Alumni Will Attempt To Down Their Juniors

Determined to dampen the enthusiasm of their juniors, a football team composed of alumni of the Klamath County High School will test onto Fair Grounds field to meet the regular high school team. The boys have dubbed themselves "Tribicums" and under the tutelage of Clyde Walsh are rounding into a formidable organization. Whatever they lack in team play will be made up in enthusiasm and determination.

Special admission prices have been agreed upon for the exhibition game: 35 cents adult general admission; 15 cents for students; and 10 cents for pupils of the grade schools.

Coach Dwight French will be absent from the game and Ed Clark will act as coach during the fray.

STATE TO TAKE HAND IN INDIAN ASSAULT CASE

The blow that broke the nose of City Patrolman Mitchell yesterday at 1 o'clock, may cost Jerry Chocktoot, Beatty Indian, a term in jail, it developed today. For the district attorney's office has announced that it would relieve the city of prosecution of the Indian.

It is probable, Deputy District Attorney W. A. West, said today, that Chocktoot would be charged with assault and battery, which carries both a jail sentence and fine.

Chocktoot was arrested yesterday noon, after he had beat up on a man in the Ford garage and had struck Patrolman Mitchell a terrific blow in the nose. He was crazed with whiskey.
