Martin Moves for Dismissal of Suit

That the allegations of paragraphs one, two, three and four of the divorce complaint of Mrs. Pearl G. Martin are not supported by facts and that the complaint should be dismissed, is the contention of J. H. Martin, local business man, who is defendant in a divorce suit. Motion for dismissal of the case was filed this morning.

HOLLYWOOD.—There are just 7 varieties of jokes, says Robert G. Vignola, motion picture director. They are the fall joke, blow joke, cheat joke, mimicry joke, surprise joke, dumb joke, and the expressive joy joke.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN MEET

Mrs. E. L. Cramblitt To Give Talk to Club at Jones Home Monday

At the home of Mrs. Wilbur Jones on Second and High, members of the American association of University Women will meet on Monday evening for the second meeting of the fall and winter months. The early part of the evening will be devoted to a business meeting, followed by a discussion by Mrs. E. L. Cramblitt.

The discussion gives promise of being most interesting as Mrs. Cramblitt has chosen China and the United States as her subject. She will dwell much on the Washington conference.

LONDON.—John Ruskin's home, "Brantwood House," Coniston, Lancashire, where the poet lived for 25 years and died in 1900, is to be sold. In 1885, by deed of gift, Ruskin made over his house and contents to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Severn, "praying them never to sell the estate of Brantwood, nor to let any portion of it upon building lease." He also requested that they "accord during 30 consecutive days in each year such permission to strangers to see the house and pictures as I have done in my lifetime."

A New Group of Afternoon and Street Dresses $19.50

Group buying gives us a better advantage than the chain stores. This group of beautiful dresses was bought by the Northern Jobbing Co., an association of 1000 merchants of which this store is a member. It makes it possible for us to sell these wonderfully rich frocks developed from Silk, Wool, Charmien, Balbriggan and Satin back crepe, at such a very low price. Every model is a copy of what is exactly right in Paris and New York. The trimmings are splendidly done and ones you see on much higher priced frocks. A wide range of the most desirable shades are represented. Don't forget that they are marked to sell for $19.50

Slip-on Sweaters $2.95
Values to $8.50

On the campus, at the office, or on the street, they are popular. The materials are unusually attractive and the color schemes are orange, tan green, blues, and a bevy of lovely checks—all sizes are represented.

Shadow Proof $2.50
Rayon Slips

These are of a beautiful quality Rayon with side pleats for fullness, and are excellent foundations for any of the new frocks. Shades of black, blue, tan, gray, orchid, green, etc. Select the shade to match your dress.
