ST. LOUIS AND TIGERS BATTLE
FOR 3RD PLACE

NEW YORK, Sept. 26. (P)—The possibility of Detroit and St. Louis settling their long and bitterly contested American league struggle for third place in the closing series of the schedule between the two teams loomed strongly today.

The margin of two and one half games which separated the third place Browns from the Tigers at the close of play last week, remained unchanged today as each club yesterday received its fourth victory in six starts this week. With both teams hitting hard and getting fair pitching, interest of fans in the two cities has begun to center on a three game battle next week in St. Louis, where Ty Cobb will lead his cohorts against the men of Sister, October 1, 2 and 3, in a final drive to dislodge the Browns.

Rallying in the eighth to tie the score and in the ninth to win by a single run, 4 to 3, the Browns yesterday profited by the good pitching of Dixie Davis to defeat the champion Senators. Detroit's easy victory over the Boston Red Sox was a triumph of heavy hitting, 10 to 5, Manush and Hellmann leading the assault with three hits apiece.

A six run spurt in the eighth frame gave the Cleveland Indians a 9 to 5 verdict over the Athletics, while in the only national league game the retreating Brooklyn Robins dropped their twelfth straight to Cincinnati as the Reds tanned off a withering salvo of nineteen safe blows for an 18-7 triumph.

La Vogue Store Now
At Eighth and Main

The La Vogue store began its fall opening this morning in its new location at Eighth and Main, in the building formerly occupied by the Houston and Phelps grocery store.

In addition to a new line of women's wearing apparel, M. I. Blotcky, owner of the store, announces that one side of the store room will be devoted to a grocery store on a serve-yourself plan, containing nothing but package goods.

Following out this closing out sale in his old location of the La Vogue store, Blotcky purchased the stock of the defunct grocery store where he conducted a sale. He states he now has a new and complete line of women's apparel as well as package goods in the grocery line for his new store.

Fringe Takes All
Blame for Charge
Of Having Liquor

"Buck" Fringe whitewashed Ray Parker and J. F. Reynolds and took a fine of $150 on a charge of possession of intoxicating liquor it became known today.

Fringe, Parker and Reynolds were arrested early this week on a charge of possession of intoxicating liquor following a raid on the "Two Mile house" located just west of Klamath Falls. A small bottle of moonshine was confiscated as evidence and officers reported that before they could gain entrance a large quantity of liquor had been poured down a six foot funnel to the ground underneath the house.

Fringe paid the fine and Parker and Reynolds were released from jail.
