THE SECOND WARD ELECTION

The time is not far distant when the people of the second ward will have to choose a man to represent them in the city council. It is going to be the most important election ever held in Klamath Falls, because not only is the second ward affected, but the entire city. It is to decide whether there will be votes enough in the city council to override the veto of the mayor, or whether Mayor Goddard will continue to be able to protect the rights of the people through his veto and failure of the opposition to rally votes enough to pass such measures over his veto as he may disapprove.

There is no question but that O. A. Smith is the candidate that the opposition to Mayor Goddard is backing. He will receive the support of those opposed to the coming of the Oregon Trunk, of those who are trying to steal the streets and alleys in the southern end of the second ward and those who believe in segregated districts. He is their candidate. He is also the candidate of those who are opposed to Mayor Goddard. His election will be a repudiation of the Mayor and a condemnation of the stand he has taken on those matters that have been so vital to the welfare of the city.

The election of Smith would be the hardest blow that Klamath Falls could receive, for it will place in absolute control of the affairs of the city that element that has the condemnation of ninety per cent of its citizens. While we have no fear that he will be elected, his defeat by a narrow margin would almost be as good as a victory for those he represents. His defeat should be overwhelming—so overwhelming that it will be notice to those who want to tie this city to the Southern Pacific and those seeking to steal the public thoroughfares that the day is past in Klamath Falls when such methods will be tolerated.

SOPH'S DRESS FLASHY

The Sophomore "Loud Speaker" dance which will be held in the men's gymnasium Friday night is well named. The men and women are to come in campus clothes, blazing ties, and colorful stockings. The unlucky sophomore who is unable to procure the necessary raiment will be left out in the cold.

A six piece orchestra will furnish music, and the refreshments will consist of cider and doughnuts. The decorations will be of a bright nature.—Oregon Emerald.

HOWARD TO TALK

Superintendent C. A. Howard will address the Lane County Teacher's institute at Eugene on November 13, he announced today. He has been invited to talk on education from a scientific point of view.

Mr. Howard stated that it being Friday, the thirteenth, his subject was anything but in keeping with that date. On Saturday, November 14, the Oregon and O. A. C. home coming game will be played, and he is planning to take in that game.—Coos Bay Times.

The final tryouts for the Girls' Glee Club will be held Thursday night at 7:15 at the Music building. Fifty-two girls who had passed the first tryout, appeared for the second tryout yesterday afternoon, which consisted in solo work. The following thirty-two girls are requested to be present at the third tryout tomorrow: Adelaide Johnson, Rolston, Cadwell, Howe, Bell, Palmer, Benson, Lucille Pearson, Poll, Horstall, Helma, Janet Pearce, Fashing, Mary Clark, Ulrich, Edmonds, Mackey, Hill, Hoover, Pauline Jones, Black, Wright, Barton, Biggs, Gaskill, Normie, Dolores Pearson, Young, Storka, Woodside, Carson, and Elridge.—Oregon Emerald.

BUILDING SITE CHOSEN

Construction can be started on the proposed fine arts building at the university, for the benefit of which the all-Oregon 1925 exposition was given in Portland, as soon as the fund for the first unit is completed. It is announced at the university.

Location of the structure, which is to be built from money raised by popular activity and donation, has just been announced by Ellis F. Lawrence, dean of the school of architecture and allied art. It will be situated on the southwestern part of the campus as one of the main units of the big building project planned for future years. The fine arts building is to face the proposed library, and with the memorial auditorium will form a huge court. With the end of the all-Oregon exposition, public-spirited citizens are already planning means to secure money to enable construction of the first unit.—Eugene Register.

PLANS LODGE

Zane Gray has decided to establish a fishing lodge on the Rogue River, probably at Solitude Bar, where the party stopped for more than a week because of the excellent steelhead fishing afforded at that place. This is about half way between Galice and Gold Beach. The party arrived last night at Gold Beach, having enjoyed a most successful journey down the river. They left this morning for Los Angeles, taking the coast route south.

On the entire trip down the river, on which they spent 37 days, they did not get their bedding wet once, although they did lose one boat. They had plenty of good steelhead fishing and had fresh meat in camp all the time. —Clara Barton, who acted as head guide, will be home tomorrow by stage. He reports by telephone that every member of the party got through safely and in fine health.

In the party were the following: Zane Gray, head of the delegation, and his son, Homer; Capt. Mitchell of the Royal British troops, stationed at Nova Scotia, and Mrs. Mitchell; Miss Mildred Smith, Ed. Downer, Kenneth Roberts, all from Altadena, California, and the cook, Geo. Tackahasha, and Mr. Barton and his partner, D. Van Doren.—Grants Pass Courier.

PIONEER PARTY PLANNED

The McKenzie Pioneers at their meeting at the Congregational church last night voted to stage a party with the Whitman Pioneers at the Y. M. C. A. on Halloween and appointed committees as follows: Fred Falls, Clay Baxter, and Bob Biddle, on entertainment; Ray Woods, Melvin Hargreaves and Bob Ades on arrangements and Elden Woodin, Herbert Simmons and Bailey Neal on refreshments.

It was also voted to form a camera club as there is considerable interest manifested among the boys in photography.

Indoor baseball practice will be started at once and the first game to be participated in by the McKenzies will be played at the Y. M. C. A. a week from Saturday night.

The boys enjoyed a "feed" and stunts during the evening.—Eugene Register.
