

PINE TREE Theatre

On the Screen.

A Most Charming and Humorous

Farce —

'Kiss Me Again'

in which Marie Prevost, as the flirtatious wife, plays around with another husband until her husband pursued another woman — then the fun began! It's a Corking Good Comedy!

VAUDEVILLE at 7:15 and 9:15

On the Stage

Anita

"Up In the Air Girl."

Tom Copeland

"Scotland's Prime Minister of Mirth."

Giddy & Giddy

"Puzzle."

Williams & Culver

"Fun Promoters."

Estelle Faye & Company

"Little Fantasy."

MAINLY ABOUT PEOPLE

RETURN TO MEDFORD

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Wheelock of Medford, who have been in southern California for the past two weeks, stopped in Klamath Falls over the week end enroute home to visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Vannice. In California Mr. Wheelock attended buyers' week, for the Golden Rule store of Medford, of which he is manager.

LEAVE FOR VALLEY

Sam Sobol, well known among the local merchants, spent the past two days here on business and left this morning for Ashland, enroute to his headquarters in San Francisco.

RETURNS HOME

Ernest Hallbrook of Malin returned to his home this morning after spending Tuesday in the city on business matters.

EPISCOPAL GUILD TOMORROW

Ladies of Episcopal Church to Hold First Meeting of Fall

The first meeting of the fall to be held by the Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal church will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Walter West at 204 South Riverside. Mrs. West with Mrs. N. D. Ginsbach will be hostess at tomorrow's meeting. Plans for the bazaar by the ladies to be given early in December will be discussed. Mrs. Charles Martin has been put in charge of the bazaar.

RETURN TO COTTAGE GROVE

Mr. and Mrs. Beatty of Cottage Grove, returned to their home this morning, after an enjoyable ten day visit here.

MRS. MAULIFFE LEAVING

Expects to Spend Winter Months in South With Husband

Mrs. J. P. Mauliffe is making arrangements to leave the latter part of the week for San Francisco where she plans to spend the winter months with Mr. Mauliffe, who is receiving medical attention. The three children, Patrick, Joe and Nora, have entered the academy here. Word from the south is to the effect that Mr. Mauliffe is slowly improving from his injuries.

AT THE L-I-B-E-R-T-Y

Some of the most beautiful under-water scenes ever shown are in the starring Betty Blythe, which is shown for the last time tonight.

"Folly of Vanity"

Tomorrow

Buck Jones in "The Man Who Played Square"

FIRST VISIT SINCE JUNE

Mrs. R. L. Nichols paid her first visit to the city from the Lake of the Woods since June, yesterday. Mrs. Nichols came in from the resort with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hall and she plans to visit here for a week or more with her many friends.

FORMER RESIDENT INJURED

Former Klamath Falls Boy Seriously Injured Near Medford

Friends of Audley Eggers, formerly of this city, will be sorry to learn of the serious injuries he received in an automobile accident on the Medford highway during the past week. Eggers now resides in Grants Pass and with a girl companion was motoring when the car overturned, the girl meeting almost instant death. According to word received here, Eggers suffered a crushed skull and many broken bones. He at one time was employed here on a transfer line between this city and Medford, and is well known here.

FROM KENO ON BUSINESS

Mr. and Mrs. W. Jensen, of Keno, are in Klamath Falls today from the nearby town, transacting business affairs and visiting with friends.

FORMER RESIDENT HERE

From Home in Montana To Visit Briefly With A. J. Connolly

Joseph Toomey, formerly a resident of Klamath Falls, one of the oldest and most prominent residents of the state of Montana, arrived in Klamath Falls last evening for a short visit with A. J. Connolly. Mr. Toomey was called to the coast by the illness of Mrs. Toomey, who is in Portland. In the early days Mr. Toomey was among the largest land and cattle owners in Montana where his family still holds one of the most prominent positions. His son, Edmund Toomey is attorney for the State Railroad Commission in Montana and a younger son, Humphrey, is a first lieutenant in the flying corps of the United States Army, being stationed at San Diego. Mr. Toomey expects to return to Portland tomorrow.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Monthly Meeting Held Last Evening Will Elect Officers

The regular monthly meeting of the Knights of Columbus was held last evening, when the usual business of the order was taken up. On the last Tuesday in this month, which will be the 29th, the order will elect officers for the ensuing year. Beginning in October the regular winter bi-monthly meetings will again take up the work of the order.

FROM CALIFORNIA

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Laird with Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Miller of San Rafael, California, visited in the city yesterday enroute home from a motor tour.

