At The LIBERTY

Dainty Shirley Mason stars in "The Scarlet Honeymoon"

Saturday

A peach of a prize light story is "The Battling Fool" with Bill Faibanks and Eva Novak starring.

Sunday

A story you will love. It's James A. Hearne's rugged New England tale

"Hearts of Oak"

which was one of the greatest stage successes a few years back. Hobart Bosworth has the leading role and is supported by a capable cast.

PINE TREE Theatre

On the Stage

An excellent crook story is

"On Thin Ice"

It is a story of San Francisco's underworld by Darryl Francis Zanuck and directed by Mal St. Clair, the author and director who made "Find Your Man" here last summer.

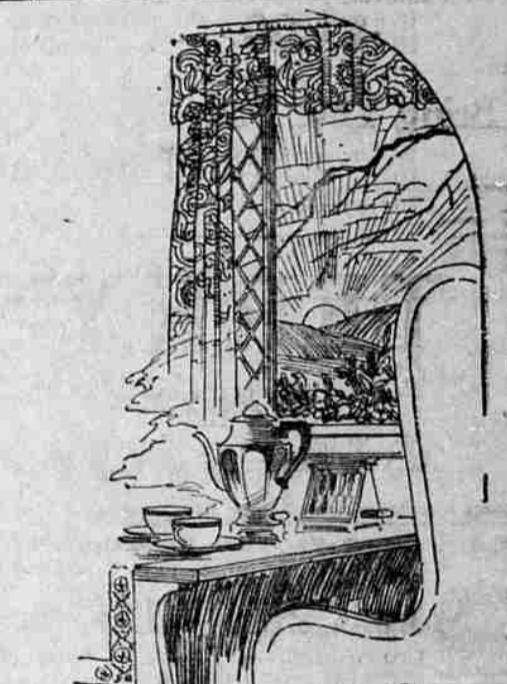

Final showing tonight

On the Screen

We present for the last time "The Royal Kherassan Quartet" of Portland. These clever young men can sing—the comments last evening were numerous and all favorable and personally we think it the best we ever played.
