

PARENTS VIEW MOVIE REEL OF CLUB STUDIES

Just what their boys and girls do when they attend the Oregon Agricultural college several weeks each year for a summer course is county club work, was graphically brought home to scores of Klamath parents at Malin last night when a

Title of the picture is "An Oregon Junior Goes to College." The picture opens with the departure of the club boys and girls from the front of the county court house, on their way to the Oregon Agricultural college. Then it shows various activities at Oregon Agricultural college.

H. C. Seymour, state club leader, and County Club Leader Frank Sexton, addressed approximately 200 who attended the picture.
