How Well Did He Know Scopes

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAM

16 The American Civil Liberties Union 500, 100, 7, 7th Ave New York City

J. T. Scopes, teacher of High School Dayton Tennessee will be arrested charged with teaching evolution consent of Dept. of Education and Chairman of Board of Education for test case to be defended by you wire me collect if you wish to cooperate and meet will follow

Aug 29 1925 J. W. Rappaport

NEA

This is what started all the evolution trial fuss in Tennessee. It is facsimile of the telegram sent by George W. Rappaport, instrumental in bringing about the indictment as a test of the anti-evolution law, to the American Civil Liberties Union. Since he cites John T. Scopes as "Scopes" perhaps he didn't know him as well as he has since indicated.

EXPENSIVE SAVING—

It is false economy to neglect your teeth because it costs money to have them put in shape. You pay in loss of efficiency and impaired health for every day you let pass with your teeth in poor condition. And, as a matter of fact, modern dentistry is not the expensive luxury it used to be.
