CONVICTS STILL ELUDE CAPTURE

don was guarding a canyon near here in which officers believe the fugitives took refuge.

One posse went to the ranch home of Mrs. Roy King and daughter, midway between Victor Point and Union Hill, where the women reported they had seen two men run through their garden. No trace of the fugitives was found.

An hour later shooting was heard in this vicinity, but investigators failed to determine its cause.

Scout Klamath Theory

Members of the posse here have attached little importance, so far as Murray, Kelly and Willos are concerned, to a report from Klamath Falls that three with revolvers had commandeered an automobile there and forced the driver to start northward.

Deputy Sheriff Haskins of Umatilla county, one of the captors of Owens and Hart who murdered Sheriff Til Taylor, has joined the posse here. He was also one of the original captors of James Willos and believes the latter will desert Murray and Kelly at the first opportunity and go it alone.

Expert Marksman

Willos, said Haskins, was formerly expert rifle shot for an internationally known gun manufacturer, and was also champion marksman of Colorado, and would be a dangerous man to face in battle, as he is armed with a rifle.

The mystery woman who tried to arrange with officers at Portland, Salem and Silverton to take part in the search for the outlaws, had departed today, after walking eight miles yesterday in an effort to join a posse.

She told possemen she would return to Portland and others that she would walk to California. She is about 45 or 50 years old. At a hotel she registered as Mrs. Olive Hoganbloom.

She said her only object was to save lives, "especially those of the poor prisoners."

Suspect at Oakland

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 15.—Warden Dalrymple of the state penitentiary here received a telephone call from Oakland, Ore., this morning, stating that a man answering the description of Kelly, one of the trio who escaped Wednesday night, had stopped at a house and asked for food. The message indicated that he was being held at Oakland by O. R. White of that city, all the Oakland police force having departed to join the manhunt.

Dalrymple advised White to hold the man at Oakland pending the arrival of a deputy sheriff from Roseburg, who was sent word to proceed to Oakland.

O. R. White is a piano tuner by occupation, and tuned the piano at the state penitentiary some two months ago. He did not see Kelly while there.

White stated that he became suspicious of the man when he contradicted himself several times, stating first that he was from Eugene and later that he was from several other places.

The man held by White answers the description of Kelly, as nearly as can be determined by conversation over the telephone, except that a number of his front teeth are missing. Kelly's teeth are all present, or at least were present when last examined at the penitentiary, Dalrymple states.

Inquest Started

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 15.—The coroner's investigation of the state prison delivery of Wednesday evening in which two guards, M. M. Holman and John Sweeney, and an escaping convict, "Oregon" Jones, were killed, was begun here last night at the office of Coroner Lloyd T. Rigdon. After establishing the identity of the dead men and the manner and cause of their deaths the inquest was adjourned until Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

James W. Lewis, former warden of the state prison and now a Marion county deputy sheriff, formally identified Sweeney, whom he had known for 30 years, Edwin Jacobson of Portland identified Holman. He was Holman's brother-in-law. Dee Jones of Portland, a brother of the dead desperado, identified "Oregon" Jones.

Dr. W. Carlton Smith described the wounds received by the two guards and Dr. G. E. Prime those received by Jones.

Walker Signs Up For Shade Bout

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(P)—Mickey Walker, world's welterweight champion, signed a contract today with Tex Rickard, Madison Square Garden promoter, to defend his title against Dave Shadd of California at the Yankee stadium September 29.

Walker's contract was filed with the New York state athletic commission today and thereby halts pending legislation against him for his dilatory conduct. The contract was signed by Walker himself, the commission refusing to recognize Kearns as the champion's manager until Kearns clears himself with the commission over the Dempsey controversy.

Board of Regents To Name Successor

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 15.—In order to select a successor for P. L. Campbell, president of the University of Oregon, who died at Eugene yesterday, a meeting of the board of regents will be called by Judge J. W. Hamilton of Roseburg, president of the board, it was announced last night by Sam A. Kozier.

Hunsaker Returns To Klamath Falls

Greatly improved, but unable as yet to assume his duties as justice of the peace, R. E. Hunsaker returned last night from California, where he has been undergoing treatment at the Stanford hospital.

