

Why the Label Sewed in Your Coat

WEARERS of clothes bearing this label are proud of it. You know them for you can pick them out of the crowd of well dressed men.

THIS label is put into every suit made by Hart Schaffner & Marx as an evidence of good faith, too, it is a mark of distinction significant of the nobleman's private seal.

IT IS for your protection, for your guarantee of satisfaction. Few men out of sincerity would ever think of tearing it out. Demand it when you buy your next suit of clothes.

Notice: We will Close until 5:30 Tomorrow, in Observance of a Jewish Holiday.

To Correct A MOST FALSE RUMOR

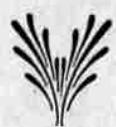

we are not now nor never have purchased milk or cream from Schulmier Miller Hill Dairy. Neither has any milk from the Schulmier Dairy ever been brought into our creamery.

Our bottled milk comes from the dairies of Clyde Bradley and C. W. Lewis, for their ratings call the city health authorities.

In our fully equipped modern plant every precaution to constantly safeguard our hundreds of customers is taken.

At this time we want to extend a special invitation to everyone to come and inspect our plant and see first hand how our milk is handled.

Fall Opening Saturday, Sept. 19

Interpreting the Paris modes in the apparel we have selected for fall, we offer you those costumes which will be worn by the fashionable world throughout the season. The lines of the garments, their trimmings and colors, are as Paris designed them, and every one knows that what Paris says is right.

The accessories are correct, and in saying that, we say all, because chic depends so much upon their being smart. Throughout the Women's Store all that is governed by fashion is new. The beauty and quality of the new arrivals in coats, dresses and dress materials make this a brilliant opening and forecast of the season to come.

Tonight at 7:30 our show windows will be unveiled

Revealing new and authentic Autumn Fashions before window settings of rare beauty which have been prepared especially for this gala occasion.