SOUTHERN PEOPLE

A party of southern guests registered at the hotel White Pelican today include Elizabeth, Kathryn, Margaret and Helene Lunt, all of San Francisco.

MALIN BUSINESS VISITOR

J. E. Rigby, well known resident of Malin, who visits Klamath Falls frequently on business is in the city today.

RETURNS FROM MEDICINE LAKE

Mrs. T. O'Riley, Mrs. Nettie Newbanks, Kathryn Connolly, Kathryn O'Riley, and Mrs. Wilson and daughter Clove, returned yesterday from Medicine Lake where they spent the week-end.

GO ON DEER HUNT

J. W. and B. E. Kerns left this morning early for Buck Lake, where they plan to spend the coming three days on a deer hunt. The season for deer opens in Oregon tomorrow.

MOVING TODAY

Dix Brothers, automobile accessories, are today moving into the new Riley building and their present location will be occupied in a few days by Miller's Market.

BACK FROM ALASKA

Captain Applegate Returns From Trip to Alaska

Captain O. C. Applegate, who with his daughter, Mrs. Rachel Applegate Solomon, has returned from a two months' trip in Alaska, leaving Klamath Falls about the third of July. At Kodiak Island he visited with his daughter, Mrs. J. T. Halferty, who will be remembered in Klamath Falls as Miss Annie Applegate. He found the weather mild this summer and experienced a most enjoyable trip.

Evangelist Will Conduct Meetings

This evening at 7:45 on the corner of Pine and 8th streets, the Parrott - Lewis evangelistic party will open their meeting. In the party which comes here from Olympia, Wash., are Evangelists Parrott and Lewis, their wives and the two pianists, the Misses Gillette and Strong. Mrs. Parrott will be the song leader. The meetings will continue for three or four weeks and "healing nights" will be special features of the campaign here.

Mrs. J. W. Johnston left this morning for Idaho, where she will join her children, expecting to return to Klamath Falls in the near future to make their home, permanently, with Mr. Johnston who is located here in business. Mr. Johnston went part way with Mrs. Johnston on her trip.

Cecil Cook, scout executive, of Medford, is in the city on business matters.

Oregon City suits for boys, $14.50 to $19.75, in fabrics and styles equal to Dad's, mostly with vests like Dad's and two pairs of pants.

Men! New Fall Suits for Pride in Appearance

$ 18 to $ 35

For Young Men and Men Who Want Action, Quality, Style and Pride in Appearance.

Look at Your Suit, Everybody Else Does--- ---Be Well Dressed and Economically

Young Men's Double Breasted $20⁰⁰

Novelty brown heavy, soft finish wool suit, two-button double breasted coat, deep notched, popular long, wide lapel, for the high school youth who wants snap and action, with trousers in the medium bottom now being cut by all American suitmakers. Ages 15 to 19 at $20—others at $18.

Extra Sizes For Big Men $35⁰⁰

Included in this display of fall clothing for men are extra sizes for the big men, those who require sizes from chest measure of 44 to 48 inches. In these are some hard finish wools which are much preferred by these men and in dark colors and conservative styles.

Featuring

$ 32.50

Suits With 2 Pair Pants

Bluestone Grey 2 Button Sack $32⁵⁰

(2 pair trousers) One of the bright spots in the men's clothing spectacle is this suit of bluestone grey wool with large modest blue overlaid check in two-button sack coat in the favored lapel; two pairs trousers add to the value of this fine suit at $32.50. Others in lighter shade.

Bluesteel Grey 2 Button Sack $25⁰⁰

(2 pair trousers) This suit is made of a dark blue wool cloth in a practically solid color, with the very faintest stripe suggesting an overlaid so acceptable to those favoring the more novelty weaves and patterns. In the neat two button sack style with two pairs of trousers.

This initial showing of fall and winter suits meets the expectations of all those who are wanting new suits of new fall shades, fabrics and styles. Shades include brown checks, overlaid suggestions, blue, grey and brown serges, some with stripes, and novelty mixtures. Trousers mostly are the reversion to the medium bottom leg favored by American suit designers for neat appearance and good taste. You'll find the Golden Rule Corporation name, assuring style at a price, quality apparent and economy—on the inside pocket of each coat.

Ladies, are your men folk as well dressed for the money as they should be?

Men, pride in appearance is not false pride. Others place your rating in clothes.

Pride in appearance includes good shirts, good hose, good hats, good shoes, good underwear, good taste, proper fit and economy in buying.