Whether or not certain streets and alleys near Ewauna lake shore in Klamath addition, should be vacated in order to allow industrial expansion was a question which puzzled the city council so much last night that they decided to defer decision on the matter until September 14, when a further hearing will be held on the problem.

A remonstrance signed by many citizens of the second ward was presented at the council meeting and Caleb Jones, local attorney, appeared before the council as spokesman for the protesters.

Mr. Jones pointed out that it was taking property without due process of law and that land owned by was due to industrial expansion that this town owed its prosperity and that the council would be doing the greatest good to the greatest number if the vacating of the streets were granted.

D. V. Kuykendall, appearing for the Lorenz Heating company and lumber companies, that desire the vacating of the streets, stated that it to industrial expansion that this town owed its prosperity and that the council would be doing the greatest good to the greatest number if the vacating of the streets were granted.

A petition bearing 111 signatures and demanding that a special election be held to elect a councilman for second ward to succeed Merle West, resigned, brought an instantaneous response from the council. The council voted to hold the special election and authorized J. H. Carman, city attorney, to draw up the ordinance for the election.

PLANES FORCED DOWN IN OCEAN

half after the start of the flight, word was received from the destroyer William Jones that it had taken the plane in tow.

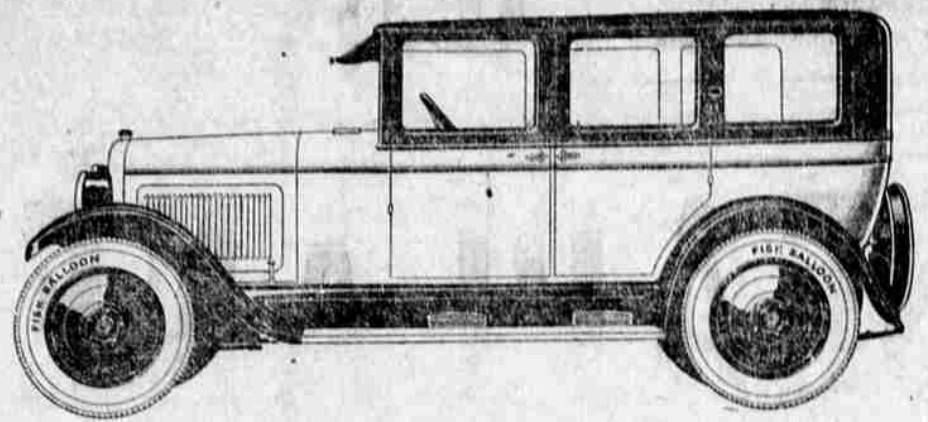

Commander B. B. Taylor, of the William Jones, advised Admiral Moffat that he was making seven knots an hour with the plane, and was directed to proceed slowly toward San Francisco, while the Gannett continued toward him.

Adjustment of the new power plant in the PB-1 plane, that 24,000 pound aircraft from a Seattle factory was being made today by the expert machinists who yesterday completed its installation and made a short test flight. Every effort was being made to make the big Boeing plane ready to start tomorrow afternoon on a flight which it is now planned will be 85 miles longer than that on which the PN-9 number 1, was still flying. The Boeing aircraft will be given orders to continue, if possible, past the Pearl Harbor landing on the island of Oahu to Nawiliwili, 85 miles further west.

What was declared by the flight headquarters here to be a record for radio transmission from a plane was established last night when the PN-9 number 1, established wireless communication with Hilo, from which it was then still 1,500 miles distant.

DUTCH HARBOR, Alaska.—The Charles Brower, gasoline schooner recently returned here from an Arctic cruise, reported that the mess boy of the schooner Nanuk, strangled himself to death with a cod-fish line while on the ship in the far north.

Perhaps your tire problem has to do with air pressures; perhaps you wonder whether you should equip with low-pressure tires of standard size, or balloons.

We are in a position to advise you fairly and without prejudice because Racine builds—and we sell—both kinds.

Moreover, both kinds equally uphold RACINE'S reputation for building first-quality products only.
