CORRECTION

Sixteen hundred dollars, not sixteen thousand, was the amount of the contract let by the city school board to the Chown hardware company of Portland for outfitting the new Fremont school with hardware. "Sixteen thousand dollars for hardware for one school would be rather extravagant," C. H. Underwood, chairman of the city school board commented this morning.

WANTS DIVORCE

The daily divorce case was filed this morning. M. F. Bosden wants his marriage ties with Astrid Bosden forever severed. He claims that his wife, against his will and desire, deserted him. The couple were married December 19, 1921.
