Always Use
BUTTERICK PATTERNS
including DELTOR

Always Use
BUTTERICK PATTERNS
including DELTOR

FREE Butterick Pattern Week

To Every Buyer of Silk
Or Wool Dress Pattern,
Butterick Pattern Free.

September 14 to 19 Only

No Sale Less than Two (2) Yards

Select and pay for pattern you want and price of pattern will be deducted from cost of silk or wool goods.

Butterick Patterns with Deltor Guide and Delineator and Butterick Quarterly with Late Autumn Styles in Metropolitan Fashions to Choose from.

Silk Goods	Wool Goods
$1.50 to $6.00	$1.00 to $5.85
Including georgette crepe, canton crepe, crepe faille, Roshanara crepe, radium, satin, messaline, crepe de chine, Tricosham, crepe back satin, spiral crepe, banner ribbaleen, trico, satin circe, satin de leen.	Including serges, flannels, wool dress, suit and coat goods, of all kinds.

Dress Patterns, exclusive and only one of a kind, $9.85 and $11.85.

To dream of the dress, vision the style, imagine the mode and trimming; to select the fabrics, choose the pattern, is one of the royal moments full of thrills which can be accmplished in every woman's life. There is no joy more gratifying, no pleasure more delightful than taking the wondrous silks and wools and cutting and sewing them into beautiful dresses and suits for the colorful fall and winter season.

GOLDEN RULE CORPORATION OF KLAMATH FALLS OREGON

Always Use
BUTTERICK PATTERNS
including DELTOR

Always Use
BUTTERICK PATTERNS
including DELTOR

Mainly About People

VISIT RANCH HOME

Mrs. G. D. Ray and children, Martha and Betty, motored to the Ray ranch home at Keno where they spent Sunday.

HERE FOR TWO WEEKS

J. J. Robinson, L. L. Renolds, E. Simington and F. E. Lampshire, all of Dunsmuir, arrived in Klamath Falls last evening to be here for the coming two weeks.

MEDFORD VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hill of Medford were over Sunday visitors in the city.

ENROUTE HOME

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Russell of Colorado Springs, Colo., left this morning on their way home after visiting here over the week end. The Russells are returning from an extended motor tour and visited at Crater Lake while here. They plan to stop at a number of the principal coast cities on their way home.

MALIN VISITOR

J. D. Holton of Malin spent Sunday in the city visiting with friends.

INSTALLING REFRIGERATOR

Millers Market, which will move into its location, formerly occupied by Dix Brothers, within the next few days, is at the present time installing a modern refrigerator plant, and a number of new fixtures. The new location will give the market much larger quarters and better enable them to handle their customers.

SURVEYORS ARRIVE

Under the supervision of W. B. Isaacs, a crew of Southern Pacific surveyors arrived in the city last evening from San Francisco to be in charge of work in this section. In the party are John B. McKee, Harry Carver, T. McManus, F. Linden, H. E. Pursst, T. W. Foodfellam and W. B. Isaacs.

CHILOQUIN VISITORS

E. R. Wilson and R. A. Fogli of Chiloquin visited over Sunday here.

ARMY OFFICERS

Major H. C. Hilton of the U. S. army, with G. H. White and J. T. Miton of Corvallis spent over Sunday in the city on business and pleasure.

FROM MODOC POINT

J. J. Johnson and A. Solue of Modoc Point spent the week end in the city. Both young men are engineers for the state highway commission.

STINSONS BACK

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stinson returned last evening from San Francisco where they attended the Golden Jubilee this past week. While in the southern state the also visited in Sacramento with friends. Mr. Stinson reports huge crowds attended the jubilee from all parts of the country and that it was next to impossible to travel by motor in San Francisco the crowds were so large.

INSTALLING FIXTURES

Fixtures for the Terry Market arrived this morning and today a crew of men are busy installing them which will make the meat market one of the most modern in the city, when completed. Mr. Terry recently bought the business from E. D. Trulove and plans to spend in the neighborhood of $4,000 in renovating the interior of the shop.

BACK FROM BUCK LAKE

J. W. and B. E. Kerns returned last evening from Buck Lake where they spent the past three days on a hunting trip.

VISITS HUSBAND

Mrs. E. T. Joy of Ashland spent the week-end in Klamath Falls with her husband, who is connected with the Southern Pacific here. Mrs. Joy returned to the valley this morning.

GOING TO ROUNDUP

Barney Kenny plans to leave tomorrow by motor for Pendleton where he will attend the Roundup this week.

