Big Dance To Be Staged At Scandia Hall

Benny Dotson's Orchestra Ready For Opening

Benny Dotson's Serenaders are here and 'arin' to do their stuff at Scandia hall tomorrow night when the opening dance, under the new management of Jack Meehan will be staged.

The new maple floor has been put in wonderful shape and with the rest of the orchestra ready with some of the latest dance steps, the crowd is assured a real time.

Souvenir novelties will be given both men and women at the formal opening.

RADIO CARNIVAL WILL BE STAGED

More interest than ever is being shown in the radio carnival being sponsored by the Business and Professional women of Klamath Falls on Saturday, November 14, at the chamber of commerce. The funds derived will be used in securing furniture for the new rest room of the library.

Will Baldwin has cooperated with the women to the extent of placing his most valuable radio set in the chamber of commerce rooms for the day and evening with classical and dance music to be provided for the entertainment of those attending.

Each evening finds the business women and teachers of the city hard at work on attractive novelties for the various booths. All booths will represent radio stations.

One of the outstanding features of the carnival will be the fortune telling station, where fortunes will be told by an expert in this line. Another unique feature will be the radio pond. Statu will not impede fishermen in this pond!

It is hoped that every member of the business club will be present at the dinner to be given at the Hotel White Pelican next Monday evening, November 9, when final plans for the carnival will be discussed. Reservations for the dinner can be made through Miss Jo Upp at the First National bank before noon on Monday.

Since 1905 the Northern Jobbing Co. (of which this store is a member) has been established. 20 years of successful group buying. The only organization of its kind in existence that has continued to expand. To our knowledge there has not been one single store of this giant group that started as a member of this association that is not successful today.

Therein lies the secret of the old saying that goods must be bought right to sell right. The store that has the ability to buy advantageously can sell at a price which gives a worth-while saving of money to the public.

The items listed in this ad will give you some idea of our selling power.
