Phone 725W GARAGE ROBBERS ARRESTED (Continued From Page One) was when a press report received by the Evening Herald was read to me over the phone, reporting that the three men had been taken into custody by the sheriff, driving a car which bore a license number under the name of J. J. Miller of Portland. Search on Again Authorities throughout Oregon are once again searching for the three thieves in Walker's car. It is thought that they are headed for Washington and perhaps Canada. Despite reports to the contrary, the bandits after the garage robbery drove north on The Dalles-California highway. Reports that they might have been the three Salem convicts were found to be fictitious by the Dalles sheriff, who was in possession of pictures and descriptions of the convict-murderers.

Soldier Wounded in Revolver Duel

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Aug. 17.—(AP)—As the result of a pistol duel, Private Paul Nell, service battery, fifteenth field artillery, lies in Fort Sam Houston general hospital with a bullet in his right shoulder, while Deputy Sheriff Tony Diaz and other officers are seeking the body of a Mexican whom Nell shot.

AGED SCOT FINDS NATIVE LAND STRANGE ON RETURN

BELFAST.—The saddest man on the liner Cedric which arrived here from Liverpool recently enroute to America was John Nell, an 86 year old Scot. He left his native Glasgow for the United States in 1863 and fought in the Civil War, and this was his first trip to the land of his nativity. "I did not meet a soul I knew," he said. "Everything was changed and I was like a stranger in a strange land. Now I am going back to Honolulu to spend the remaining days of my life." A real dog likes to eat steak, but he had rather have a good bite out of a pedigreed pup. The honeymoon is over when he forgets how to drive with one hand.
