District Attorney Elliott, has made a complete confession. Because the state law prohibits juveniles from being quartered in jails with grown men, the youth was paroled to the custody of Sheriff Hawkins, who is having the boy report to him twice daily. As soon as County Judge Bunnell returns to the city, he will be tried in juvenile court.

It is generally believed in court house circles that the present jail on the top floor of the building will be fitted up for women and juveniles, and that the new jail will be built on a part of the lot now used as a city park. This, however, will await the decision of the county court.
