjoyments and Mrs. Moore has made arrangements to take care of all her guests, serving meals which will be home cooked. Parties going to the resort who catch fish and wish to have them prepared will be able to do so, as Mrs. Moore has made preparations to care for such parties at all times.

At one o'clock Sunday a chicken dinner will be served and all ready a large number of people have made reservations for the opening day.

From a scenic standpoint the resort is considered one of the most beautiful in this section, being a nice drive from the city of about 29 miles.

Clever signs of an airplane in black and yellow have been posted along the road ways to direct people to the resort.

At the PINE TREE

Klamath Falls is to be treated to some real music tonight with the first appearance here of Galloway's famous Oregonian orchestra. After hearing this morning's rehearsal we realized why there is such a demand for their phonograph records and personal appearances throughout the United States.

Individually, each man is an artist, and is featured in some manner. There are seven members of the orchestra and they play fifteen different instruments, which is exceptional in an orchestra of this size.

D. D. Herrick plays piano, as well as re-arranging all the latest popular music featured by the orchestra.

L. E. Gartin plays saxophone, violin and ukelele. His ukelele playing made Mr. Gartin a prominent figure in radio-land as his singing and playing have amused thousands over the microphone.

V. L. Sexton plays banjo, and alto saxophone. Mr. Sexton bears an enviable reputation as one of the best banjo players on the Pacific coast.

C. W. Crocker plays cornet and trumpet. He has been a soloist in some of the best known orchestras and bands in the United States.

L. M. Charley plays trombone and has also been associated with some of the finest orchestras in the West.

D. Drill plays saxophone and clarinet. Mr. Drill is the originator of some individual "trick" saxophone playing which has been copied by players all over the country.

Walter H. Galloway, the director, plays drums. Mr. Galloway is known from coast to coast, having presented his orchestra in every large city in the United States.

Galloway's Oregonians will be at the Pine Tree theater two nights only, Thursday and Friday, June 18th and 19th.

"There's plenty of beauty within the marriage lines," says one of the characters in "Her Marriage Vow," the screen version of the Owen Davis play coming next Monday for a week's run. The subject comes up when a temptress tells Carol Hilton of the fun to be had in parties, with cocktails, theaters and general excitement.

Carol goes out of the lines and learns a bitter lesson. She is abandoned by her husband who thinks her bad, and who is enraged at the way she has left her two children. Mother love forces her to enter the home and kidnap her children, which forms one of the thrilling climaxes of this screen classic.

Monte Blue and Beverly Bayne head the brilliant cast which includes Willard Louis, Margaret Livingston and John Roche. At the Pine Tree tonight.

At The LIBERTY

Four sizzling good fights in one picture are a feature of "Western Luck", Charles Jones' newest production, now running at the Liberty theater. It is isn't enough to satisfy his thousands of followers, particularly among the great army of small boys of the world who adore the star, Jones says he will make it five next time.

"Western Luck" concerns the adventures of a young westerner whose troubles begin on the day of his birth. To free his foster father from a crooked deal and at the same time rid his sweetheart of a villainous suitor, Jones has his hands full every minute. He divides his fighting prowess between a band of crooks near his home out in the West and a gang of hired thugs in

New York. He has two "peachy" fights with the villain and two with gangs.

Notwithstanding the seemingly sanguine nature of this picture, it really is a splendid, clean production and will help to increase Jones' fans by the thousands.

THE WEATHER

The Cyclo-Stormograph at Underwood's pharmacy shows the pressure to be rising today, indicating a continuance of warm weather. Forecast for next 24 hours: Fair and warmer.

CAMP FIRE PERMITS

Permits for Camp Fires to Be Issued at Stations to Campers

The local chamber of commerce is today in receipt of a copy of camp fire permits and locations of places where permits can be gotten by campers. In the Crater Lake section a restricted amount of space is allowed and permits will be had at the ranger stations at Pelican Bay, Seven Mile ranger station and Lake of the Woods station.

CLINICS AVAILABLE

Following holding of a baby clinic yesterday afternoon at Lamm's mill, announcement was made that any Klamath community may have a clinic if request is made to Dr. G. S. Newsom, county health officer. A total of 16 children attended the clinic at Lamm's mill, held in the home of Mrs. E. L. Dixon. The clinic was held through the activities of the parent-teachers' association at Lamm's mill, of which Mrs. Dixon is president and Mrs. H. D. Crump secretary.

CAUTION

The thin, extremely flexible balloon casing, repaired by the old methods, leaves a hard, stiff section which throws the tire off balance and quickly ruins it. The Hawkinson System eliminates this difficulty by making a repair of remarkable strength—yet just as thin and pliable as the balloon tire.

Badly injured balloon tires are not "through" if they are repaired the Hawkinson way. A trial will convince you. We guarantee each repair to OUTLAST THE TIRE, or your money back. All tires inspected FREE.
