

Dinner Out? Why Not?

Give your family a real treat Sunday by giving them a delicious dinner prepared by

Wm. Webber Chef Extraordinary at the Club Cafe

Jack Hershberger, Proprietor

MAINLY ABOUT PEOPLE

ALGOMA CALLER W. E. Edwards of Algoma is transacting business affairs here today.

OVER FOR GAME Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jerome of Medford motored over this afternoon to attend the football game.

MCDONALD HERE Paul McDonald, one of Medford's well known residents is in Klamath Falls today to attend the football game between Medford and Klamath Falls high.

ENTOMOLOGISTS HERE Charles W. King, J. Patterson and V. G. O'Neill who spend a great portion of their time in the timber lands of this section are among the guests at the Hotel Arcade today. Mr. King claims Tennant as his residence while J. Patterson and V. G. O'Neill are from Ashland.

HIRVI GETS DEER Jack Hirvi has returned from a most successful deer hunt in the Langell Valley country, bringing back a three point deer weighing in the neighborhood of 250 pounds and another good sized deer, a two pointer. Both are on display at a local market.

HOFBERGER RETURNS R. D. Hofberger of the L. U. Menefee Lumber company of Portland, who for several days has been transacting business matters for his company in the Lakeview country returned for a brief period to Klamath Falls, Friday. This forenoon with his cousin Jake Steiger, he again returned to Lakeview where they will remain for about a week. They plan to enjoy a deer hunt while away this time.

SOL DEWEY HERE Hardly a Saturday in the summer and fall passes without the face of Sol Dewey Jr. being seen on the main street of Klamath Falls. Mr. Dewey, who is a rancher of the Loretta district, is in town today for business purposes and while here will purchase supplies for his ranch. He is at the Hall hotel.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN The Parrot-Lewis revival campaign, which was conducted in the big tent tabernacle, closed last Monday night. Thousands attended. Great interest was awakened, not only in this city, but adjacent towns and communities were reached effectively.

At the urgent request of so many who are interested in the permanence of this work in Klamath Falls, Evangelist Lewis has consented to return from Los Angeles, and direct the work in the capacity of Evangelist-Pastor. Mr. Lewis is now in the city and will conduct the services in the Pelican Theatre Sunday.

JIMMY LEAR BACK After suffering with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism for the past ten days, Jimmy Lear has recovered and is today back at his position with the Golden Rule store.

C. S. WEATHER REPORT OREGON:—Cloudy tonight and Sunday, probably rain in west portion, moderate temperature, increasing southeasterly winds.

The Cyclo-Stormograph at Underwood's Pharmacy shows the barometric pressure to be maintaining a comparatively high level and another fine day is indicated tomorrow. Forecast for next 24 hours: Fair with moderate temperatures.

The Tyros recording thermometer registered maximum and minimum temperatures today as follows: High 69; low 27.

WANT TO LOCATE HERE Ray Thibodeau and H. A. O'Brien of Missoula, Montana, arrived in Klamath Falls this morning, making the trip from Montana by motor. The men are hoping to find a business opening in this city in which even they will locate here permanently.

TO VISIT FATHER The Misses Marj and Anna Mae Johnston, in company with Mrs. Arthur Hoyt and Miss Vera Houston motored this afternoon to the Pelican bay camp to spend the week-end with Mr. Johnson, father of the Johnston sisters.

REGISTRATIONS TODAY Two motorists from Missoula, Montana, Ray Thibodeau and H. A. O'Brien were the first to register at the chamber of commerce this morning. Earl Warren of Alameda, California, A. B. McDonald of Dorris, California, J. W. Kelly of Wiljows, California and Fred L. Andrews of Glendale, California, all registered before three o'clock this afternoon.

BACK FROM SPRAGUE Charles Horton, who is a resident of Dorris, returned last night from Sprague river where he has been interviewing cattle men. For Mr. Horton is a cattle buyer and is a frequent visitor in this county to look into the cattle market.

ARTHUR HAY VISITS Ten years ago, when Klamath Falls was a smaller community, and comparatively isolated by reason of being at the end of a branch line and off the main current of travel and commerce, Arthur D. Hay practiced law in this city. He was well known and worked up a good practice. He later moved 100 miles east to Lakeview and has since been engaged in the practice of law in that city. He is now district attorney of Lake county. Last night, accompanied by Mrs. Hay, he arrived in Klamath Falls to spend several days visiting with his many friends here. He is stopping at the Hall hotel.

