Johnnie Trambitas Scheduled To Arrive Here Tomorrow For His Bout With Starkey Tuesday

Johnnie Trambitas, who meets Kid Starkey in the main event of 10 rounds at Scandinavian hall Tuesday night, is due to arrive here finishing touches. This will give Klamath "ringworms" a good line of the ability of this shifty, hard-hitting Roumanian.

Starkey, a prime favorite with Klamath fans, is working out daily. His shoulder, which bothered him in his bout with De Pinto, is now in working order, and he says if he loses to the Portland battler he will have no excuses to offer.

Chuch Sams is showing marked improvement daily, and by the way this fast coming welter is performing in the gym. Earl Stola is scheduled to return to Bend with the small end of the purse for the six-round semi-windup. These two boys sent the fans home talking to themselves a couple of weeks ago, and if their repeater is as good as their first bout it promises to be a corker.

The four-round special event between the two Indian mitt welders, Wilbur Harrington and Jack Crim, has the fans buzzing for fair. These two boys have been anxious to square away at each other for many months, and both jumped at the chance of fighting it out at Scandinavian hall Tuesday night. Matchmaker Sylvester pulled a real one from the clouds when he signed these two boys, and the population of Chiloqueta promises to resemble the deserted village Tuesday evening.

Henry Burke is heating some hefty wallops at his sparring partners in his work outs, and when he makes his debut as an honest-to-goodness fighter he will have a big crowd of his friends and supporters there to cheer him on. Sylvester is going to get a tough nut for Henry to crack, but the little wrestler just grins and says he doesn't care how tough they are. This bout will eclipse any curtain raiser ever put on here and is a guarantee that all the fans will be in their seats promptly at 8:30.

Tickets were placed on sale this afternoon in down town cigar stores and pool rooms, so fans can select their seats anywhere they want them in plenty of time.

Powell Promises Fairness to All

I wish to thank the many friends who supported me in the recent election.

In the discharge of my duties as councilman of the second ward, I shall show fairness and consideration, and work for the best interests of the city.

To The Evening Herald I wish also to show my appreciation and thanks for the fairness shown me.

Z. J. POWELL.

TO MALIN ON BUSINESS

LOCAL RANCHER IMPORTS DAIRY LIVESTOCK HERE

Boyd Bruner to Dispose of Cows; Are Being Held on Darley Ranch

Belief that there is a good market in Klamath for high grade and pure bred dairy livestock has impelled Boyd Bruner, prominent dairyman, to ship several car loads of livestock from Coos county to this county.

The consignment of livestock will arrive in Klamath some time this week and will include five pure bred Ayerhires and 24 high grade Jersey two-year-olds. They will be held on the C. T. Darley ranch until disposed of.

Drunk Indian Goes Wild On City Streets

Wild Red Slugs Patrolman But Misses The Mayor

A wild, snortin', whiskey-crazed Klamath Indian ran amuck on the corner of Klamath and Eighth street shortly after noon today and before the pandemonium had subsided a customer of the Ford Garage was badly beaten up and City Patrolman Mitchell was suffering from a badly bruised nose.

Police were called when the wild Indian was found pummeling a man in the Ford garage. A crowd quickly gathered outside of the garage when Patrolman Mitchell arrived on the scene. The Indian was prostrate upon the ground.

Suddenly he climbed to his feet and hit Mitchell a terrific blow on the nose. Mitchell retaliated with several hard blows with his sap which apparently had no effect on the whiskey-crazed Indian.

Mayor Goddard stepped in to aid Mitchell and just managed to dodge another heavy blow. Finally a number of bystanders assisted the Mayor and the officer and bundled the fighting, yelling Indian into a taxi. It took four men to carry him to jail.

Who the Indian is or where he procured the whiskey, could not be learned this afternoon. He was too intoxicated to talk intelligently. A charge of being drunk and disorderly will probably be preferred against the Indian.

Hidden Spring Uncovered By Steam Shovel

Clear Cold Water Gushing From Barrow Pit Of New Road

A beautiful hidden spring, which for years has been flowing underground into swamp land has been uncovered by a lucky scoop of the tractor steam shovel which has been grading the Midland-State Line road.

The source of the clear and cold spring water was found just south of Midland. It gushes forth from the barrow pit which parallels the road and flows in a clear cold stream into the marsh.

Which probably tells the story of why there was an Indian camp ground at that particular point. Whether or not the spring will be utilized for anything is not known.

Delphian Club Has Successful Meeting

The initial meeting of the Delta Gamma chapter of the Delphian club was held Tuesday afternoon in the sun room of the hotel White Peltain, with Mrs. T. C. Campbell, president of the club, presiding.

The first section of the program included "The Influence of Topography Upon the Egyptians," Mrs. H. M. Akeley; "Civilization of the Old Kingdom," Mrs. E. D. Johnson; "Abolitionism Expressed in Architecture," Mrs. H. R. Perrin; "Modern Discovery of the Pyramid Texts," Mrs. E. G. Wisecarver; "The Celebrated book of the Dead," Mrs. J. R. Shaw; "Egypt of Today," Mrs. Will Baldwin; supervisor's summary, Mrs. Don Zumwalt.

Under the direction of Mrs. Campbell, the second part of the program was opened with parliamentary drill, "The Mothers' Recompense" by Edith Wharton was given by Mrs. Rachel Applegate Solomon. Mrs. E. Baxter chose the subject of "Cultural Arts," Mrs. Hope Weston Kilbourne followed with current events on economic and political situations.

Mrs. J. M. Bedford, Mrs. C. F. Stone and Mrs. Hope Weston Kilbourne were courtesy hostesses throughout the afternoon.

Tru-Bake Crackers taste so Good!

The new TRU-BAKE cracker formula proved an eye-opener to everyone.

Crackers had never tasted so good before!

There's a hint of richness about TRU-BAKES. Yet a lighter, flakier or more daintily crisp cracker could scarcely be imagined.

The new narrow shape fits the bite. Does not crash or shatter. Just nips off clean.