CLIFFORD JAY ILL

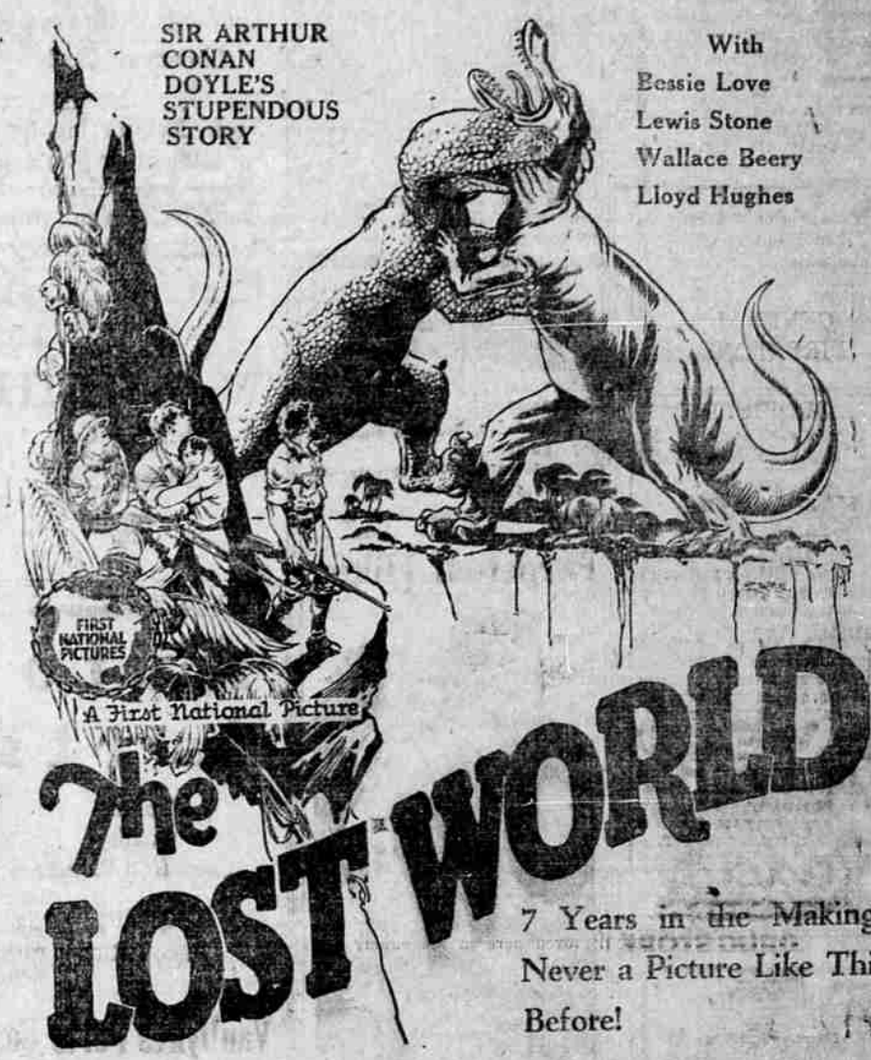
Clifford Jay is confined to his bed suffering with what is thought to be an attack of typhoid fever.

PINE TREE

Last Showing Tonight of Ricardo Cortez in the role of the 1925 Model Sheik, "The Spaniard"

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

The World's Wonder Picture!



7 Years in the Making!
Never a Picture Like This Before!

PRICES:—Matinees, Children 15 cents, Adults 35 cents.
Evenings, Children 25 cents, Adults 50 cents.

Specitl Children's Matinee at 4:00 p. m. Tuesday.—Admission 10 cents.

ENJOYED VISIT ABROAD

Miss Pearl Biehn, who returned to the city for a week's visit on Saturday, after spending the past three months abroad, enjoyed her visit immensely and was fortunate in seeing all the important and historic points of interest while in Europe. She is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Marvin Lucas, this week and will leave shortly for Portland where she will study music at the Ellison-White conservatory of music this winter. Mrs. George Biehn, her mother, journeyed to New York City to meet her on her arival home. Miss Biehn is a charming young woman and has hosts of friends in this city, who welcome her visit here.

SON IS BORN

A baby boy was born on Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Orville Dalton of Mills addition. The infant has been named Milton. Both the mother and young son are reported as doing nicely.

DENTON IN CITY

E. G. Denton of Lamm's Mill was a visitor over Saturday. Mr. Denton is corespondent for the Lumberjogue from Lamm's Mill.

MOTOR TO POINT COMFORT

Mrs. E. T. Higginson and Mrs. E. S. Clark motored to Point Comfort Sunday where they were the guests of Mrs. Laura Moore. They returned home last evening from the enjoyable trip.

BIRTHS

To Mr. and Mrs. George Emerson of Mt. Laki, Sept. 13, a boy, who has been named George Henry.

To Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pruitt, 2104 South Sixth street, Sept. 14, a girl.

FROM LANGELL VALLEY

Mrs. R. S. Hopkins of Langell Valley is in the city today shopping, purchasing a number of things for her lovely new home which is now under construction. Mr. Hopkins is with the reclamation service near Langell Valley. They expect to be moved into their new bungalow within the next week.