Mr. Hunsaker hopes to rest at his home for several days and then relieve Ed Kendall of his job as acting justice of the peace. Mr. Hunsaker was brought back to Klamath Falls by A. J. Lyle, manager of the Klamath General hospital.

Kimanis and Rotary Give Salvation Army Drive Initial Push

A combined meeting of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs at the chamber of commerce yesterday noon was devoted entirely to the cause of the Salvation Army and its proposed drive for funds which will start next week.

Talks were given by Rotarians and Kiwanians, commending the work of the organization. Captain Strickland and Adjutant Lee of the Salvation Army headquarters in Portland are in Klamath Falls to give the drive its initial push next Monday.

Evangelist Will Continue Revival

A piece of good news to many is that Dr. Garr has consented to remain another week, if the White Pelican theater can be secured for the services to be held there.

Last Tuesday night was a "testimony" night. Any one present could not but have been impressed with the evident sincerity of those who stood before the large audience and gave testimony to the cures that had been wrought upon their bodies through prayer. The glow upon their faces, the conviction in their voices, bore evidence that they were telling forth the word of "truth and soberness." Some very notable cases of healing were testified to. The large audience, most of whom have been attending night after night, and who were in a position to know whether these things were so, were in evident sympathy with the evangelist and his work. They had seen the sick healed before their eyes. Many of them came to laugh or out of curiosity, but went away to pray and wonder.

One young man—a tuberculosis case—had a large swelling upon his side, continually discharging and very painful. The pain left immediately when he was prayed for, and his father and mother, as well as the boy, stated publicly that the swelling had entirely disappeared.

One woman, Mrs. Susie Johns, working in a box factory in the city, testified that she collapsed at her work and was taken to a physician by the foreman of the factory. The doctor pronounced her trouble as leakage of the heart, and incurable. She was prayed for four weeks ago and is now entirely healed, having one day recently walked 7 1/2 miles without any ill effect whatever.

Another woman, Mrs. M. W. Gerhardt, 804 north 9th St., city, stated that within the year she has had two operations: that she had suffered constant pain during all that time. Two weeks ago, on returning home from the meeting, the pain became so great that she collapsed. Her husband came for Dr. Garr. He went to her home, prayed for her and she says she was immediately healed. Ever since that hour she has not only been free from pain but is enjoying better health than for years.

As one listens to these testimonies, he may ask, "Are these patent medicine testimonies, or such cases as are recorded in the book of Acts and the Gospels? Is Jesus still healing folks of their diseases? Is this man Garr a faker, or a man of God, who is proving before the eyes of hundreds of people that the word of God is true and the promises of Jesus potent as in the days when He spoke them?"

If this thing is of God, every man woman and child in Klamath Falls ought to know it. If a fake is being played upon the people to dupe them, as some claim, they ought to know that. Something very unusual is taking place in Klamath Falls in that hole in the ground on Eighth street. No one can deny that, who has been attending these meetings.

—B. C. MILLER.

Many to Attend "Casey" Picnic

With a complete sports program, including a base ball game, racing and various out of door sports, local Knights of Columbus and their families and friends are in readiness for the picnic at Hayden's Meadow on the Ashland highway tomorrow. One of the largest crowds of the summer is expected to attend from Klamath Falls, with the people of the valley planning to be as well represented.

Cars are leaving the city at ten o'clock in the morning from the Lyceum hall and people having extra space in their cars are asked to take those not able to find transportation.

WRECK AT SAUSILITO

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—(P)—Word received here about 1 o'clock said a dozen passengers were injured, several seriously, when a Northwestern Pacific train struck an electric train at a crossing at Waldo, near Sausalito. The bodies were being removed to a hospital.

Klamath Packing Plant May Change Hands Next Month

Negotiations are in progress for the purchase of the business and plant of the Klamath Packing company by O. H. Dean, a packer of Willimington, Cal. L. E. Walker, head of the packing company, admits that such negotiations are now under way.

Mr. Dean has been in the city for the past several days looking over business prospects and conferring with Mr. Walker about the purchase of the plant. He said, however, that nothing definite has yet been done and the deal, if completed, will not be closed until after he returns here from a trip back to his home in Willimington.

"I will return here some time next month," Mr. Dean said prior to his departure today. "It is my desire to make investments here as I believe Klamath Falls has a bright future before it."
