PEOPLE WARNED NOT TO EAT DUCKS

Tule Lake Birds Are Poisonous

Dread Malady, Botulinus, Is Feared by Officer

Klamath county residents were warned this afternoon by Dr. G. S. Newsom, county health officer, to refrain from eating ducks killed on the lower marshes, and particularly in the Tule Lake country.

There is a strong suspicion that the thousands of ducks dying from some strange malady are suffering from botulinus poisoning, as an autopsy performed this afternoon gave many indications of that dread disease.

"I consider it absolutely dangerous for anybody to eat any ducks from the Tule Lake district until after a careful analysis has been made," declared Dr. Newsom this afternoon.

"Botulinus poisoning is absolutely fatal, and until we are certain of the malady which is causing the death of the ducks, it is absolutely dangerous for persons to eat them."

Dr. Newsom, Game Warden Barnes and County Agent Henderson visited Tule lake where they saw thousands of the dead ducks. Some of the ducks were so sick that they were able to catch them with their hands.

KLAMATH FALLS AND ASHLAND IN CLOSE CONTEST

Local Football Team Leading Valley Boys, 6 to 0 at End of Half

GAME IS SPECTACULAR

Heavy Yardage Made by Hall and Yancey Who Go Through for Score

THIRD QUARTER

Klamath	12
Ashland	0

Klamath Falls high school was leading Ashland high 6 to 0 at the end of the first half in the first local league game of the year at the fair grounds this afternoon.

Ashland kicked off and Klamath received the ball on its own 30-yard line. Then began a steady march down the field for the first touchdown, with Hall and Yancey carrying the ball alternately for heavy gains through the line and around the ends.

It took Klamath seven first downs without a setback to score the first touchdown in the opening period of play. After the touchdown, Ashland retaliated with a beautiful passing game, completing four out of five attempted plays. But when Klamath again got the ball, it marched steadily down the field and was nearing the goal line when time was called.

In the second quarter, Klamath again outplayed the valley boys, and had the ball within two yards of Ashland's line when a fumble spoiled their chances for further scoring. A moment later the whistle called the end of the half.

The teams lined up as follows:

Klamath Falls		Ashland
Elmore	C.	Cotter
Bliss	R.G.L.	Tucker
Walsh	R.T.L.	Ferris
Barnse	R.E.L.	Gosnell
Maguire	L.G.R.	Nutter
Morgan	L.T.R.	Gillette
Colson	L.E.R.	Beeson
Cofer	Q.	Tilton
Johnson	R.H.L.	Katzer
Hall	L.H.R.	Bryant
Yancey	F.	Smith

Klamath Fans Cheer Victory Of Washington

More than 400 rabid Klamath baseball fans sighed and groaned and cheered during the spectacular Senator-Pirate game today, when the Evening Herald's Associated Press play-by-play report was announced at the Pine Tree theater.

Klamath fans are strongly in favor of the Senators, and the theater echoed a mighty cheer when Marberry stemmed the Pirate advance in the ninth inning after the bases had become loaded with only one man out.

Jack Franey announced the results like a veteran and kept the crowd keyed up to the highest pitch.

The Pirates and Senators meet in Washington again tomorrow and the Evening Herald's unexcelled service will again be offered free of charge to Klamath fans. Harry Poole, manager of the theater, has kindly consented to delay his afternoon matinee until 1:30 p. m. in order that the fans can get these results direct from the playing field.

TOM MURRAY TO HAVE CONVICTS FOR WITNESSES

Prosecution Nearly Through Its Case Against Slayer of Prison Guards

TO READ CONFESSION

Statement Made by Prisoner to Charles Newman Will be Offered Today

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 10.—The prosecution, with the exception of picking up a few loose ends and weaving them into its net of evidence, had practically completed its case in the trial of Tom Murray, convict, for the slaying of Guard James Holman in the prison break of August 12 at the state penitentiary when court adjourned last night.

