

WATERMELON FEED
Floyd Farrar Entertains Little Ones on Wednesday

Securing two of the largest watermelons available, Floyd V. Farrar Wednesday afternoon proved himself the popular uncle, when he entertained eleven of his little grand nieces and nephews at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. R. DeLap on South Riverside. Those enjoying the feed were Paula, Patricia, Dorothy, Mary Ava, Nondis, Dwain, Charley, Junior Lloyd, Edwin and Richard DeLap and Virginia Richmond. Rosetta McGee of Ashland and Alice Holliday, who are both guests at the Nondis DeLap home, were also present.

Mr. Farrar is recovering from severe injuries received in an auto accident at Grass Valley, California, about six weeks ago and was moved here just recently from the southern city to recuperate at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. R. DeLap.

ROSEBURG PARTY

Enroute to Klamath Agency and Crater Lake, where they will spend over the week-end, Mrs. Ida M. Wilson and daughter, Miss Elbow May Wilson, Mrs. Haas of Lapwai, Idaho, and Miss Violet Graham of Portland visited here over Thursday, leaving this afternoon for the Agency to spend tonight and will motor on to Crater Lake tomorrow.

FAREWELL PARTY

Local Loung Folks Give Swimming Party for Earl Humphrey

On his last evening in Klamath Falls, where he has been spending his summer vacation, Earl Humphrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Humphrey, was complimented with a picnic and swimming party by a number of the younger set at Whul-Kae beach last evening. The party motored to the popular beach in the moonlight, enjoyed a picnic supper and swim, after which they sat around the bon-fire and sang songs. In the party were Misses Pauline Clift, Ruth Dixon, Genevieve Hensley and Frances Humphrey; Paul Keller, Earl Humphrey, Jack Murphy and Arlet Edsall.

RETURNING SUNDAY

Miss Georgianna Clift, popularly known among her friends as "Dot," will return Sunday from a ten-day's vacation at Ashland and Medford, where she visited with relatives and friends. Miss Clift has been the inspiration for a number of impromptu affairs while visiting in the valley cities.

RETURNS SOUTH

Local Boy Returns to Southern California After Visit

Earl Humphrey, who has been here for the past three weeks visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Humphrey, from Los Angeles, where he holds a responsible position with the Western Electric company, returned south this morning.

BENEFIT BALL GAME

The baseball game of Sunday afternoon between the Medford Mail Tribune and The Evening Herald is the topic of conversation about the streets and tickets are now on sale. The game is called for 1:30. Sunday afternoon and the small sum of 25c from each person attending, will be charged, all proceeds to go to the fund for "street signs," which is well under way.

PINE TREE
"The Coolest Place in Town"

Last Showing of—
Edith Wharton's
Prize Story
"THE AGE OF INNOCENCE"

Saturday
Beautiful Agnes Ayres
—in—
"HER MARKET VALUE"

Coming Sunday
Norma Talmadge in
"THE LADY"

The First Strictly Cash
Store in Klamath County

Santford & Co.

426 MAIN STREET
Phone 34—Phone 64

The Largest Strictly Cash
Store in Klamath County

Fruits and Vegetables

We are receiving each day the most fancy fresh fruits and vegetables to be had—they are fresh and will please you.

Our Medford store purchases all our Rogue River products direct from the grower which not only insures their freshness but enables us to sell them to you with but one small profit between you and the grower.

Compare the price each day in the week—not merely on one or two items but on all your purchases.

Prices quoted in this ad are good until market changes

1 lb. package best spaghetti	15
Jello, any flavor, package	10
2 oz. bottle pure extracts, any flavor	35
10 large bars P. & G. soap	40
3 large bars Cream Oil soap	25
2 cans Iowa Chief corn	25
Full pint pure cane and maple syrup	30
Large package pancake flour	30
Large package Grape Nuts	18
Post Toasties, package	10
Libby's apple butter, can	20
Large can pure loganberry jam	30
Large can pure blackberry jam	35
Large can Instant Postum	45
Golden West fancy tea, lb	60
Best grade creamery butter	50
Fancy cream cheese, lb	28
2 lb. can Hills Red Can coffee, lb	54
10 lbs. pure can and maple syrup	1.50
10 lbs. marshmallow syrup	1.35
Economy jar lids, dozen	25
Ball Mason jar lids, dozen	20
Ball Mason pint jars, dozen	60
Ball Mason quart jars, dozen	70
Ball Mason 1/2 gal. jars, dozen	1.00
Fancy new comb honey	25

Compare the price we ask you with the price you have been paying elsewhere.

Free Delivery Service

We own and operate our own individual delivery system—you can phone us your order and pay our deliveryman at your home.

We delivery free all orders amounting to $2.00 or more—All orders given us before 5 o'clock p. m. will be promptly delivered the same day—We guarantee our merchandise to be as we represent it, or you may return it to us and receive full purchase price.

Compare the service we offer you with the service you have been receiving.

FROM THE VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Jones, visitors from Medford, arrived here late yesterday afternoon.

OAKLAND VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McCready with their daughter, Miss Katherine, of Oakland, California, spent the day in Klamath Falls, leaving late this afternoon for Crater Lake.

FROM THE FORT

L. E. Stanley from Fort Klamath is transacting business matters here today.

PLAN TO STAY

Southern People at Point Comfort Plan to Remain for Hunting

A party of southern California people who have been guests at the Point Comfort resort for several days, enjoying canoeing, fishing and swimming, are so taken up with the place that they have made plans to remain until fall and the hunting season opens. Mrs. Moore was in today from the lodge and reports tourists from all parts of the country are guests there.

