SIMMONS GETS CUP

"Buckshot" Simmons is the proudest deer hunter in Jackson county, he having killed the largest black-tail deer in southern Oregon this year, or perhaps in its history. For this feat he was awarded a silver loving cup, donated by Young's Hardware store for this purpose, on which will be engraved his name, weight of the deer and when and where killed.

Buckshot's animal weighed approximately 297 pounds and had five points on one horn and four on the other. It was killed Friday, Sept. 4, on Parker mountain in the Green Spring country near the boundary of Klamath and Jackson counties.

On this hunt he was accompanied by his wife and uncle, E. B. Morris, accompanied by his wife. The hunt which lasted four days, also netted Mr. Morris a three point buck.

Only two other deer were entered in competition for the cup, one being entered by Chauncey Flory, weight 187 1/2 pounds, killed in the Butte Creek country, and the other by P. B. Lowd, weight 147 pounds, killed in the Green Spring mountain district. There were no other entrants, due apparently to the impression Buckshot's giant kill had made.

The cup he won is still on display at the hardware store where it is attracting much attention.—Medford Tribune.

FREE STATE BEING AMERICANIZED SAYS NEWSPAPER

DUBLIN.—Dropping of the Gaelic name Bri Chuallan by Bray, county Wicklow, has impelled the Irish Times to publish an attack on what it characterizes the tyranny of Irish in the schools. In spite of all the government's elaborate machinery for the Gaelicization of Ireland, the newspaper says, the Free State is being "Americanized" today with deadly swiftness and thoroughness. No compulsory attendance act is needed by the picture houses. "Day after day, night after night" the article adds "our Irish boys and girls are learning that America is a great land of luxury, wealth and adventure. How can compulsory Irish keep them at home in the face of this universal and subtle inducement? They are being educated hourly in American methods of speech and business and compulsory Irish merely will be a handicap to their progress in the new world."

BEND, Ore., Sept. 29.—With five knife wounds, one of them on his jaw, Henry McCoy, 40 year old sheep herder, is at a local hospital as the result of what he terms a "grudge fight". Much improved in health this morning he refused to give any explanation of the fight or to name the second party.

Bicker Over Sub Disaster Causes Fight; Man Hurt

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 30.—As the result of an argument over the question whether the men in the sunken submarine S-51 were still alive, Charles Davis, logger, is in a hospital here with ax cuts on his left arm and leg and back, and police and the sheriff of Wallowa county, Washington, are looking for Lawrence Kinstrup, 26, logger, of Cathlamet, Washington, with a warrant charging attempted murder. Officers who brought Davis here by steamer from Cathlamet which is on the lower Columbia river, reported that after Davis had read an account of the sinking of the S-51 he declared his belief that the men aboard were still alive. Kinstrup disputed with him, and seized an ax, aiming a blow at Davis who was lying on a bunk. Davis attempted to ward off a blow and received an eight inch gash in his arm, and two more blows were inflicted before other loggers intervened. Kinstrup broke away and fled into the brush.