It had, through the testimony of witnesses, presented to the jury evidence that Sweeney had been killed by a bullet from a 32-20 revolver fired from behind an oak tree in the front yard of the prison; that Murray had been seen by at least three eye witnesses of the shooting to have stood behind this tree and fired into the guard tower in which Sweeney was killed with a revolver, and that Murray had admitted in a signed statement dictated to Chas. Newman of New Era that in the event Sweeney had been killed by a 32-20 bullet he (Murray) killed him.

Eight More Witnesses

Today the state had only eight witnesses left to call to the stand, all of them minor witnesses with the exception of Charles Pilling, Centralia, who was instrumental in the capture of Murray, Bob Craddock, of the Portland police department, Donnegan Wiggins, gun expert, and Miss Blanche F. Barrett, court reporter, who reported an alleged voluntary statement made to District Attorney John H. Carson by Murray to the effect that if Sweeney was killed by a 32-20 pistol bullet, then he, Murray, fired the shot that killed him.

By stipulation agreed to overnight the defense was this morning granted permission to subpoena three convicts from the state prison as witnesses in the case. The three are Frank Fallon, Dale Arthur and Charles Willis, whom, the defense alleges, were in a position on the night of the break to view all of the shooting that went on in the front yard to tell a complete story of what happened.

Many Present At Funeral Of Baseball Idol

Christy Mathewson Is Laid To Rest In College Town

LEWISBURG, Pa., Oct. 10.—(AP)—This little college town which 23 years ago sent Christy Mathewson forth to win undying fame on the baseball diamond, today claimed him in death as its own. Sorrowing townsfolk set aside the afternoon to accompany the body to its last resting place in the little cemetery on the outskirts of the town.

It was here, as a student at Bucknell University, that the baseball idol of other years first gained fame as a pitcher.

His body accompanied by his sorrowing widow, was brought back last night from Saranac Lake, where he died Wednesday night.

Banked high with floral tributes, the body lay in state at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Frank C. Stoughton. Crowds began to gather in front of the house early in the day, and from the time the doors were opened until near the funeral hour, a steady stream of persons filed past his bier.

Thousands sent messages of condolence from all parts of the world. Flowers sent from other cities filled two baggage cars.

In accordance with the wishes of Mrs. Mathewson, the funeral services were arranged to be simple. During the services, business in Lewisburg was suspended. Flags were at half staff on the campus of Bucknell University, where Christy Mathewson, Jr., is a student, and on many business houses.

Local Fighter Given K. O. By Astoria Heavy

Earl Ritchie Loses in Fifth to Big Tiny Herman

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Oct. 10.—Earl Ritchie, Klamath heavyweight, was knocked out in the fifth round of his scheduled 10-round bout with Tiny Herman, Astoria heavy, at the armory here last night.

The Klamath giant fought a game battle against his more experienced opponent, but the ex-Astoria cop carried too many gloves for the lumberjack, and Ritchie fell to the canvas in the fourth round. The gong saved him from a knockout in that round.

When Ritchie came up for the fifth he was still groggy, and Herman made short work of him. More than 1000 fans saw the battle.

FREIGHT RATES WILL NOT RISE SAYS HALLMARK

General Freight Agent for Southern Pacific Testifies Before Mahaffie

ONE ROAD IS ENOUGH

Says His Line Will Give Same Rate East as is Now Given Bend

RESOLUTION THROWN OUT

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 10.—An attempt by the Southern Pacific company to file with the interstate commerce commission a resolution indorsing that road to the exclusion of the Oregon Trunk, failed here today when Director Mahaffie ruled against it being made a part of the record. This is the resolution which the Southern Pacific publicity department procured after a mass meeting of Merrill citizens previously had gone on record as favoring the entry of the Northern lines.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 10.—(AP)—The Klamath Falls district is in no danger of being held up for high freight rates if the Southern Pacific is allowed exclusive rights there, S. A. Hallmark of San Francisco, general freight agent of the Southern Pacific testified at the rail hearing today before Director of Finance Charles Mahaffie of the interstate commerce commission.

The rates from Klamath Falls to the east over Southern Pacific if the company is allowed to extend to a connection at Alturas, California, will be no higher than the rates from Bend east over the Northern lines, Hallmark declared.

Lakeview, Too

From Lakeview to the east, the rates will not exceed those from Klamath Falls and Bend, he said.

