THE EVENING HERALD'S CLASSIFIED AD SECTION

"Girl Crazy?"

Warren Vandervoort, 17, Parkersburg, Ia., shot and killed his father, Rev. R. J. Vandervoort, and seriously wounded his mother, he said, because his family life was one of continual "bickering," and that he could not stand it any longer. Neighbors, however, say the boy is "girl crazy," and that he wanted the $11,000 life insurance the father carried. Bottom, Mr. and Mrs. Vandervoort.

BRITON WOULD SAFEGUARD MORALS BY BAN ON RECORDS

LONDON. (AP) - With the idea of "regulating the publication of reports of judicial proceedings in such manner as to prevent injury to public morals," Lord Darling has introduced a "proceedings bill" in the House of Lords. The bill makes it unlawful to "print, circulate or publish and indecent matter or medical, surgical, or physiological details calculated to injure public morals, in relation to divorce or separation cases." The penalty is imprisonment not exceeding three months or a fine not exceeding $2500, or both. The measure does not apply to the publication of matter in separate volume or series of law reports, or in technical publications intended for the legal and medical professions.

AMERICAN AND BRITISH INTERESTS GET CONTRACTS IN SALONIKI

ATHENS. (AP) - One of the most important contracts awarded by the Greek government is that given to American and British capitalists recently for improvements in the Saloniki district. The contracts provide for the abolishment of lakes in that district and for changing the course of the Vardar River in Macedonia. It is expected that the work when completed will result in improved health conditions for the entire district by the removal of the sources of malaria and that 400 square kilometers of land will have been reclaimed. The amount of capital to be furnished by the Americans and Britains is said to be $26,000,000. The contract was signed for American interests by Franklin Remington, president of the New York Foundation Company.

PINCH HITS FOR ICE
ROME - When the Roman summer reached its most intense torridity, complaints increased that fish peddlers loath to spend money for sufficient ice, were resorting to the use of bichloride of mercury to keep their wares "fresh."
Newspapers took up the complaints and published warnings to the public together with caricatures showing avaricious fish mongers injecting embalming fluid with a hypodermic needle into fish.

Portland Market
Closes Good in Country Produce

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 22. - Current prices on country produce were well maintained at the close of the week and the market was generally steady and unchanged in most lines. Recent advances in egg prices prevailed at the close today, with the market showing a strong undertone. With outside markets advancing local values are expected to work higher during the coming week. Butter market continued steady with all grades of values unchanged. Country dressed meat arrivals continued moderate this week and prices held firm with a good call for fancy stuff. Choice light veal fished at 16 1/2-2 to 17c and choice light hogs at 20c. Slight improvement is shown in the live poultry market for the week. Light hens brought 14 to 15 cents at the close while heavy hens sold up to 23c. Ducks also ruled higher with young white Pekins bringing 24 and 25c. The cheese market continues to display a good healthy tone. Local jobbers report stocks moving out good at the recent advance. Fruits and vegetables ruled generally steady during the week. Dealers get a good price for fancy, large sized peaches but ordinary stocks are lumped off at a discount.
