Senators Have "Rag" Cinched
NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—From a sprint for the championship the American League pennant race within two weeks has turned into a triumphant Washington march. The dazed Athletics now trail in the dust of twelve straight defeats, nine full games behind the leaders.

Mack's team on its home field yesterday lost to Washington twice, 2 to 1, and 7 to 6. The Pirates, riding in front of the Giants with a lead of 8 and a half games maintained their advantage by splitting with the Cubs. The Corsairs outbatted their foes in a morning hit fest, 5 to 5, a total of 32 safeties being amassed by the two clubs. But in the afternoon the Cubs made 16 more hits and won, 9 to 8.

The Tigers obtained a toe-hold on fourth place in the American league by clawing the Browns 7 to 6, in the morning, but St. Louis' club in the afternoon drove them back into second division again after eleven innings 4 to 3.

Defeat snapped Detroit's string of straight victories. The White Sox and Cleveland also halved their double-header, Jim Edwards blanked the Speaker entry in the final contest with four hits, 5 to 0, after a Cleveland daily in the ninth had decided the opening clash by 6 to 5.
