Babe Ruth Attempts To Justify His Own Conduct; Declares Miller Huggins Is Bad Manager

CHICAGO, Aug. 31. (P) — Babe Ruth, had boy of the New York Yankees, failed today in his plan to appeal personally to Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis against the $5000 fine and suspension disciplinary penalties imposed by Manager Huggins of the Yankees. The commissioner was out of the city, having gone to his summer place at Burt Lake, Mich.

Without appealing to intermediary powers, the Babe already had lost two decisions.

Colonel Jacob Ruppert, owner of the Yankees, voiced satisfaction with the management of the club and expressed indignation that Ruth should attempt to assume the role of dictator in the club's policy.

Johnson Approves
Ban Johnson, president of the American league, announced himself as being well pleased with Huggins' action in disciplining Ruth.

He called Ruth a man with the mind of a 15 year old boy and intimated that Babe probably will not play again this season.

"Misconduct, drinking and staying out all night are things that will not be tolerated," said Mr. Johnson.

Babe came here from St. Louis, where Huggins broke the news of the suspension and fine to him. He seemed to be in fine physical condition and was in a jovial mood.

He denied but little that Huggins had said against him, but sought to justify his own action.

Breaks Club Rules
He admitted he recently had violated the club rule against remaining out after 1 a. m. and that the rule was badly fractured one night when he did not return to the hotel at all.

He had explanations for each instance of failure to observe the restriction.

The Babe also assailed Huggins' judgment in directing the team's play, and told of two occasions during the Chicago-New York series when he had deliberately done just the opposite to what had been directed by the manager. He had explanations for that, too.

Speaking of his falling off in hitting, another subject of criticism in Manager Huggins' statement given out in St. Louis, Ruth said that he came back a month too soon after he was sick.

Still Hitting 'em
"That's the bunk about me losing my batting eye," said Ruth. "I am seeing 'em as well as hitting 'em as hard as I ever did; they're just not falling safe."

Ruth accused Huggins of seeking to make him the goat as an explanation of the Yankees' poor showing this year, and said that Huggins had been pulling the "wool over Ruppert's eyes for a long while."

In conclusion Ruth asserted that if Huggins continued as the Yankee manager, he was through. "I will not play for him," Ruth announced.

Kearns Gets Offer For His Contract With Jack Dempsey

NEW YORK, Aug. 31. (P) — Charlie Rose, manager of Bartley Madden and eastern representative of Floyd Fitzsimmons, Michigan City, Ind., promoter today wired to Jack Kearns offering $150,000 for Jack Dempsey's contract.

Rose would not reveal whom he represents in the venture, but he intimated that two others were interested with him in the $150,000 offer. His telegram, addressed to Kearns at the hotel Barbara, Los Angeles, California follows: "Would you be willing to sell your contract with Jack Dempsey? Will give you $150,000 cash. Will leave for Los Angeles immediately upon answer to this wire if you mean business."

Pelicans Win Over Dunsmuir By Big Score

Klamath and Weed Are Still Tied For First Place

The longest home run of the season from the bat of Bert Arnold started Klamath Falls on its way in the first inning, to a decisive victory over Dunsmuir yesterday afternoon at Dunsmuir by the one-sided score of 19 to 3.

One man was on base when Arnold came to the bat. He swung on a fast one and smashed a liner straight out over the center fielder's head over the fence.

It was Klamath's game from the first inning to the last. Although weak in spots, Street pitched an effective game throughout and with faultless support came through with colors flying.

Demitt and Rayness stopped a rally short in the fourth inning, when with bases full, they caught a man napping at third. Demitt snapped the ball down to third and Rayness had the ball waiting for the Dunsmuir player when he hit the base.

About 100 fans from Klamath Falls journeyed south to cheer the Pelicans to victory.

With Weed a winner, 10 to 5, over Mt. Shasta yesterday, the tie with Klamath Falls for first place remains unbroken. Unless protests against the Klamath Falls-Weed game materialize, Weed and Klamath Falls will play a three game series to determine the championship.

York Pleads Not Guilty to Charge Elliott Prefers

What gives every promise of being an interesting trial is the case of State vs. C. L. York, who takes issue with District Attorney Elliott's judgment of speed on the road.

Elliott filed a complaint of speeding against York, claiming that the driver for Turpin's auto stage was exceeding the speed limit near Keno. York was arrested, pleaded not guilty and demanded a jury trial. He will get it, although the trial has not yet been set.

Elliott notified York to appear last Friday, which York failed to do.

FOUR SPEEDERS NAILED BY COP

A number of automobile smashups on the Ashland-Klamath Falls highway between this city and Keno last Sunday led W. A. Foster, state traffic officer, to patrol that section of road all yesterday afternoon. All of which accounts for the arrest of R. A. Hilton, J. H. Eilers, Forest Colson and A. L. Trash for speeding in excess of 40 miles an hour.

Hilton and Eilers each paid fines of $13.75. Colson was to appear this afternoon and Trash before Justice of the Peace R. C. Spink this afternoon.

Local Man Slugged and Robbed on Oak Street Last Night

A man, said to be W. McHenry, of Klamath Falls, was slugged into unconsciousness late last night on Oak street between Ninth and Tenth and relieved of a gun and some money by two thugs.

The attack was witnessed by Henry Stout and a man named Boyd, but the two men could not come to the aid of the injured man soon enough and the two black-jackers escaped into the darkness.

McHenry was unconscious from the blows received and was taken to the Klamath General hospital for treatment. He was discharged this morning little the worse for his rough treatment.
