TO BEND ON BUSINESS
Fred Roberts and J. J. Johnson left this morning for Bend where they will transact business matters.

MISS BESS MICKY ARRIVES
Miss Bess Mickey, organizer of the P. E. O. club arrived in the city this afternoon by stage and is the guest of members of the club. A dinner party in her honor is being given this evening at the home of Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck which will be followed by a business meeting at the home of Mrs. J. I. Beard.

HERE'S A PARADOX
If ever the title of a man's occupation gave the lie to his character it is in the case of one A. C. Barnekoff. Mr. Barnekoff is a stationery traveling man. By that is not meant that he is a man who is accomplishing that rather difficult feat of traveling around and at the same time remaining stationary. No, for therein lies the paradox. Mr. Barnekoff is a traveling salesman who sells paper, envelopes and other supplies all coming under the common head of "stationery." He is stopping at the Hall hotel.

FRANK IRA WHITE HERE
The name, Frank Ira White, strikes a responsive cord in the memories of hundreds of old time residents of this county. All because Mr. White, in the first place, was once a very prominent rancher of this territory; and in the second place was closely identified with public affairs of the county during his residence here. In late years Mr. White moved away from Klamath, but he has retained property in Klamath, just south of this city, known as the White ranch. And it was for that reason that he returned to Klamath Falls last night to spend several days in the county. He is stopping at the Hall hotel.

CENSUS RETURNS COMING IN

Returns from the county school census in the smaller communities are beginning to drift in to the county school clerk's office. Little change in the population is noted by the return from the small communities. It is expected that the largest increase will be shown from Chiloquin, with Merrill, Malin and Bonanza close behind. But Chiloquin during the past year, owing to new mills and general development, has displayed a substantial growth. The census takes in every girl and boy between the ages of 4 and 21.
