CHILOQUIN

A real "get together" meeting of the Chilouquin business men was held at the Chilouquin Cafe Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, forty being present. The object of the meeting was to form a civic club, the name of which will be determined upon at the next meeting. Wednesday, Aug. 12th, Mr. G. Cumming of Forbes Drug Co. acted as temporary chairman; Mr. C. Hedrich was elected permanent chairman; Mr. Arthur Prenzlx, secretary and treasurer; Mr. L. Snook, J. Gardner, Mrs. G. Cumming together with the chairman and secretary treasurer were elected to serve as a board of directors. C. Balfour, E. Gowen and R. C. Spink, on the social and reception committee. Dr. L. W. King, L. H. Lauritsen and G. Cumming were appointed to draw up the by-laws and name the organization. A most interesting talk was given by Mr. Fred Baker, former superintendent of the Klamath reservation, who spoke of the remarkable growth of Chilouquin and what the lumber industry had accomplished in the opening up and development of the country. Mr. C. Balfour, C. Newman and C. Hill spoke of the advantages of the business people getting together and of what they hoped to accomplish for the betterment of the town.

Mrs. Burton, genial hostess of the Chilouquin Cafe, served an excellent chicken dinner at 8:50. Everybody expressed themselves as having spent a most enjoyable evening and are eagerly looking forward to the next meeting when more definite plans will be formulated for the future activities of the club.

The huckleberry season is now on and many families from Chilouquin and vicinity are enjoying their outing there.

Ground was broken today for the building to be occupied by the Chilouquin Review. Mr. Prialux is a newspaper man of several years experience and his coming to Chilouquin is looked upon very favorably. The Chilouquin Review will have its first issue in two weeks and will be published weekly.

Messdames Hannon, Crane and Jamison and Miss Lina Brown enjoyed a swimming party at Wlul-Kae beach Tuesday.

Rehearsals of the play to be given by the Community Club, begins on Monday, August 10th at 2:30 p. m. Rehearsals will be given at the church. The play, an entertaining comedy will be given at the Chilouquin Theater, September 21st. All taking part in the play are urged to be present.

Mr. Frank Carlson, postmaster of Chilouquin, who has been ill with summer flu, is much improved and is back at his old post, although still under Dr. Dietche's care.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Crawford of the Crawford Fox Farm, received a pair of handsome police puppies from the Wilsona Kennels in Rushville, Indiana. The puppies stood the long trip fine and arrived in good shape. They will be raised for breeding purposes. Mr. Crawford is raising silver and blue fox for the market, and they also have a large colony of white leghorn chickens.

Dr. L. W. King will move his offices to larger quarters this week. He will be located over the Klamath Telephone and Telegraph company. Dr. King is a very successful dentist and his locating in Chilouquin fills a long felt want. Mrs. King is a graduate surgical nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moffatt and daughter, Miss Letha Gray were Chilouquin visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Gowen have returned from their vacation after touring the northwest.

Mrs. Zadow and sister, Mrs. Gerwick were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Nelpoth of Chilouquin camp today.

Harry Wilhelm, old-time riverman and expert fisherman reports a great number of rainbow trout in Williamson river and also states they are fatter than he has ever seen them before.

The P. T. A. holds their annual election September 8th. It is the aim of the organization to secure a piano for the Chilouquin school and it is hoped that all parents and those interested in school work will come out and give the P. T. A. their hearty support. Messdames McCain West and Strowbridge will act as hostesses to the P. T. A. at their first meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Almetes have moved to their apartment in the new Glenger building.

The Community Club dance, given at Du Val's hall Saturday evening was a success, over one hundred dollars being cleared. This money will go towards building a home for the Women's Community club. Everyone reports an enjoyable evening and hope the dances will be given frequently.

Among the cottages built in Chilouquin recently are the two Glenger houses, one occupied by A. C. Glenger and family, the other by Mr. Emerson and family. On Chocktoot street, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carlson have put up two neat cottages, one occupied as their home and the other leased to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Baell have also built on Chocktoot street.

L. L. Snook has recently purchased a lot from Mary Cowen Jackson, a part of the Jim Juda estate and expects to build a house for rental purposes.

Messdames Henry Wolfe and Ted Markwardt are enjoying a camping trip at Huckleberry mountain.

A force of workmen have begun work on the much needed addition to the public school, rock foundation and brick walls. C. L. Griffin will have charge of the interior work, also of making the necessary repairs in the other rooms.

The local church is to be remodelled, new partitions, additional windows and two new chimneys built. This building will be used as a temporary high school. There will be about fourteen pupils who will enter High this year.

Mr. C. L. Griffin has recently purchased a new Ford car.

The Forest Lumber company, who have recently purchased the Modoc Lumber company's interest at Aspogrove have taken on about one hundred and fifty men on their payroll the last few days and need more labor. A new modern electrically equipped mill is soon to be built and a number of houses will soon be under construction. A school bus will be run to Aspogrove, Neva, and Braymill and provision will also be made for transporting the children from Ewauna camp to the Chilouquin school.

Jack Villaire, woods foreman for Ewauna Lumber company left today for Portland to attend to business matters.

At the PINE TREE

Some months ago over a million readers of the Cosmopolitan magazine were delighted by Peter B. Kyne's story, "Cornflower Cassie's Concert," the tale of a young, talented girl who got her big chance to make good on her glorious voice through the philanthropy of a California miner who was considered a bad man by the community.

Now these readers and many millions more are to have the pleasure of seeing this vivid story, for it has now been screened and is scheduled to come to the Pine Tree theatre today.

Forrest Stanley, likely hero whom all the fans adore, plays the part of the supposed bad man who makes the girl's brilliant career possible. In the role of the delightful Chuck-walla Bill, a familiar character in Kyne's stories, is Russell Simpson, who gives to the part a charming wistfulness that is irresistible.

Outside the door of justice, free but bound by truth, guilty yet innocent, of * * * what? A flash of indiscretion—a dash of reckless despair, and the father of his beloved was sentenced to imprisonment, while he—shanghaied aboard a vessel, lives life in the raw, won-

Dixon Litigation

Comes to an End

Unless Mrs. Beasie Dixon decides to appeal to the supreme court, the litigation over the administration of the estate of Louis B. Dixon has come to an end, as the result of a decision handed down this week by Circuit Judge Leavitt. The decision of Judge Leavitt designates Benson Dixon, the brother of the deceased, as the administrator of the estate.

Louis B. Dixon died in 1919. His widow, Beasie Dixon, and his brother Benson filed letters of administration of the estate. Before the court decided the issue, Mrs. Dixon waived her petition to another party. By that action, the county court held she had waived right to administration, either direct or indirect. Thereupon started a fight which has come up in one form or another for the past six years and which has once been before the state supreme court.

Mrs. Dixon filed injunctions against the sale of her husband's property by his brother, which were handled in this court.

CAUTION The thin, extremely flexible balloon casing, repaired by the old methods, leaves a hard, stiff section which throws the tire off balance and quickly ruins it. The Hawkinson System eliminates this difficulty by making a repair of remarkable strength—yet just as thin and pliable as the balloon tire. Badly injured balloon tires are not "through" IF they are repaired the Hawkinson way. A trial will convince you. We guarantee each repair to OUTLAST THE TIRE, or your money back. All tires inspected FREE.
