At the PINE TREE

You hear the South Seas as in a shell; you see exotic life and love as in a mirror in "The Painted Lady," the special screen version of Larry Evans' Saturday Evening Post story that aroused so much comment at the time of publication.

"The Painted Lady" in which those twin screen favorites, George O'Brien and Dorothy Mackill are featured, comes to the Pine Tree theater for an engagement of two days, beginning Sunday.

The story starts in a big seaport city and poignant drama comes into and suddenly changes the lives of Violet and of Luther Smith at the same time, without their ever having heard of each other.

Yet in the romantic, mysterious, treacherous South Sea Isles, Fate ties them up in a lover's knot, when they meet, that no man can put asunder.

Violet, innocent, driven by the world's hounding and hunger to the luxurious life of a Painted Lady, cruises to the languorous South Sea Isles on a millionaire's yacht.

PARK BOARD NOT SATISFIED WITH SURVEY OF S. P.

Railroad Company Reports Two Tenths of Acre less Than on Books

ORDERS NEW SURVEY

Resolution Passed Recommending Sale to City Council

Dissatisfaction with the Southern Pacific survey of its section of the south Riverside park was expressed last night by the park board and Mayor Goddard was authorized to have the six acres of land re-surveyed by a city surveying party.

It developed that the S. P. survey showed approximately two-tenths of an acre less than the original city survey of the tract. If the S. P. survey were to be taken at face value, the city would be out in the neighborhood of $1500, as the six acre tract is being sold at a flat rate of $7500 an acre.

The Northern line survey of the two acres of the city park they have agreed to purchase, checks up in every particular with the original city survey of the park.

The park board adopted a resolution last night recommending to the city council that the south Riverside park be sold to the two railroad companies for $7500 an acre. It was decided that the sale be consummated by auction and that the city agree to not accept less than $7500 an acre for the land.

Transfer of the property to the purchasers would be affected by a bargain and sale deed, it was decided.
