

NEW YORK COPS STAGE BIG RAID AMONG CHINESE

More than 500 Orientals Arrested as Result of Tong War Activities

WHITE WIVES FOUND Weeding Out Undesirables Continues in Spite of New Peace Pact

NEW YORK, Sept. 15. (AP)—All night activities by federal authorities in their round-up of suspected undesirables in Chinatown, which netted a total of 500 Chinese, resulted today in 134 being sent to Tombs prison to await removal to Ellis Island for deportation.

Dozens of the suspects were found with white women who said they were the men's wives.

Chinatown was wildly excited throughout the night as federal authorities rounded up suspects singly and in groups, taking them to the federal building for questioning.

The round-up unprecedented in its extent, came within a few hours after leaders of the On Leong and Hip Sing gangs had signed a peace treaty calling for a truce in the long war fare which has caused the death of a dozen tongmen within the last few weeks. Federal officials have announced their determination of weeding out every Chinese who remained in this city in violation of the constitution act.

Most of the men held for deportation proceedings today were seamen who had overstayed their leaves.

The Hip Sing club room in Pell street was one of the places raided.

I was pitched onto and dragged out of the restaurant although I offered to go unsupported."

Autoist Slain Near Salem By State Officer

C. P. Talent Kills Man Fleeing In Stolen Car

ALBANY, Ore., Sept. 15. — Ed Lousignont was fatally shot shortly before noon today by Traffic Officer C. P. Talent as the former in company with a woman, was fleeing from the officer in an automobile about two miles from Jefferson. He died shortly after being taken to Jefferson for medical attention.

The woman gave her name as Genia Owens, formerly of Troy, Mont., but said her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Owens, resided in Cle Elum, Wash., to which place they moved two weeks ago.

Officer Talent told District Attorney L. G. Lewelling of Linn county that he did not intend to kill the man, but was trying to send a bullet through the windshield of his car when the man had ignored several shots fired in the air in an effort to halt the car.

COUNCIL LISTENS BUT REFUSES TO ACT ON STREETS

Stormy Session Held Before City Fathers; Over Street Vacation

CRISTIE VS. LORENZ

Kuykendall Claims Best Interest is to Vacate and Allow Expansion

Stormy petrels added a touch of Shakespearean dramatics to the street vacation hearing before the city council last night, but to no avail. Instead of passing on the big subject the council retired temporarily behind a "take it under advisement" screen.

The hearing last night was to have been the last to determine whether or not approximately six blocks and seven alleys should be closed to allow the Lorenz heating company and lumber companies room for industrial expansion.

H. E. Cristie demanded that his name be withdrawn from a petition supporting the street vacation, on the ground that the facts had been misrepresented by the Lorenz interests. His general indictment of the Lorenz heating plant as a public nuisance was interrupted by G. C. Lorenz.

"You have crabbed at us because of the heating plant for a long time," he asserted. "Now that we are trying to do our best to rectify the condition, you do all you can to stop us."

JURY TO PROBE ALLEGED BRIBE GIVEN SHERIFF

Chicago Newspaper Says $60,000 Pot Was Raised By Rich Bootlegger

OFFICERS INVOLVED Federal Probers Begin Inquiry into Immunity Purchased by Prisoners

CHICAGO, Sept. 15. (AP)—The Chicago Herald and Examiner says a $60,000 fund was raised to buy freedom for Terry Druggan, wealthy beer runner, whose immunity from the usual county jail discipline has started a federal grand jury inquiry.

The newspaper says the money was to purchase privileges for Druggan, including the right to conduct his beer business in his cell, frequent trips outside for parties around town, hunting trips and finally to shorten his term of one year for contempt of federal court to the extreme minimum.

The "jackpot" was to be split five ways, the newspaper continues, three men were to get $10,000 each and the other $30,000 was to be split by two men, but one "double crossed" the other, and kept it all.

Summons to appear before the grand jury have been issued for Sheriff Peter Hoffman, Wesley Westbrook, and Thomas Brockmeyer, both former wardens removed when it was found Druggan had been permitted to leave the jail on numerous occasions. The jurors will question Druggan, as well as Frank Lane, his partner, also sentenced for one year and secretly released two months before his term expired.

