Long Journey

(Special to The Herald)
YREKA, Calif., June 22.—Three teams in the Siskiyou-Klamath baseball league went into a tie for first place yesterday as the result of games at McCloud and Dunsmuir. At Mt. Shasta the Weed-Mt. Shasta game was postponed on account of rain. Klamath Falls won from the league leaders, McCloud, at McCloud 4 to 3, in a game replete with thrills, while Yreka downed Dunsmuir on the latter's own grounds 10 to 8, Yreka making seven runs in the first inning. Yreka, Klamath Falls and McCloud are now tied for the lead.

Klamath Falls baseball enthusiasts who journeyed 156 miles yesterday who journeyed 156 miles to see the local nin emix with McCloud, the league leaders, were rewarded by seeing the local boys romp home with the bacon, score 4 to 3.

McCloud got eight hits to seven secured by the local hitters, but was unable to convert the hits into runs. The game was fast throughout, only three pitched balls being thrown in one half inning.

Booth and Matthews starred at bat for Klamath Falls.

The local boys were handicapped by having to travel so far before the game. Some of them took the "short-cut" by way of Tennant and discovered to their sorrow that although they saved some 50 miles in the process they gained no time, the road proving so rough that a maximum speed of 20 miles an hour was possible a large part of the distance.

As a result of the win yesterday Harry Poole of the Pine Tree and Liberty theaters is being eagerly sought by nine baseball players.

Harry is declared to have promised season passes to the team in the event McCloud was defeated and by virtue of the win yesterday stands to lose considerable income.

Nig Yeager Will Fight Here July Fourth If Wanted

If the boxing promoters got busy at once they can have Nig Yeager here to box Frankie Murphy or some other good heavyweight on the July 4th card. This was indicated today when Able Gordon received a letter from Yeager stating he would be willing to come to Klamath Falls.

Yeager has long been a main event fighter on the coast, while Frankie Murphy is regarded as one of the best light heavyweights in the country. A 10-round go-between these two boys would prove to be a winner, in the opinion of a majority of the local boxing fans.

The boxing commission is scheduled to meet tonight at which time it is expected that the July 4th card will be discussed at length.

At the PINE TREE

When they say "it's enough to make a cat laugh" they don't go quite far enough. "Charley's Aunt" with Syd Chaplin is more than enough to make a crab laugh—even those "crabs" that never admit it was the picture which made them laugh, it was only that they were feeling good.

Yes, we say this without any reservations whatsoever—"Charley's Aunt" is the funniest motion picture we have ever seen. It is a clean, wholesome story whose great charm and appeal lie in the simplicity of its humor interpreted by a cast of comedians who have caught the spirit of the farce and have carried it through to an hilarious success.

The farce was originally produced in England thirty-three years ago and has played continuously and in almost every known language ever since. As a screen farce, however, it far surpasses the stage version partly because the screen permits greater latitude in settings, and largely because Syd Chaplin is by far the greatest comedy actor who ever assumed the title role.

Syd Chaplin has the soul of a true comedian. Every gesture, every lift of the eyebrows, evokes a humorous reaction from his audience yet he himself seldom so much as smiles. The production, directed by Scott Sidney to whom much credit is due in addition to being beautiful, is so smooth and steady it seems actually to flow along. There are no raw edges, no unfinished corners.

The simple story of a college boy who assumes the part of an elderly aunt in order to help his chums win the girls they love, is told in the straight from the shoulder manner which is so delightful and refreshing. Without recourse to gags and by-plots the play attains a maximum of suspense and manages by some miracle to maintain the fullest share of comedy throughout every moment of the production. There is not a single slow moment in the film even in the rare intervals when Chaplin himself is not on the screen.

James E. Page, Spettigue in the stage version for the past twelve years, gives a delightful performance in the film and is responsible for many of the hundreds of laughs which were collected last night at the Pine Tree Tuesday and Wednesday.

At The LIBERTY

Flapperism comes in for a sound spanking and jazz receives a knock-out blow in "Code of the West", produced from the Zane Grey novel of the same name, playing at the Liberty today.

