

Thirteen Cars On October 13

Marj Johnston and Mrs. Leah Smith of the chamber of commerce staff were smiling thirteen different varieties of smiles today, when a check of their auto tourists records of yesterday displayed that thirteen tourists from outside states had registered their cars. Yesterday being the thirteenth day of October.

To recover your splendid vision—to get back your normal sight will stir you with enthusiasm. A scientific examination and the proper glasses are inexpensive.

Court Awards Road Contract To H. F. Vicory

Work Will Soon Start On Grading Road To Aspgrove

Within ten days a shovelful of dirt will mark the beginning of the latest county road project, grading of the road from Chiloquin to Aspgrove and before December 1 the project will be completed.

Yesterday afternoon contract for the job was let to H. F. Vicory, for $4,329.52, nearly $700 under the estimate by County Engineer Frank Z. Howard.

Mr. Vicory plans to start work on the project immediately in order that it may be completed before the heavy winter rains and snows set in.

Three other bids were received by the county court. Stebbins and Propst submitted a bid of $4890; J. A. Maddox, a bid of $4900; and J. T. Logan a bid of $5400, nearly twice the amount of Vicory's bid.

The grading job found its source in a number of petitions to the county court and arguments advanced by delegations from Chiloquin and Aspgrove. The county court investigated the proposition, found it to be necessary, and found the means to finance the job.

Mills P.-T. A. Has Enjoyable Session

A gain in membership of 92 was reported by the Mills Addition parent-teachers' association at a well attended meeting yesterday at which 92 persons were present. Mrs. Charles Thomas and Mrs. Hammell were elected delegates to the state parent-teachers' meeting in Portland the latter part of the month. Supervision of the school playground and plans for a sunset closing hour at the playground were discussed by the members. Visiting women from other school districts of the city were present.

WOMAN IS HELD IN DOVERY CASE

KELSO, Wash., Oct. 14.—(P)—Vilda Russell of Portland was being held incommunicado in the women's ward of the county jail here today under $2000 bond as a material witness in the case of the murder of Thomas Dovery, Kelso editor, who was slain June 12. Deputies in the absence of Sheriff Clarke, Studebaker refused to state what connection the woman had with the case. Apparently no effort had been made to raise a bond.