Lee Craft Is Given Job Of Sanitary Cop

Dr. Lamb Tells Story Of No Police Cooperation

Lee Craft was appointed sanitary officer of Klamath Falls by Mayor Fred R. Goddard, last night. His appointment was confirmed by the council and he will start in on his duties at once.

His appointment followed a clear statement of facts concerning the sanitary situation, by Dr. E. D. Lamb, who resigned as deputy state dairy and food commissioner last week, but whose resignation was not accepted by the council.

"If you can give me a sanitary officer who will be primarily a sanitary officer and secondarily a patrolman, I will continue my sanitary work," he said.

Dr. Lamb recounted to the council how he had been refused the cooperation of the police department in regard to a sanitary inspector, since the first of the year. "The sanitary conditions in this town are rotten, the worst they have been in the five years I have known anything about it. There is a definite need for dairy inspections. The ratings of the dairies are published each month in the newspapers, and the public can see in black and white what each dairy is rated. As a result each dairy, when inspections are carried on, strives to keep its place as clean as possible. When there are no inspections, they tend to let things go."

"I must have absolute cooperation of the police department before I can proceed with the work," he explained.

On the question of whether or not the sanitary officer should be utilized as a city patrolman during the hours he is not working on his sanitary duties, the mayor and council disagreed. The mayor held that the sanitary officer should be working for the health of the city all his time and that a part time officer would be of little help to the police department.

Goddard Sees Hand Of S. P. In Spur Line

Resolution Granting Extension Up Lake Vetoed

The attempt to secure an industrial spur from the Ewanna Box company along the shore of Ewanna Lake, 5000 feet to Payne alley, is but a subterfuge by which one railroad company would gain a right of way without common user.

On the above ground, Mayor Goddard vetoed the resolution granting to F. Hill Hunter the permission to build the road. The mayor, in his message, stated that he would veto all railroad grants if they did not carry common user clauses. He pointed out that the Southern Pacific, if the resolution were adopted, would have a right-of-way without common user to its property across Link river.

Still another railroad veto was read, one that vetoed the granting of a time extension to the Oregon (Continued on Page Five)

SPROULE PLAYS ANOTHER TRUMP IN RAIL FIGHT

Tule Lake to Get Through Line if Northern Roads Are Shut Out

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE Connection with Central Pacific in Nevada Outlined by S. P. Chief

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15. (AP)—President Wm. Sproule of the Southern Pacific company, announced today that the through line from Klamath Falls to the east will run through Tule Lake, on the border-line of Siskiyou and Modoc counties in California, to a connection with the Nevada-California Oregon Railroad, which will be standard gauged. The new line will connect with the Central Pacific main line in Nevada.

"This route has been chosen because it affords the shortest main line service from southern Oregon and northern California to the east via Ogden, with a low grade line," Mr. Sproule said. "It will cut the present distance from Klamath Falls via Ogden to all eastern points subsequently in excess of 200 miles. It will be substantially 200 miles shorter to St. Louis, Chicago, Omaha or Kansas City than the proposed northern line route, via Bend, Oregon."

Not Enough Traffic

"There is not enough traffic, existing or potential, to support the proposed extension of the Northern lines from Bend to Klamath Falls in addition to our own comprehensive lines and this fact is of first consequence to us."

"These plans as announced look toward the support of revenue derived from hauling the traffic of the mills either established or to be built upon our lines or on the lines of the Oregon California and Eastern railway and by such mills as may be established on the N. C. O. Railway by extensions into the basins tributary on the one hand to Klamath Falls and on the other to Lakeview as the demand for logs and lumber makes reasonable."

The Usual Catch

"Our traffic resources rest not only upon the industries on our lines, but upon the raw materials that will feed and maintain such industries."

The pistols were used by Watson and Ward. Watson was under sentence of 90 days in jail. While serving this sentence, he was shot in attempting to escape from a stockade near the city. He was then brought into the jail. Ward was under sentence of 25 to 30 years in the state penitentiary for a previous attempt to hold-up the Bothell bank.

