SACRED HEART CHURCH

The Reverend William S. McDermott, O. P., of San Francisco, will arrive tonight to conduct a mission at Sacred Heart church for the coming week. Father McDermott has conducted missions throughout the country for the past twenty-five years and his vast experience has made his sermons both interesting and instructive. Father Looser feels most fortunate in being able to secure Father McDermott to conduct this annual mission, the object of which is to instruct and inform non-Catholics who may be desirous of knowing the true teachings of the Catholic church, as well as offering extraordinary opportunities for members of the church for worthy receiving the sacraments. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the services during the mission.

Idaho Loses to Southern School

MOSCOW, Ida., Oct. 31. (AP)—The University of Idaho football eleven was toppled from the throne of the Pacific conference yesterday when the University of Southern California swamped the Vandals on the local field by the 51 to 7. The driving attack of the southerners completely wrecked the Idaho defense. Drury led the U. S. C. drive, making three touchdowns and making three points in tries for goal. Idaho near the end the second period opened an aerial attack that resulted in a touchdown.
