

WET CANDIDATE WINS IN MASS.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 30.—(AP)—The election of Henry L. Bowles, republican of this city over his democratic opponent, Roland D. Sawyer, of Ware, from President Coolidge's home district adds to the ranks of the wets in the national house of representatives. Bowles' election yesterday came after assertion by him that he believed the 18th amendment had no place in the constitution and assurance that he would work for any change in the existing machinery for prohibition enforcement which would add to "temperance, contentment and respect for law."

LOCAL BOY LEAVING

Glenn Moore is leaving Thursday morning for the Bay cities to continue with his school studies. Moore is a member of the Delta Sigma Chi.

At the PINE TREE

An amusing presentation of the old time "One Ring Circus" was given at the Pine Tree last evening and will be repeated again this evening. The Morris Troupe of trained animals are surely clever and their stunts testify to the patience and perseverance of their trainer. They do all the old animal tricks and some that are new and interesting. Grown-ups as well as loud at their antics. They will be at the Pine Tree for the last time tonight.

The feature picture, "The Snob," is as entertaining a film as has flashed across the screen this season. It stars John Gilbert as the "Snob" with beautiful Norma Shearer as the wife. Conrad Nagel, Phyllis Haver and Hedda Hopper are in the supporting cast.

Tomorrow night the regular weekly vaudeville bill will be presented. Hanvarr & Lee as "The Golfer and the Maid," Sandy Morrison as "Dan D. Lyon," Lane and Louise in "Horning In," Kennedy & Nelson with "Songs and Patter," and the Lupe Trio, Equilibrists, will present a very good program that will rank with the fame of the feature picture "The Wife of the Centaur."

At The LIBERTY

How many thrills can be crammed into one play?

The answer can be seen at the Liberty Theatre, where "The Circus Cyclone" Art Acord's sensational new production, is now playing.

The cyclonic Western hero, perhaps the world's greatest stunt rider and acknowledged the world's champion broncho rider at the Pendleton Roundup.

SUES FOR WAGES

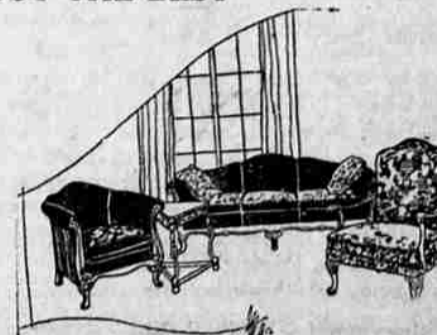

J. W. Jaques is plaintiff in a suit for wages filed in circuit court today against Dr. J. G. Patterson. The plaintiff claims $269.95 is yet due him for farm work performed for the defendant from July to September of this year.

Wintrop's wedding plans were cancelled with his arrest. The trip to Pasadena today under custody of officers was for further investigation of charges against him.

Crescent Affair

BEND, Ore., Sept. 30.—No post-office money was included in the $428 which Robert A. Wintrop, now under arrest in Pasadena, California, is charged with having taken from F. M. Cleaves, postmaster and general merchant of Crescent, Klamath county.

Wintrop had been employed for about a year on the Natron Cut-off construction as a civil engineer in charge of concrete construction work. Cleaves said in a long distance telephone conversation today. Between jobs he planned a trip to Bend to have dental work done, Cleaves says, and before leaving asked if he could do any errands for Cleaves in Bend. The postmaster made up a deposit of $428 and put it in an envelope for Wintrop to take to the bank. A check for $100 was made out to Wintrop's order by Cleaves which was to be cashed and the change returned to Cleaves. Wintrop is alleged to have taken all of the money.

Lived on Fifth Avenue

Wintrop told Cleaves, where he frequently visited with other engineers on the project, that his mother lived on Fifth Avenue, New York, but that they had a winter home in Hollywood, California. But he told other stories, Cleaves says, he has since found out. The information carried in some news dispatches last week that Wintrop had admitted having a wife in the east was news to Cleaves. He said this morning that Wintrop had never intimated in any way that he was married.