FROM COPCO

A. G. Warden and V. E. Cornable are among the visitors here today, registering from Copco.

FROM THE SOUTH

W. L. Beedy arrived here this afternoon from San Francisco, to transact business.

ALLEN HOME SOLD

Sells Home to Langslat And is Building Another for Self

Through the Red Star Realty company the home of T. H. Allen at 229 Lincoln street was sold yesterday to O. H. Langslat who purchased the residence for his future home. Mr. Allen is at the present time building a bungalow across the street which he plans to occupy as soon as it is completed.

TO CRATER LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Meyers, Miss Ferguson and Miss Thoner, all of Portland, spent Thursday here enroute to Crater Lake to spend the week-end holidays.

LEAVING SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pruitt and R. M. Hollister plan to leave early Sunday morning for Crater Lake, where they will spend the day.

FROM SPRAGUE RIVER

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wren and family of Sprague River are guests in the city. While here they are stopping at the Hotel White Pelican.

EASTERN TOURISTS

From New York City, Mrs. Julia M. Cohn and Theo L. Cohn were over Thursday visitors in Klamath Falls, leaving this morning to visit the much talked about Crater Lake.

LOOKING FOR BUSINESS

R. E. Simpson, resident of Salem, having heard so much of Klamath Falls and its great possibilities, arrived here yesterday from the capital city, to spend a week looking over business possibilities, with the hopes of locating here.

RETURNS SOUTH

After Checking Stock in Southern Pacific Yards Leaves

H. L. La Due, representative of the Southern Pacific, who for the past week has been checking stock in the local yards for the company, left this morning for his home in Dunsmuir.

AT THE L-I-B-E-R-T-Y

If you like a Good, Snappy Detective Story, See

"THE BEAUTIFUL SINNER"

It's a Gripping Tale of the Secret Service

Saturday
BILL CODY in
"THE FIGHTING SMILE"

The Big One Sunday is
"UP THE LADDER"
starring Virginia Valli

TO THE LODGE

Mr. and Mrs. F. Templeton, San Francisco people, enjoying their vacation in southern Oregon, left this morning for Crater Lake lodge to spend over the week-end.

BUSINESS VISIT

O. V. Meyers, well known Medford business man, who makes Klamath Falls frequently from the Valley city on business, arrived here yesterday for a few days stay.

GRANTS PASS FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. F. Gordon Hart, visited here yesterday from Grants Pass, making the trip by motor to enjoy a trip to Crater Lake over the week-end.

FROM BOSTON

With the arrival of Mrs. A. E. Bradley and Miss Alice Bradley of Boston, Mass., in the city, it is apparent that Klamath Falls is being talked of from east to west, for during the past week a score of people from the town of "Boston baked beans" have visited here, many enroute north and to Crater Lake.

SISTERS VISIT HERE

The Misses Nell C. and Mary G. Reed of Hollywood, California, the home of the motion picture stars, are visiting here on their way to Crater Lake. People from California continue to come north to get away from the heat and enjoy Oregon's scenic spots of nation wide interest.

CHILOQUIN VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hall, of Chiloquin were among Thursday's visitors in Klamath Falls. They were guests at the Hotel Arcade while here.

TOURING NORTH

Arrivals yesterday from the east in Klamath Falls included, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hilton of Philadelphia, Pa., on their way to Crater Lake, after which they will motor on north.

MORE EASTERN PEOPLE

Mrs. J. F. Terry with Mrs. L. A. Plinkham, both of Brooklyn, New York, making a tour of western country, enroute to Crater Lake and on north, were guests here Thursday.

LOCAL PEOPLE

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dagget and Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Haeblett motored out to Whul-Kae beach last evening, where they cooked their evening meal and enjoyed a swim.

MONTAGUE VISITOR

C. L. Churchill of Montague is among the visitors in the city.

BACK FROM CHILOQUIN

Miss Anna Metcalf, buyer for the local Golden Rule store, spent Thursday at Chiloquin arranging the ready-to-wear stock in the new Golden Rule store, which will open tomorrow. Miss Metcalf reports the store nicely arranged and a splendid location for business.

PICNIC PARTY

A party of local folks, including Mr. and Mrs. Al Raymond, Miss Vera Thompson, H. A. Jewett and Miss Nell Raymond spent Thursday evening at Whul-Kae beach on a picnic and swimming party.

ANNA CREEK SHOPPER

Mrs. Jessie Stagg, residing on Anna creek, was among the business shoppers here yesterday.

GOES TO BRAY

Everett Geer, who has been visiting here during the summer vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Bruley, left yesterday for Bray, where he will spend the remainder of his vacation with his aunt, Mrs. Rex Young.

FROM KELSO

Kelso, Washinton, visitors here today include C. A. Peters and C. J. Sams.

THE WEATHER

The Cyclo-Stormograph at Underwood's pharmacy continues to run on an even keel, registering less than two points variation in the past 5 days. Forecast for next 24 hours: Continued fair; slightly warmer.

U. S. Weather Report

Oregon: Fair tonight and Saturday, but cloudy tonight on coast; moderately warm in the interior; gentle variable winds.

RETURN FROM ROCKY POINT

College Girls Return From Rocky Point, Where They Visited

The Misses Elizabeth Manning and Kathryn Ulrich, who have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ulrich at the Ulrich summer home at Rocky Point, returned Thursday. Both young girls are popular members of the younger social set and are spending the summer months here with her parents from Eugene, where they are students at the University of Oregon.

Sanitary Fruit Market

701 Main Street

Fresh Fruit and Vegetables
Open from 6 a. m. to 12 Midnight

Modern Service

Old Fashioned Friendliness

This is a modern with the most up-to-date service.

But we have not forgotten the old-fashioned friendliness that comes from the heart. It is a pleasure to serve you.

The American National Bank of Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Member Federal Reserve System.

