Wreckage of Airmail Plane Lost Ten Days

After hundreds of people had searched for him for 10 days in the Pennsylvania mountains, the wrecked plane and dead body of Charles H. Ames, airmail pilot, were found in a dense woods on the side of Mt. Nittany, near Bellefonte, Pa. He apparently lost his bearings in a fog and crashed into the side of the mountain. The plane was found upside down with Ames still in the pilot's seat.

SILK TARIFF MAKES WOMEN SMUGGLERS MORE CAREFUL

DOVER. — Women are much keener about smuggling silk into England than they were before the passage of the recent tariff. A gown which costs $50 in Paris now carries about $35 in English duty. The same ratio prevails for lingerie and silk stockings, which can be had at a low price in France because of the exchange situation.

Laces and perfumes were the chief articles that English women would try to smuggle in from France but silk has now leaped to the fore.

Pierce Pardons Portland Tailor

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 26. — Ernest J. Elmgren, Portland tailor, pleaded guilty in circuit court to a charge of extortion and was sentenced to one year in jail, was granted a pardon by Governor Walter M. Pierce, it became known here today.

Judge Tucker, district attorney Myers and Sheriff Hurlburt said the governor's action was taken without consulting them.

Elmgren obtained a stay of execution after his sentence was imposed and in the meantime the pardon was granted. Previously Elmgren had pleaded guilty in federal court of misuse of the mails and was given a suspended sentence.

Elmgren sent threatening letters to J. P. Rasmussen, local paint dealer, demanding $2000 and stating that he would set fire to Rasmussen's property if the demand was not complied with. Rasmussen was instructed to leave the money in a box near Powell valley road, east of the city.

Hold Funeral of Oregon Student

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 26. —(P)—The body of Alfred Peyton Goss Jr., University of Oregon student, who fell to his death from the top of the Multnomah field grandstand just before the Oregon-California game last Saturday, is to be borne to its final resting place in Riverview cemetery this afternoon by fellow students.

The funeral services were held at Westminster Presbyterian church of which he was a member. Thirty-five members of his fraternity, Beta Theta Pi, attended the services and sang.

BERLIN — German research has revealed that Europe discovered the umbrella 175 years ago this week. The first was brought to London from China.

Trouble with being a rich man is when the phone rings you think your son has been jailed for speeding.

Poisoned With Moonshine And Then Murdered

Eureka Farmer Believed To Be Bootleg Victim

EUREKA, Calif., Oct. 26. —(P)—The body of Gustave Bearson, 66, a retired farmer, was found hanging to a tree in the Sunnyside district, five miles north of here today. The authorities believe that Bearson was hanged after he had been poisoned and killed by bootleg whiskey, the hanging having been done by the man who gave him the whiskey.

Bearson's feet were touching the ground and there was no evidence of strangulation. Nearby was found a whiskey still and at Bearson's feet was an empty whiskey flask. The man had been missing for 10 days.

Pity the Poor School Teachers

Some activity is also reported in Yakima and California territory. Egg market steady with no changes reported.
