HELP THE ORPHANS

Klamath county is asked to give $2000 toward the American Legion endowment fund for world war orphans. The campaign opens today and closes next Wednesday morning. But in a cause so worthy, so urgent and so worth while, this sum should be over-subscribed by tomorrow night, at the latest.

Not satisfied with having done their part when the entire world was aflame with the passion of war, the ex-service men, through their American Legion, are now keeping faith with those who gave their all.

It is a big and solemn undertaking to help clothe and educate the boys and girls who were made fatherless by the world war. It is an undertaking in which the American Legion stands only in the role of agent for the people of America.

If these children are to keep the heritage of childhood, every man and woman must answer this appeal for funds. It is not so much the amount you give, but the spirit which accompanies your contribution.

Klamath county responded generously and promptly during the trying days of the war. For the children whose fathers are but hallowed memories, the war is not over. For them the battle must continue until they have blossomed into manhood and womanhood.

The American Legion is going forward in a worthy cause. They deserve your support. Give it to them.

KLAMATH NEEDS MANY RAILROADS

ices not only of the Southern Pacific, but of the Hill lines and the Union Pacific as well, and the amount of easily developed tonnage in sight is a plum, competing for which would keep all of those systems on their toes.

"Klamath county should ask that the hearing of the commission be held at Klamath Falls, and the people of this community should not allow themselves to become disorganized by high powered outsiders or by their individual preferences for proposed routes.

Give all Facts

Let the Interstate Commerce Commission have all the facts bearing upon advisability of routes, but let the full united voice of this whole section of the state cry out in unison "we want the service of all available carriers and we have the tonnage to warrant such a service."

"Klamath Falls will naturally reap benefit from any and all development in the outlying district, and should not appear before the Interstate Commerce Commission as interested in aught else than the obtaining of maximum service at minimum cost.

Wrangles Hurt

"Squabbles, beclouding the large issues, will irritate the Interstate Commerce Commission and play into the hands of those who would prevent the full destiny of Klamath county and Klamath Falls being realized."

While in Klamath Falls, a conference is being held by Mr. Geary with his brothers, R. E. Geary and E. A. Geary of Klamath Falls, and R. W. Geary of Yakima, in respect to their holdings on the Wocus and Galedonia projects.

AMUNDSEN BACK AT SPITZBEREN

Arctic experience could survive in the event of an accident to his machine.

As the hopes faded, preparations were under way for relief expeditions although it was realized that looking for a small party of men in the great northern waste of ice and water was an almost hopeless task.

It lay with the men themselves either to fly back or trek by foot and folding boat on the slenderest emergency rations to the nearest cache or depot of supplies and there await their rescue.

COPENHAGEN, June 19. (P)—The Social Democrat publishes a report from Oslo the Norwegian capital stating that Captain Roald Amundsen, who returned to Spitzbergen yesterday after his sensational Arctic flight is dissatisfied with the results attained and is "quite determined to resume the attempt" to reach the pole. The explorer is quoted as declaring that the experience gained in his present attempt would enable him to attain his goal.

The other members of the expedition, the account continues, appear equally animated by a desire to beat the Aerial Polar Expeditions planned by other countries.

They expressed the view that important scientific results had been achieved thus far. Captain Amundsen himself was reticent.

Amundsen's comrades were unanimous in their appreciation of his leadership. The American member of the party, Lincoln Ellsworth, was saddened by the news awaiting him of the death of his father during his stay in the north, but said that he would continue his financial backing of Captain Amundsen.

Scientists Rejoice

NEW YORK, June 19. (P)—Explorers and scientists rejoiced with laymen in all parts of the world today at the safe return of the Amundsen-Ellsworth North Pole airplane expedition.

The return to King's Bay, Spitzbergen, yesterday, exactly 28 days after hopping off, was greeted with many expressions of "I told you so." But the words came principally from explorers and scientists who knew Amundsen's courage and ingenuity in coping with hazards of the polar regions.

Though the expedition fell 150 miles short of landing at the pole and was compelled to return partly in one plane and partly by fishing schooners, scientists expect to glean much valuable knowledge from the flight.

