SLIGHT CHANGES IN TEXT BOOKS

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 22.—But few changes in the texts already used in the public schools of Oregon were made by the text book commission which met for its final session here yesterday and let contracts for two thirds of the books to be used during the coming year. Prices however, will range from 10 to 7 per cent higher for the same texts.

Records of the state superintendent show that most of the books adopted are already embodied in the state course of instruction which means that in thousands of cases pupils of the public schools will not be required to buy new texts.

Indicative of the high prices offered to the commission for new contracts was the New World speller published by the World Book company. In 1919 the book was contracted at 25 cents while this year the publishers demanded 52 cents. The prices secured by the commission, it is said, are no lower than publishers offered to the state department of instruction several weeks ago and before the governor ordered the special session of the text book commission.

Aged Woman Takes Long Saddle Rides

(Special to The Herald)

YREKA, Calif., Aug. 22.—Her age is no handicap to Mrs. Hugh Grant of Cecilville when she wants to go horseback riding through the rugged Salmon mountain region.

Although Mrs. Grant has celebrated her 74th birthday anniversary, she frequently goes on long rides. This week she rode from Cecilville to Butler's flat, below the forks of Salmon, a distance of 30 miles, in a day. Her daughter lives on Taylor creek and she rides between her home and her daughter's home frequently and is none the worse for her strenuous exercise.

DUBLIN PLANS PRETENTIOUS CENOTAPH FOR WAR HEROES

DUBLIN.—(P)—The Chief Commissioner of Police in Dublin, who served as a colonel in the British Army during the European war, has recommended the acceptance of the offer of the National War Memorial Committee to acquire Merrion Square, erect a great war memorial or cenotaph there and hand the square over to the city as a public park.

On the appeal of the late Earl of Yppres, when Viceroy, a large sum was subscribed to commemorate the service of the Irish troops in the war. The money has remained idle ever since and $200,000 now is available for the Merrion Square project. This is the largest of the great squares of Dublin and the proposal to convert it into a public park, rivaling St. Stephens Green is recommended as a boon to the poor population and the children of the poor streets in the neighborhood who require a playground.

Merrion Square is at present the private property of the owner of the houses on it, and an act of Parliament will be necessary to effect the transfer.

Rowing Coach Is Signed by Penn. U.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 22.—Fred Spuhn, assistant rowing coach at Harvard last season, has signed a one year contract as head coach of the University of Pennsylvania crews John Arthur Brown, chairman of the rowing committee at the university announced today. He will be assisted by Max Luft, the giant oarsman who captained the University of Washington crew last spring. Both men will report here the last week in September for fall rowing.

PUDOFF IS LET OFF WITH VERY LIGHT SENTENCE

Because of his wife and seven children, because his crops would be ruined if he were sent to jail and he had a reputation of thrift and industry, Mike Pudoff, Bonanza farmer, received a minimum fine this morning of $500 from Acting Justice of the Peace Kendall on a charge of possession of a still.

Pudoff, who is a native of Russia, admitted that he had only taken out his first papers. Kendall counseled him to take care that he did not get mixed up in another moonshine scrape and advised him to devote more time to the education of his seven children.

Pudoff managed to raise the fine this morning and returned to his ranch.

Porcupine Almost Causes Accident

(Special to The Herald)

YREKA, Calif., Aug. 22.—When a large porcupine lost its footing on the embankment on the side of the lower Klamath river highway near Somes Bar recently, it almost caused a serious wreck and it lost its own life.

Judge Luther Hickox, justice of the peace at Somes Bar, and his family were returning home in their automobile from visiting friends at the Stanshaw mine and the headlights of the car showed the animal rapidly retreating up the bank when it lost its footing. When it struck the roadway, the wheels of the machine passed over it, killing it and Hickox managed to control his machine, which was swerved by the body of the animal.