PROMINENT RANCHER

Gilbert Harrison, one of the prominent ranchers of the Bonanza country spent the day in Klamath Falls, transacting business.

SOUTHERN BUSINESS VISITOR

Robert Finlayson, one of the best known commercial men of San Francisco, who makes this teritory for the Belding company, arrived in Klamath Falls this morning. Mr. Finlayson made the trip north by motor and expects to spend several days in this vicinity in the interests of his firm.

VISIT CROOK'S FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Vannice and children, Miss Bernardine Metcalf and Miss Ana Metcalf, motored to Chiloquin Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Crooks.

FROM AGENCY

James W. Overton of Klamath Agency spent over Sunday in the city on business matters.

PAPPAS PAYS VISIT

Louis Pappas of Algoma camp spent Sunday in the city visiting with friends, returning to camp Sunday evening.

RETURN FROM HUNT

Ren Hollister and Robert Rruitt returned last evening from Bryant where they spent the past two days on a hunting trip.

EASTERN PARTY

Over the week end guests in Klamath Falls included Mrs. C. T. Robertson, Miss A. W. Robertson and Mrs. M. Riegle, all of Patterson, N. J., with Miss KG. S. Chipp of Kingston, N. Y., who are touring the west. While in the city the eastern people were guests at the hotel White Pelican.

KLAMATH COUNTY GIVEN CREDIT BY PUBLICATION

The last weekly issue of the Portland Commerce gives much credit to Klamath county and the local chamber of commerce for the manner in which they have appealed to all other civic bodies throughout the state in the stop forest fire prevention campaign. Oregon and Washington escaped with relatively light fire loss and this county is congratulated by the state chamber, who have offered their cooperation in furthering the drive.

INVITATIONS ARE OUT

The local chamber of commerce today mailed invitations to all the chamber of commerce offices in the state, all newspapers, all state officials, forest and park officials and local county and city officials, for the ceremonies to be conducted at the rim of Crater Lake next Sunday. The exercises will commemorate the discovery of the Cascades by John Wesley Hillman in 1853. The ceremonies are being conducted by the local chamber of commerce.

SPLENDID CROP
Southern People Visit Over Week end Here.

"A whaling big crop of grain," was the way S. T. Hooker of Dairy put it Saturday, when asked how the crops in the Yonna valley country were this year. "It has been the best year we have had in a long, long time and the strange thing about the whole thing is that prices are up, too. Seldom you get big crops and big prices at the same time."

Accompanied by Mrs. Tooker and Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Ramsey of Stockton, Mr. Tooker was in the city Saturday transacting business, shaking hands with friends and showing their visitors the sights. Mrs. Ramsey is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tooker.

DRAWS UP CONSTITUTION

A committee representing the Klamath County high school principals' association met Saturday to draw up a tentative constitution for the newly formed organization. At a meeting of the association next Saturday the tentative constitution will be submitted to the association for adoption.

E. R. FOUNTAIN BRINGS SUIT

Suit for the recovery of $3,028.94 alleged owed him was brought this morning in circuit court by E. R. Fountain against L. Jacobs and several other defendants. Fountain claims the money is due him on promissory notes.

JUDGE COMING SEPT. 22.

Judge Percy R. Kelley of Salem will arrive in Klamath Falls on September 22 to preside at the trial of State of Oregon vs. E. L. Elliott, district attorney, charged with malfeasance in office. Judge Leavitt announced this morning from the bench. Judge Kelley was appointed to preside at the Elliott trial when an affidavit of prejudice filed against Judge Leavitt disqualified that jurist.

GET BIG DEER

After a week's hunting and fishing trip in the Point Comfort country, Paul Lambert, Tom and Bob Graham, returned last night with a three point buck, weighing 150 pounds. The three local men packed back into the mountains about 21 miles and saw plenty of bear and doe's, but consider themselves lucky to have gotten the buck.

New Ideas

In Posing, Lighting, with color effects of tones that match our wonderful new

Master Mountings
as displayed at the 1925 Photographic Convention

We are always first with new ideas.

We have these for your approval

See Our Window Display

The Reasley's Photographic Art

QUALITY
PHOTOGRAPHS
PICTURE FRAMES

ENLARGING AND TINTING
Opposite Court House—327 Main Street
Phone 39

Where's The Joy of Life

when your constitution is run down. In most cases it is entirely uncalled for. Oftentimes an examination and a little care of the teeth means the difference between good and poor health. We give free examinations.

R. D. COE, DENTISTS
(Painless, of course)

202-204 Hopka Bldg. 8th and Main Phone 836

At The LIBERTY

The Red-Blooded Picture of the Year!
Knockout"
starring Milton Sills.

Tuesday
Richard Barthelmess in
"The "New Toys"