Mainly About People

HAWKINS AWAY
Sheriff Burt Hawkins is away, this time to Medford where he has been subpoenaed to testify in a civil case before the federal judge. Since the conviction of Frank Way, on a charge of manslaughter, Hawkins has been conspicuous by his absence from the court house most of the time. He took Way to Salem and was away for several days. Shortly after he took Ja Kinsey to Salem to have his eyes treated. It wasn't long after that he was called to Medford for the federal trial, and now he is again in Medford.

FRIENDS CHARIVARI COUPLE
About thirty of the younger set old friends of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Griffith, who surprised their friends by slipping away and being married in Medford Sunday, gathered at the home of Mrs. Eva Jordan last evening to congratulate the popular young folks. Carroll proved himself a regular good sport by passing out plenty of cigars and candy. Dancing was enjoyed until midnight.

BILL LEE RETURNS
Bill Lee, county assessor, has returned from Salem and Portland, with a flock of smiles. Lee is grinning happily at the enjoyable memory of the Klamath county booth at the state fair in Salem. "Never so proud in my life," he ejaculated. "The way our sports showed up and the general effect of the rays of the sun shining upon an empire awakening was effective." With C. A. Henderson and Frank Sexton, Mr. Lee had charge of the Klamath booth during the fair.

MARRIAGE LICENSE ISSUED
One of the last bits of county business accomplished by County Clerk C. R. DeLap before he closed shop Saturday afternoon for two days was to issue a marriage license to Ray Cecil Rinehart and Estel a Mary Lucombe. Miss Lucombe is a well known resident of Klamath Falls. Mr. Rinehart is connected with concrete pipe work in this city.
