

CHEYNE FAMILY COMPETING IN FAIR EXHIBITS

The fair board should inaugurate a diversity class for the next fair and it is certain that the Alex B. Cheyne family would stand a good chance to carry it off. Mrs. Cheyne exhibited the greatest diversity of products last year and carried off a blue with nearly every exhibit. This year she enters a pen of Buff Plymouth Rocks, one of Buff Minorcas, an old and a young pair of turkeys and for display only—there being no listed prizes for non-commercial breeds—a pair of silver Polish chickens and hen and chicks of the Golden Polish strain. In the cannery division Mrs. Cheyne enters for canned fruits, vegetables, meats, pickles and condiments and a variety display of twelve quarts. In garden vegetables she will exhibit cabbage, corn, dried peas of the everbearing and improved Stratem varieties, dried onions, parsnips, rutabagas, spinach, green string beans, stock carrots, mangle wurtzels, field pumpkins and largest single mangle wurtzel.

Master Alvin A. Cheyne, aged nearly 5, enters musk melons and sunflowers, which he has tended and spaded religiously, determined not to be outdone by the rest of his energetic family.

Marjorie A. Cheyne, aged 11, enters sweet peas and field pumpkins and a mother silver Seabright hen and chicks for display. Her little sister Evelyn, four years her junior, has raised Hubbard squash and peonias for her county's fair. Last year these young women captured blue ribbons in the flower division the proceeds of which went toward "a larger and better garden this year."

Caid Surrenders Self to Sheriff

A three-day search for C. C. Caid, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon upon Harry Munson, came to an end late Saturday afternoon when Caid returned from Grant's Pass and voluntarily gave himself up to authorities.

"I didn't know you were looking for me," Caid explained to Sheriff Hawkins.

Caid's car was taken as a bond for his appearance before Justice of the Peace Ed Kendall next Thursday morning.

Caid is accused of having struck Munson over the head with a shovel Tuesday afternoon while the pair were working at the Modoc Lumber company.

THIEVES STEAL 2 AUTOMOBILES

H. Gordon and K. Cole Find Themselves Minus Cars This Morning

Two Klamath automobile owners are walking this morning while their cars are in the hands of automobile thieves.

O. K. Cole of Chiloquin drove up to the Chiloquin theater at Chiloquin Sunday night, got out and went into the show. An hour and a half later he came out only to find his car gone. It is a large seven passenger chocolate colored Stephens touring car.

Vernon Gordon Klamath rancher who resides to the east of town drove to Klamath Falls to attend a show. While he was inside the theater, auto thieves stole his Chevrolet touring car bearing the license number of 104,472, Oregon.

Both thefts were reported to the sheriff's office but no trace of the missing automobiles has been uncovered today.

Police received a message from Crater Lake to be on the look out Saturday night for a California touring car, thought to be driven by a man in an intoxicated condition. But a close check on incoming cars revealed no drunken driver and it was thought that the wild chauffeur had stopped on his way south to sober up.

Will Lay Pipe on New Golf Course

Something over 6,000 feet of pipe will be laid on the local golf course this week, in putting in the water system, by the Lorenz company. It is thought the work will take about two weeks.

Foundation for the laying of the pumps will commence within a short while by the Concrete Pipe company.

According to J. F. Maguire, Sr., planting of the grass will take place just as soon as the water system is completed. After studying the greens of a number of leading courses throughout the state, the local directors have decided upon "chewing feschu" and "creeping bent" for the greens and "Kentucky blue" and "chewing feschu" for the fairway.

The latter part of the week Mr. Maguire is making a motor trip to Portland where he will look over five new courses, which have been laid since early June, to get more ideas for the local course.

Fair Board Will

Issue Programs Free at Grounds

A tactical error was committed this morning by an advertising solicitor endeavoring to secure ads for a racing program at the county fair.

The mistake lay in the fact that the wrong party was solicited and as a result there is some doubt whether or not the solicitor will have much more success in landing local merchants for the columns of his program.

The solicitor approached Thalia W. Newcomb, secretary of the fair board, thinking that Mrs. Newcomb was an employe at the Pelican Bay Lumber company, whom he had seen when he had called on that concern for the purpose of getting an advertisement.

Gradually Mrs. Newcomb drew out of the solicitor what it was all about, and as a result she authorized the announcement this morning that the fair board is putting out its own racing program and that the programs will be distributed free at the fair grounds.

Willard Taylor Is Slightly Injured

Slight injuries were incurred early Sunday morning by Willard Taylor, 517 Klamath avenue, in an automobile accident on the S. P. railroad crossing on South Sixth street.

Taylor sustained a severe cut in the shoulder when he was thrown through the windshield of a small touring car, which crashed into the rear of another car waiting at the crossing. After being treated at the hospital, Taylor returned to his home Sunday morning.

Today we saw a German police dog leaping up against a telephone pole sound asleep.

Federated Club

Attracts Notice

That the Federated Club, which was organized in this county in February, taking in a member from each community club, commercial organization or chamber of commerce throughout the county, is attracting statewide attention is proven by the many letters which have been sent to the local chamber of commerce.

The club meets twice each month and has many advantages, inasmuch as it gets the farmers and the business men together, on all civic and welfare questions.

E. A. Koen, publisher of the Banner Courier, of Oregon City, is the last one to make inquiry in regard to the club which reads in part: "Understanding that Klamath county has a county-wide organization of civic clubs, we would be pleased to receive all possible information upon the subject including a copy of the constitution and by-laws of such an organization."

"The points that are bothering us are: What basis of representations can be fixed? What organizations should be included in the membership? How often should meetings be held?"