Hallmark argued that the Northern lines would absorb the entire freight charge by carrying lumber all the way east over their own lines whereas the Southern Pacific would divide its receipts with other lines.

"Do you think your line is entitled to an exclusive right in this territory?" queried Attorney Charles Hart, attorney for the Oregon Trunk, subsidiary of the Northern lines.

"Yes," replied Hallmark, "as long as we give a satisfactory service."

Want S. P. Only

In support of the contention that the service would satisfy, he declared that many southern pine manufacturers are moving from the south, where they have been dependent on the Southern Pacific for transportation and locating in the Klamath basin where they expect again to be served by the Southern Pacific only.

"Why do you think the Southern Pacific should make a $15,000,000 investment to aid the eastern movement of freight from the Klamath Basin," continued Hart, "when an expenditure of $6,000,000 by the Northern lines would serve the same purpose?"

Local Traffic

"It is not solely for the long haul of lumber to the east that we want to enter the territory," Hallmark replied. "Local freight and the business to come from development of the country are other considerations."

Hallmark said that his company estimated that within five years the lumber business of the Klamath

Spectacular Playing Marks 4 To 3 Victory For World Champions

Marberry Relieves Ferguson and Stems Pirate Attack in Heart-Breaking Ninth Rally; Sam Rice Makes Great Catch

GRIFFITH STADIUM, Washington, Oct. 10.—Washington won the third game of the world series from Pittsburgh today, 4 to 3, before President and Mrs. Coolidge and a crowd of 35,000 that shivered in a frigid gale. The victory gave the Senators a lead of two games to one.

Sammy Rice saved the day for the Senators when he made a spectacular running one-hand catch in the eighth on what looked like a certain home run by Smith. It was said to be the greatest catch ever made in a world series.

The game by innings:

The president, accompanied by his wife and party, arrived five minutes before the game and stood with the crowd while the navy band played the Star Spangled Banner.

Still attention with the players grouped in a semi-circle in front of the presidents box, a bugle sounded taps.

Secret service men brought a batch of robes to keep the President and Mrs. Coolidge warm.

First Inning Pittsburgh

Moore up. Ball 1. Ball 2, outside. Ball 3, high. Strike 1, called. Moore got a base on balls.

Carey up. Ball 1 low. Strike 1, called. Ball 2, high and inside. Strike 2, called.

Cuyler up. Strike 1 called. Cuyler sent up a high fly to Goslin who almost dropped the ball. It was hard to gauge it in the high wind.

Barnhart up. Ball 1 outside. Barnhart hit into a double play, Peck, Stan Harris to Judge. No runs, no hits, no errors.

First Inning Senators

Rice up. The crowd was cheering Rice. He hit the first ball and was thrown out Traynor to Grantham.

Stan Harris up. Foul, strike 1. The Senators apparently were hitting the first ball. Foul, strike 2. Harris tried to bunt. Ball 1, high and inside. Ball 2, outside. Foul. Harris sent a foul into the left field stands. Foul. Ball 3, low. Foul. Carey took in Stan Harris' fly.

Goslin up. The home folks called on Goose for a home run. Foul, strike 1. He went after a ball near his chin. Strike 2, called. Kremer worked a slow ball on Goslin.

Ball 1, outside. Ball 2. Smith claimed it was a strike. Ball 3. Goslin struck out and on a passed ball which Smith did not chase, ran clear to second base.

Judge up. Strike 1, called. The umpire called for the ball and after looking it over threw it back. The four umpires came in and had a discussion near the plate. It was then decided to send Goslin back to first being only allowed one base on the passed ball. The one strike was then withdrawn on Judge. Judge then popped to Grantham. No runs no hits and no errors.

Second Inning Pittsburgh

Traynor up. The official scorer gave Smith an error as well as a passed ball. Traynor got a three base hit to right.

Wright up. Traynor scored on Wright's sacrifice fly to Goslin.

The official scorer has now decided that Smith does not get an error.

Grantham up. Strike 1, swung. Ball 1. Ball 2, outside. Peck made a remarkable catch of Granthams pop fly.

Smith up. Peck took care of Smith's fly. One run, one hit, no errors.
