Klamath Falls spent Sunday as the guests of Miss Nellie Doten.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Jones were Keno visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Puckett and daughter Bessie, Miss Jessie Puckett and Miriam Grubb all enjoyed a short outing to Prodenburg Springs during the week end.

Miss Waive Gragg is spending a few days in Klamath Falls visiting with her aunt, Mrs. George Spannas.

Lee Doten and Ray Pickett made a short call in Keno Monday. Mr. Doten is caretaker of the Ackley Brothers thousand acre grain tract in the Tale Lake country.

Thyra Bryant And Robert Quick Wed

A wedding of much interest to local people was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage on last Friday evening, when Miss Thyra Bryant became the bride of Robert W. Quick, Rev. A. F. Simmons officiating. Only the immediate relatives of the young couple were present. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ager being the attendants.

Mrs. Quick is one of the popular young women of this city, having been raised here, graduating from the local high school with the class of '21. She is employed at the office of Attorney H. C. Merryman. Being from one of the oldest families in Oregon, Mrs. Quick is well known throughout this section of the state. Her two grandfathers, J. W. Bryant and O. E. Sterns being among the oldest residents of this state. She is the daughter of Mrs. Eva S. Bowdoin of this city.

Mr. Quick has made his home in this city for the past two years coming here from Bend and is connected with the Concrete Pipe company. Mr. and Mrs. Quick have returned to the city after a brief honeymoon trip spent at Spencer Creek and will be at home for the present at the Simmons home on California avenue.

"Borrows" New Car To Speed Journey

O. Walker, whose wanderings on the streets of Klamath Falls with a red lantern last Saturday night nearly disrupted the equanimity of the police department, again displayed a rather warped conception of what is the right thing to do.

Walker, fresh from the police court, perceived a shiny new automobile and desiring rapid transportation to his home in Merrill, hopped into the car and drove south until he wrecked the car near Olene.

The automobile belonged to Mrs. John Liskey of Merrill, who had been in possession of the new machine just 15 minutes. Mrs. Liskey chased Walker to a point near Olene only to see her new car smashed up in an accident.

At the PINE TREE

The Pine Tree special vaudeville numbers for Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be something entirely new to Klamath Falls audiences. Frances Ferguson's Golden Gate Girls are far above the average show company and to miss seeing this bevy of singing, dancing and instrumental array of talented girls will be to miss one of the most entertaining attractions of the season.

The Golden Gate Revue, a rare gathering of clever dancers, singers and musicians who present a miniature revue, a dazzling program of interpretive, acrobatic, Spanish, Oriental and toe dancing, singing and various specialties.

The Paige Sisters offer a repertoire of beautiful dances. Little winsome Lillian Kyle, nature's own comic mimic, will offer her own version of the monkey in the zoo. Jessie Lee will sing "Blues" and Alice Heath, a saxophonist extraordinary, will play the latest melodies. In addition, there is the Golden Gate Girls own orchestra, which is well worth hearing.

Add to your list of memorable moving pictures "He Who Gets Slapped." The famous stage play has become an even greater triumph on the screen. The genius of Victor Scastron has wrought of this soul drama a thing of beauty, of gripping action, of deep human understanding. If you are seeking the greatest that the silver sheet offers, you must not miss "He Who Gets Slapped," at the Pine Tree today.

At The LIBERTY

The intense scene at the roulette table in "Champion of Lost Causes" which will be at the Liberty theater Thursday and in which "Wilbur" is driven to despair as he sees the little ball fall into the wrong compartment and sweep away his last fifty dollars, has been seen thousands of times under exactly similar surroundings. That magnificent "Temple of Chance" is an exact duplicate of one of the most famous that ever flourished in New York. It was closed by the authorities a dozen years ago.

KENO

While engaged in building a log barn the first of last week, R. A. Broyles became the victim of an accident which resulted in a broken collar bone and serious bruises to other parts of the body. Broyles and a helper were raising two logs from the ground and when they were about eight feet high a skid pole slipped and they fell. He attempted to escape them but lost his footing and fell. This fact no doubt saved his life. Although the injuries are quite painful Broyles is able to get around some.

Mr. and Mrs. Currie and children of California, were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Simmers last week.

A number of Bill Greens friends gave a sharivari in honor of him and Mrs. Green one evening last week.

C. Snowgose and Geo. Buckbee transacted business in Klamath Falls last Thursday.

Jessie Puckett called at the Snowgose home Thursday afternoon.

Ed Simmons of Bonanza was a Sunday guest at the L. W. Anderson home.

Mrs. Esther Beck visited with Mrs. Lysie Gordon at Worden Friday.

C. Snowgose carried the mail the first of the week while D. R. Diten was engaged in harvesting his hay crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartell and daughter Mildred were Keno visitors Sunday. They also called at the Nelson ranch.

Unprejudiced Advice

Perhaps you have not yet settled the balloon tire question to your satisfaction.

We are in a particularly good position to advise you without prejudice, and for this reason:

We sell both the standard size RACINE Multi-Mile Cord and the RACINE Balloon.

Both are low-pressure tires and both are of the finest RACINE quality.

Our advice will depend absolutely upon your particular need—and on that alone.