The direct and drastic methods of the West were never better illustrated than in this absorbing photoplay in which a sturdy son of Arizona teaches a flapper daughter of New York the a-b-c of living and loving.

Pictured against marvelous natural backgrounds and abounding in breath-taking thrills, "Code of the West" unfolds its vivid, appealing story of the romance of George May Stockwell, a frivolous little flapper, and Cal Tharman, a sturdy, virile cowboy.

"There's Millions in It" the film booking office attraction coming to the Liberty theatre Tuesday and Wednesday is filled with exciting incidents, including a hand-to-hand fight in a blazing airship.

The film is adapted from the famous English stage play "Men of Affairs." The story, from the pen of Roland Pertwee and Don Clayton Calthrop, having appeared in serial form in the Saturday Evening Post.

The great moments in the film include a night escape on the Thames, a motor chase through Brittany, an escape by aeroplane, and a fight to death in a burning airship 5,000 feet over the English channel at night. All this helps to make "There's Millions in It," one of the most thrilling stories ever filmed.

Moist, sweet, cool —this is pipe tobacco!

Three things determine how good a pipe tobacco is going to smoke:

- (1) the quality of the tobacco itself,
- (2) the way it's mellowed,
- (3) how it's cut.

And in making Granger we give utmost care to all three. We use fine, old Burley tobacco. We mellow it by Wellman's famous secret method. And then we give it the exclusive Granger "rough-cut." And the result is a rich mellowness and cool fragrance like nothing you ever smoked before!

Rain and Cold Makes Outing Impossible for Camp Fire Girls

On account of a heavy rain and cold, the Camp Fire Girls, who left the middle of the week for Lake of the Woods, to spend a week on a camping party, will return this evening, a number of local people leaving this noon by motor to bring them back.

The two groups of Camp Fire Girls, the Winemas and Sunchachos, under the guardianship of Mrs. L. P. Sabin and Mrs. A. L. Rice, had made plans for a number of outdoor sports while at the resort.

The girls who made the trip included Misses Ethel Carlson, Margaret Cummings, Lydia von Bertholdorf, Anna Setzer, Mary Hunt, Ella Redkey, Thelma Grizzle, Alisa Massey, Muriel Moore, Elvira Call,

CELEBRATION AT LANGELL VALLEY

Senator Jay Upton of Bend spoke at length on the future of Oregon and the Klamath country.

He advised his hearers to have faith in Oregon, stating that recent action on the part of great railway systems proved conclusively that even of the outside world were being turned on this section and that with the advent of more settlers this was destined to become one of the leading agricultural sections of the state.

Senator Upton spoke also in favor of the Legion drive for funds, outlining the reason for the drive and emphasizing the fact that the move was worthy.

Following the talk of Senator Upton came the climax, or anti-climax, of the day, a 5-inning baseball game between the Sprague River Giants and the Evening Herald Lumber-league nine.

With the score at 24 to 3 in favor of the Lumber-league nine at the end of the fifth, all hands decided to end the agony.

Dell Robertson, heaver for the Lumber-league, showed nice control throughout and also annexed his share at bat.

As far as could be ascertained, there was not a single incident to mar the day, with the exception of one small boy who in taking a short cut across the barbecue grounds slipped and completely annihilated an ice cream cone with his face.

Etta Mather, Loraine Mordoff, Alexis Lyle, Fay Grizzle, Alice Harvey, Margaret Machen, Betty Zimmerman, Lucia Dahlheim, Helene Mason, Marjorie Stinson, Nadine O'Flaherty, Vera Moore, Gene Rogers and Geraldine Dimock of Portland.

Those making the outing a realization for the girls included Mesdames A. Carlson, M. G. Mordoff, Burton Greene, Leslie Rogers, G. D. Grizzle, R. Couch, L. P. Sabin, A. L. Rice, Dr. L. L. Traux and Jack Kimball of the Forest Protective association.

We predict a very hard July. No man can cuss an income tax payment properly in hot weather.