FOREST SUPERVISOR HERE The responsibility of a forest rests upon the shoulders of Gilbert D. Brown, forest supervisor of the Fremont national forest. Mr. Brown arrived in Klamath Falls last night from his headquarters in Lakeview to transact government business. Fires in the Fremont national forest were singularly scarce last fire season, even as scarce as they were in Klamath forests. Mr. Brown is registered at the Hall hotel and will be here for a day or so to call on timber owners.

NEW NAME ON REGISTERS "Pineridge" for the first time since residents of Asgrove, a lumber settlement on the Williamson river, discarded that name and took unto themselves the new name of Pineridge, the new appellation was seen on the hotel register. B. W. Smith and his son arrived last night from Pineridge and after his name on the register he so stated. Habit is a strong master, and Smith is the first resident of the lumber community to remember when he is signing a hotel register, that Asgrove—grove of the Asps—is a thing of the past. Smith is an employe of the Forest Lumber company.

PINE TREE Theatre Today only we present a most brilliant Comedy Drama, called "The Teaser" It features Laura La Plante supported by a big cast of excellent players. This is a picture made entirely for fun—you'll say so too, when you see it. Tonight Only. Sunday Special A New York Cop is the role Milton Sills plays in newest starring vehicle. "The Making Of O'Malley" It's a bang up drama of today with this popular star playing a part to which he is admirably suited. The Show Will Be Continuous Sunday.

At The LIBERTY Playing Today Only That Popular Western Star Jack Hoxie in "Bustin' Through" It's a typical Jack Hoxie production—'nuff said. Sunday Special Attraction Comes the Great and Only Hoot Gibson starring in his latest and very best production. "The Spook Ranch" This is a picture that every lover of the lovable Hoot will want to see—its rapid action also, and Hoot Gibson was never cast in a better role. The show starts at 1 o'clock and runs continuously.

MRS. W. O. SMITH HOME After an enjoyable two weeks visit to Klamath Falls, F. A. Hutto, sub-agent of the Klamath Indian reservation, with his headquarters at Sprague river, arrived here last night and put up at the Hall hotel.

F. A. HUTTO HERE On one of his regular weekly trips to Klamath Falls, F. A. Hutto, sub-agent of the Klamath Indian reservation, with his headquarters at Sprague river, arrived here last night and put up at the Hall hotel.

HILL MILITARY ACADEMY for MANLY BOYS PORTLAND, OREGON Men teachers, small classes, careful supervision, strict discipline, social advantages and moral training. Catalogue cheerfully sent on request.

SMITHS HAVE NEW CAR One of the smartest looking cars to be found upon the streets today is the new Chrysler brought here by Mr. and Mrs. Willard Smith have purchased. The model is the latest put out by the Chrysler people and is upholstered in pearl grey mohair to match the paint job.

DIVORCE GRANTED Mrs. Pearl Martin won a divorce from J. H. Martin in a decree yesterday by Judge Leavitt.

CORPENINGS HAVE GUESTS Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Corpening of Oleno have as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. George Marsteller of Westport, Oregon, and Mr. William A. Markley of Brown Slough.

WOODCOCK IN TOWN Probably the memory of the trials tribulations of moving his machinery over the boggy roads of Langell valley to his mill site at the foot of Bryant mountain, still haunts O. A. Woodcock in his sleep. Mr. Woodcock, whose home is in Grants Pass, is the owner of the Illinois Lumber company a small mill. When he decided to construct the mill, the problem of moving the machinery over the poor roads, was one which required ingenuity. It was the boiler which gave the most trouble but finally after much fussing and discussing, it was installed. Mr. Woodcock arrived in Klamath Falls last night from Lannell valley to spend several days attending to business matters.

See the New 6 Hupmobile Six 6 Now on Display Sedan $1495 - Touring $1435 Buy No Car Till You See It 6 POSPISIL MOTOR CO. 6 Klamath Ave at Eighth Street

WHAT A DANCE? W O W When? Oct. 20th Where? Oddfellows' Hall Admission $1 WHO? Woodman, their friends and members of other orders are cordially invited. RETURNING TOMORROW Following the transaction of business here, A. L. Shoupe plans to return to Weed tomorrow, which is his home.

Anderson's Transfer and Feed Company Potatoes, Apples and other Farm Products We handle Mt. Ashland Egg Mash, "Cracked Korn" and other Poultry Supplies. Trucks for General Hauling

ADVANCES IN Wood Come without any warning. CHEAP PRICES are on now Don't be one of many who will order too late. Winter is near. Phone your orders. BLOCK WOOD is our specialty PEYTON & CO. "WOOD TO BURN" 601 Main Phone 535