Donald MacMillan, who sails tomorrow from Wiscasset, Maine, at the head of an all-American Arctic expedition, admitted that a big burden had been lifted off his mind. Amundsen's safe return he said, would enable him to devote all his energies to science instead of first hunting for the Amundsen party.

McAuliffe Has Relapse; Local Doctor Called

A change for the worse in the condition of Jack McAuliffe, prominent Klamath stockman, was reported today from the Lakeview hospital in which he has been confined for some time. Dr. E. D. Johnson of this city has been called into consultation with Dr. Kelly of Lakeview.

McAuliffe is suffering from carbon monoxide poisoning and from bad burns, received when he slumped unconscious at the wheel of his car on the Klamath Falls-Lakeview road. He remained unconscious in the car all night with the engine running and was found the next morning.

Mrs. McAuliffe is now in Lakeview and if it is found advisable will take her husband to San Francisco to Dr. Gettigan. A late report today said McAuliffe had rallied during the day, and that his condition was better than during the night.

Local Man Gets Insurance After Action Is Begun

Suit filed against several insurance companies to force payment on policies for damages incurred when his house burned here nearly a year ago has resulted in W. H. Kitto, local business man, receiving substantial checks in full settlement of his claims.

Kitto's house burned when he and his wife were on a fishing trip and the state fire warden held up payment of the claim.

The insurance companies made no fight on the claim, paying promptly immediately suit was filed. Kitto was represented by C. F. Stone.

MISS POPE WILL RECEIVE ESTATE

CHICAGO, June 19. (P)—Chief Justice Harry Olson of the municipal court, who has been the chief figure in the prosecution of Wm. D. Shepherd, accused of causing the death of Wm. N. McClintock, declared today that regardless of the outcome of the Shepherd trial, Isabelle Pope, McClintock's fiancée will come into possession of the McClintock fortune.

Judge Olson said Miss Pope eventually will be declared McClintock's lawful heir on the ground that Shepherd obstructed and held back the wedding contract.

"That wedding contract will be held binding, in my judgment," he said, "and when it is, Isabelle Pope will receive all the personal property, one-half of the real estate and a life interest in the other half. All except $200,000 of the estate will go to her. She will receive the full rights of a widow.

"It was out of the kindness of her heart that she gladly agreed to divide the estate with the other heirs." Testifying at the trial, Miss Pope admitted that the prosecution of Shepherd, was preliminary to an attempt to break McClintock's will, in which he made Shepherd chief beneficiary.

WHY EUROPE CALLS AMERICA THE LAND OF UNTOLD GOLD

SOUTHAMPTON, (P)—Reports circulated here that the American state department has put its foot down on extravagant tipping by its representatives, have brought out tales of the largest of some American millionaires when they leave the vessels that have carried them in safety across the Atlantic.

It is related among steamship stewards that on one trip recently an American millionaire gave $10 to every member of the crew of the ship on which he was travelling, and $25 to each of the officers. His tips, it was estimated by the stewards, cost this individual $10,000. Another passenger not long ago surprised a steward by presenting him with $400 after a six day passage from New York to Southampton.

Legion Drive Meeting To Be Held Tonight

About 30 men, including Legion members and others interested, are expected to be present tonight at a meeting in the Legion rooms of the court house for the purpose of formulating plans for the Legion endowment drive. The meeting is called for 8:00 o'clock sharp.

The drive will begin Saturday, June 20, and will end Wednesday, June 24.

Among other methods of attracting the attention of the public to the drive will be a speaking course to be held at local theaters. Four-minute speakers will be asked to present the Legion plan to the various audiences nightly until the close of the drive.

A total of $2000 is the quota of the local post.

Valuable Dogs Reported Stolen

Emil Gubser, trapper for the U. S. Biological Survey, is hot on a new trail today. He is hunting for the man who stole his Alredale coyote dog from a car parked near Fourth and Main. Several people, friends of Gubser, saw the man take the dog but supposed Gubser had authorized it. Another dog theft was reported by Rose Otey Soule of 413 High street, whose purebred collie disappeared some time Wednesday night.
