

THE EVENING HERALD'S CLASSIFIED AD SECTION

miles an hour down Sixth street, according to Collins. Investigation revealed that his brakes were faulty. In the police station Murphy, who is believed to be an ex-pug, showed fight and it took the combined efforts of Collins and Patrolman Mitchell to shove him into the jail. He is charged with driving while drunk, having a driver's license and resisting arrest.

Car Turns Over
Jack Dellisek and Adam Sharpeck are in the Klamath General hospital today with painful bruises and cuts about the head, incurred when their car turned turtle on the Ashland-Klamath Falls highway near Keno. The two men, according to reports were traveling at a rapid rate of speed. They were rushed to the hospital, thought to be critically injured. According to hospital attendants x-ray photographs may be taken to ascertain whether or not there is a crack of the skull. The accident occurred yesterday afternoon.

Woman Shaken Up
In an accident at the corner of Sixth and Klamath Mrs. F. B. Ackerman was slightly shaken up and suffered from shock when the car in which she was riding, operated by Mr. Lodge of Yreka, crashed into a second car, whose identity could not be learned. Mrs. Ackerman was taken to the hospital until she could recover sufficiently to return to her home in Yreka. She had just returned from Crater Lake with Mr. and Mrs. Lodge when the crash occurred.

A car driven by C. H. Paulsen crashed into a machine driven by a man named Smith Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock, three miles west of Dairy. Paulsen's car lost a wheel as a result of the crash and Smith's machine was slightly damaged. The accident was caused by Smith having but one light on his car, according to the report to authorities.

Blame Each Other
Just who is to blame for the accident on Ninth and Lincoln streets yesterday morning at 11:15 o'clock, cannot be determined, for Harry E. Herman and Clarence Fitzsimmons blame each other. Herman's car is minus a wheel and the left front door and running board of Fitzsimmons' car is crumpled in as a result of the accident.
Dr. L. D. Gass and Roscoe Largent narrowly avoided injury when the rear wheel of their car rolled off at