The physicians and a jailer entered a part of the jail called tank number 2, to give medical attention to a prisoner. Confronted by the pistols and the knife, the doctor and the keeper went into a cell, in which the six prisoners fastened them.

Coolidge Defends Secretary Work In Reclamation Fight

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15. (AP)—Congress and not the interior department is to blame in the opinion of President Coolidge, because relief has not been afforded settlers on some reclamation projects in the west.

Secretary Work, whose administration has been attacked in some quarters, is held by the president to be merely carrying out the law as he sees it.

Published reports from Boise, Idaho, recently gave said that a number of western senators, dissatisfied with reclamation policies, would urge the president to remove Secretary Work. Senator Borah, republican, of Idaho, has an engagement with the president at which the general policy of the interior department is expected to provide a subject for discussion.

Jack Holt To Come Here In Spring, 1926

Paramount Pictures Corporation to Shoot Scenes Here

Jack Holt, Paramount movie star, is coming back to Klamath. Plans are now being formulated by the Paramount Pictures corporation to shoot scenes in southern Klamath for a western picture.

The former Klamath rancher so told J. A. Gordon, president of the First National bank, when Gordon met him in San Francisco.

Holt's former residence in Klamath county, about 12 years ago, makes him the logical candidate for the lead part in the movie drama which will have the wild lava bed country near Mallin as a back ground.

Holt explained to Mr. Gordon that it was planned to shoot most of the scenes on the ranch of J. Frank Adams and to utilize the wild horses the Merrill rancher has on his ranch for the picture.

Holt was a familiar character of Klamath a decade ago, long before he even thought of breaking into the movie pictures. He managed a hog ranch for Jack Morrell, wealthy capitalist, which was located 8 miles south of Klamath Falls. When Morrell disposed of his property in Klamath, Holt drifted down to California. His success in the movies since then is common knowledge.

With other youngsters enroute to the Central school, the Merryman lad had started to cross Eleventh street and had come out from behind an auto parked near the Union Oil station, when Miss McQueen, turning onto Eleventh from Main, ran into him before she could apply the brakes.

Returning over the Green Springs road about eight o'clock last night, a doe jumped from the high embankment on the side of the road directly in front of the car, and before Crump could put on the brakes, it was crushed beneath the wheels. The animal was brought to Medford and presented to the county poor farm.

BARCLAY CAUGHT IN NEIGHBORING CITY YESTERDAY

Jail Escape Finally Caught After Sensational Escapes From Jails

LARCENY IS CHARGED Sheriff Yancey of Crook County Effects Capture of Elusive Indian

Silas Barclay, elusive Indian who escaped 6 months ago from the county jail, is captured. He was arrested yesterday afternoon in Prineville by Sheriff Yancey, according to a long distance telephone call received here this morning by Sheriff Burt Hawkins.

It was just a piece of luck that the jail escape was apprehended. Sheriff Yancey caught Barclay in company with a man who was suspected of having committed larceny. He found that Barclay had in his possession a saddle which had been stolen from a store in Alturas two weeks ago.

Just what will be done with Barclay could not be learned. He has a long term to serve out in this county on a liquor charge, but also must answer for a charge of larceny in Alturas.

Barclay, with Louis Knight effected an escape from the county jail by sliding down an improvised blanket rope one night. A comprehensive search was instituted not only because of the escape but because Knight and Barclay were wanted for questioning in connection with the death of Freddie Jackson, who fell from his horse on the streets of Chiloquin and died from a fractured skull.

Twice Barclay was captured only to escape again. Once at Chiloquin he was caught in a cabin, but distracted the attention of the officers long enough to make a successful break for liberty. Again the fugitive was captured at Copco only to slip out of the flimsy jail several hours later.

Knight, his companion, gave himself up to authorities when he was informed of suspicions directed toward him and Barclay in connection with Jackson's death.

Lived Like Coyote
Barclay, for months after his escape, lived in the woods like a coyote, it was learned. When hunger and privation rendered it necessary he would call at the homes of friends. It was during these several visits that he was arrested.

Alturas authorities will press a charge of larceny against Barclay, it was learned. Besides merchandise, the burglar took approximately $80 in cash.
